Pre-Semester Portuguese Language Course in Brazil

Dates: February 3-February 28, 2014
Location: Florianópolis, Brazil
Tuition: $3,000
Estimated room, board, and living expenses: $1,500

Program Highlights

• 80-hour, full immersion language and culture program in Portuguese
• One unit of credit, equivalent to 4-5 semester hours, transcripted through Middlebury College
• Grammar, conversation, and writing skills equivalent to a regular semester course at the fourth semester level
• Cultural component focuses on the study of the cultural and social characteristics of the local Carnaval
• Traditional lectures and activities put students directly in contact with various community members
• Extension activities and excursions

This program will prepare students to attain the language level necessary to participate in the spring semester direct-enrollment courses available through the Middlebury School in Brazil at the Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina in Florianópolis.

C.V. Starr-Middlebury Schools Abroad
Middlebury, VT 05753
schoolsabroad@middlebury.edu
802.443.5745
www.middlebury.edu/sa