EAST ASIAN STUDIES

STEP 1: Disciplinary Specialization

□ IGST 0101 before going abroad

STEP 2: Language/Culture

□ Satisfactory completion of advanced work in either Chinese or Japanese. The Chinese and Japanese departments will specify which courses fulfill this requirement. A student who already has native or near-native proficiency in Japanese must fulfill the language requirements for Chinese. A student who already has native or near-native proficiency in Chinese must fulfill the language requirements for Japanese.

Specify: (1)___________, (2)________, (3)_________, (4)_______, (5)_______, (6)_______
STEP 3: Regional Specialization

For students who graduate in 2014.5, 2015 and 2016 who choose the old requirements:

Either □ For students who elect to learn the Japanese language: □ Three courses on East Asia (two courses with content exclusively or primarily on Japan and one on China or East Asia), in at least two different disciplines. No double counting of courses in your disciplinary specialization nor your language.

   (1) __________, (2) __________, (3) __________

Or □ For those students who elect to learn the Chinese language: □ Three courses on East Asia (two courses with content exclusively or primarily on China and one on Japan or East Asia), in at least two different disciplines. No double counting of courses in your disciplinary specialization and your language.

   (1) __________, (2) __________, (3) __________

Students who have native or near-native proficiency in one language and achieve proficiency in the other may choose a regional specialization in either China or Japan.

For students who graduate in 2017 (2016) and after:

□ Five courses, in at least three departments spread across two divisions. At least three regional courses must be taken in Middlebury (1) ____________, (2) ____________, (3) ____________, (4) ____________, (5) ____________.

STEP 4: Global Courses

This is not a requirement for graduates of 2014.5, 2015 (2016)

Beginning with the class of 2017 (2016), students will be required to take three global courses. These will be selected in consultation with the advisor, based on a list of courses designated as global courses by the IGS program. Global courses are thematic, trans-regional, and comparative.

   (1) ____________, (2) ____________, (3) ____________

STEP 5: Study Abroad

□ Study abroad in China or Japan, preferably for a year but at least for one semester. Students must receive the approval of relevant departments and/or, as appropriate, the director of East Asian studies to receive major credit for courses taken abroad. Study abroad must be in the language of study at Middlebury. Specify: (1) ____________, (2) ____________, (3) ____________, (4) ____________, (5) ____________, (6) ____________

STEP 6: Senior Program

Students must have a 3.5 average or better in all courses that count for the major to apply to write an honors thesis. No exceptions will be made to these requirements.

   (1) ____________, (2) ____________

□ An upper-level course, preferably two, in the language of emphasis that will be taken after returning from abroad. The language departments will determine which courses can be taken to fulfill this requirement, in consultation with the program director.

   (1) ____________
For students who graduate in 2017 (2016) and after:

□ A departmental senior seminar—either regional or global—in the Humanities or Social Sciences, or an IGST 0400-level seminar

□ An upper level course, preferably two, in language of emphasis taken after returning from abroad (1)____________, (2)____________

Optional: Students may elect to write a two-term senior thesis, but may not substitute it for the required senior seminar
