Program Schedule

_Thursday, October 28. All events take place at the Kirk Alumni Center_

12 Noon  Arrival at Kirk Alumni Center, lunch and welcome packets.

1:15-2:30pm  Introductory Session.
   1. Welcome and preview of meeting schedule.
   2. Acceptance of the Minutes from 2010 CETE meeting.
   3. Introduction of participants.
   4. Reminder of schedule of future meetings.
   5. Possible “Articulation Agreement” between Brandeis MAT and CETE alumni. [Dirck Roosevelt, Brandeis University.]
   6. Update on status of sub-CETE Ford Foundation proposal—Professor Marya Levinson, Brandeis University & Sam Intrator, Smith College.

2:30   Break

3:00pm  Who are the learners who are coming to our institutions and so what? What are the norms and values that have informed the households in which they have been raised? What are the implications for preparing the next generation of teachers?

4:30   Break

6:00pm  Reception and dinner in the Atwater Commons Dining Hall.
   Welcome from Jim Ralph, Dean of the Faculty and Rehnquist Professor of American History & Culture.
   Members of Middlebury College and our town community involved with the Education Studies Program will join CETE Participants.
Friday, October 29. All events take place at the Kirk Alumni Center.

8:30 am   Meeting of the whole. Preview Breakout sessions. Are there any new topics that participants want to offer for facilitation?

9:00am    Breakout sessions based on topics requested at CETE 2009 meeting. Participants select a group.

1. Roundtable sharing of one another’s research and teaching interests [Facilitator: Lee Ann Bell, Barnard College.]
2. Sharing of recent experiences with external program reviews, particularly regarding student outcomes. [Facilitator: Todd Kent, Princeton University.]
3. Sharing of syllabi, specifically regarding Special Education and English Language Learners [Facilitator: Janet Zullo, Dartmouth College.]
4. Sharing of how lesson plan procedures are taught to pre-service teachers? [Facilitator: Maria Hantzopoulos, Vassar College.]
5. Discussion of possible CETE-Consortium courses that would be available to any student at any member institution. Specifically, could this be done online? Or is such a thing anathema to the Liberal Arts ideal? Facilitator: Dirck Roosevelt, Brandeis University.
6. TBA?

10:30am    Break

10:45am    Meeting of the whole. Closing comments. Planning for next year.

12noon    Lunch and depart.

[For those staying for the Mellon 23 Consortium workshop/conference, we will begin at 4:30pm in the Axinn Center at Starr Library, room 229, on the main campus of Middlebury College.]