

Breaking News: Suspects Questioned in Smurfing Case

Members of the 2006 conference social staff are currently under investigation for their alleged participation in “smurfing” incidents that targeted a handful of Bread Loaf administrators, faculty and fellows, according to unnamed sources associated with the case.

As far as authorities can ascertain, the Smurf figurines were distributed to the following people in the dining hall over the course of the last week.

Michael Collier - Papa Smurf

Jason Schneiderman - Smurf with gold cup

Noreen Cargill - Smurf with a boombox

Ian Pounds - Smurf with powertools

Jennifer Grotz - Smurf with books

Percival Everett - Smurfette with baby

Mark Doty - Smurf with volleyball

Reactions around campus were decidedly mixed, with some participants expressing relief with the break in the case and others voicing uncertainty about what the incident can mean for the conference going forward.

“The smurfing what?” responded one conference participant folding a load of shirts in the laundry shack when asked about the recent break in the case.

One of the Smurf figurines discovered in the dining hall.