Middlebury graduates can be found all over the world, in all industries and fields. Here’s a snapshot:

What do Midd grads do?

Education — 24%

Financial Services — 16%

Government, Policy, & Law — 13%

Healthcare & Research — 11%

Media & Entertainment — 7%

Social & Human Services — 6%

Consulting — 5%

Environment & Energy — 4%

Technology — 4%

* Lots of overlap, e.g. “Environment & Energy” positions can also be found in government, law, consulting, technology, etc.

Where do Midd grads work?

- Amazon
- Apple
- Google
- Central Intelligence Agency
- White & Case
- The World Bank
- Peace Corps
- Clinton Global Initiative
- New Sector Alliance
- Dana Farber
- Genentech
- Mass General Hospital
- Philips Exeter Academy
- Teach for America
- Harvard University
- Environmental Protection Agency
- The Nature Conservancy
- 1% For The Planet
- Discovery Communications
- ABC
- Disney
- New York Times

Midd grads head back to school…

Middlebury graduates go on to receive advanced degrees at top schools. 12% of the class of 2014 headed directly into graduate school, while 62% plan to attend in the next five years.

Medical school

- Duke University
- Columbia University
- Harvard University
- Yale University
- UCLA

- Dartmouth College
- New York University
- Princeton University
- University of Chicago
- Stanford University

Boston College

CCI maintains relationships with over 3,000 employers.