AFRICAN STUDIES

STEP 1: Disciplinary Specializations
□ IGST 0101 before going abroad

STEP 2: Language/Culture

Language competency in French or Swahili; satisfactory completion of at least one advanced French course or one independent study in Swahili upon students’ return to Middlebury. If French is the language of emphasis, students must study an appropriate indigenous African language to a level of reasonable competence while abroad. The French Department will specify which courses fulfill the French requirement. The African Studies director will specify which courses fulfill the Swahili requirement.
STEP 3: Regional Specialization
For students graduating in 2016 who choose the old requirements:

□ Three courses with exclusive or primarily African content, in at least two different disciplines. No double counting of courses in your disciplinary specialization and your language.
(1) __________, (2) __________, (3) __________

For students who graduate in 2017 (2016) and after:
Five courses in at least three departments, spread across at least two divisions. At least three regional courses must be taken in Middlebury.
(1) __________, (2) __________, (3) __________
(4) __________, (5) __________

STEP 4: Global Courses
Beginning with the class of 2017 (2016), students will be required to take three global courses. These will be selected in consultation with the advisor, based on a list of courses designated as global courses by the IGS program. Global courses are thematic, trans-regional, and comparative.
(1) __________, (2) __________, (3) __________

STEP 5: Study Abroad
□ Study abroad in Africa, preferably for a year but at least for one semester. Students must receive the approval of relevant departments and/or, as appropriate, the director of African studies to receive major credit for courses taken abroad.

STEP 6: Senior Program
For students who graduate in 2016 who choose the old requirements:
□ Either a 0400-level senior IGS seminar, or students may also propose to write a two-semester honors thesis (IGST0705) in their senior year. A thesis is required for honors. Students must have a 3.5 average or better in all courses that count for the major to apply to write an honors thesis. No exceptions will be made to these requirements.
(1) __________.
(2) __________

□ An upper-level course, preferably two, in the language of emphasis that will be taken after returning from abroad. The language departments will determine which courses can be taken to fulfill this requirement, in consultation with the program director.
(1) __________

For students who graduate in 2017 (2016) and after:
□ Departmental Senior seminar—either regional or global—in the Humanities or Social Sciences, OR
□ an IGS 0400-level seminar

□ An upper level course, preferably two, in language of emphasis taken after returning from abroad
(1) __________, (2) __________
Optional: Students may elect to write a two-term senior thesis, but cannot substitute it for the required senior seminar.

Only for students graduating in 2016 who choose the old requirements
