

Middlebury Schools Abroad Evaluation: 2007-2008

Evaluating your period of study abroad is one of the most valuable services you can render Middlebury College and future students planning to study abroad, and it is one of the most important ways you can help us maintain the highest possible standards. For this reason, until this form is submitted to International Programs and Off Campus Study a hold will be placed on official Middlebury transcript requests for Middlebury College students who studied at Middlebury Schools Abroad. Please note: If you studied abroad for two semesters on two different programs, you must submit two separate evaluations.

The staff of International Programs and Off Campus Study welcomes the opportunity to hear about your experiences abroad; please feel free to stop by or call and talk with us!

This document contains respondents between 1 and 7 inclusive.

unending lecture for 6 hours

Other comments about this course:

DO NOT TAKE THIS COURSE! It is more reading than a Middlebury PSCI course but it is in spanish. Marx and Marxists are hard to read and understand in english...nearly impossible in spanish. I needed three tutors to do okay in this class and I spent most of my free time reading for this class. It is super hard, the lectures are really hard to understand because the teacher tangents all the time. One of the teachers had a speech impediment which made him impossible to understand and the course is really disorganized. You never know what you are supposed to do.

Course Title #1

Resources and Society (UPPER LEVEL)

At which institution/university did you take this course?

UBA-FILO

Means of assessment (e.g., papers, exams, homework, etc.)

Exams

Please describe the course content:

A look at how Geography affects how economies interact with their natural surroundings, determining how certain economies fail and other succeed.

Please describe the means by which the material/concepts for this course were conveyed, particularly if the teaching style was different from what you are used to.

Strictly 4-hour lecture and 2-hour practicum. Weekly readings.

Other comments about this course:

A very challenging course even for the Argentines, the course is not recommended as the course content is not quite as the professor describes the course on the first day. It is much more economically driven than geographically.

Course Title #2

Argetine Social Geography (UPPER LEVEL)

At which institution/university did you take this course?

UBA-FILO

Means of assessment (e.g., papers, exams, homework, etc.)

Exams

Describe course content

Observing the struggle between the city and the countryside of Argentina over the last 150 years, the class focuses on different social groups and their political/economic issues at critical parts in time, while also stressing the overall demographic shifts of the country.

Please describe the means by which the material/concepts for this course were conveyed, particularly if the teaching style was different from what you are used to.

Lectures and Practicum. Weekly Readings.

Other comments about this course:

An excellent class to take as an introduction to Argentina. The professor can at times be long-winded and lectures may be difficult to determine what is important and what is not.

Course Title #3

Internship

At which institution/university did you take this course?

Ecoclubes

Means of assessment (e.g., papers, exams, homework, etc.)

none

Describe course content

My internship mostly consisted of translating emails and memos from the International Offices from English to Spanish. Preparing nation-wide letters and memos to other chapters across the country was also done. Grant proposals to international organizations in English were prepared and translated by me from Spanish to English.

Please describe the means by which the material/concepts for this course were conveyed, particularly if the teaching style was different from what you are used to.
