Dear Alumni,

On behalf of the Middlebury College Alumni Association (MCAA) board, welcome to your class reunion! Make plans to reconnect with classmates and relive your Middlebury days minus the exams! This weekend will also be a special time for you to meet alumni from other generations—you will find yourself surrounded by members of the Classes of 1940 through 2010. That is a lot of Middlebury experience!

Within this program, you’ll find the details of the many events planned for the weekend—including golf, hikes, faculty talks, alumni achievement presentations, Q&A with President Liebowitz, and various panels.

On Saturday afternoon, don’t miss the parade of classes up to Convocation in Mead Chapel, where you will hear class memories from 75 years ago to today. Over the course of the weekend, I hope you will have a chance to reflect upon your Middlebury experience and to celebrate the role the College has played in your life. Thanks for all you do to make Middlebury the great place it continues to be.

And, if you’d like to get more involved—conducting an alumni interview, offering a summer internship to a Midd Kid or helping to plan a chapter event—please visit www.middlebury.edu/alumni.

Here’s to walls of ivy for years to come,

Open Houses and Tours

FRIDAY, JUNE 5

1:00 to 4:00 p.m.  Middlebury College Special Collections

The College Archives preserves the history of Middlebury College through documents, catalogs, and newspapers, and through the unique contributions of alumni. Please join us in Special Collections for an open house featuring a selection of gifts made to Special Collections over the centuries by alumni, students, parents, faculty, and friends, ranging from medieval manuscripts to pantaloons, rare books to handwritten diaries, scrapbooks to photographs.

Davis Family Library, Lower Level

1:00 to 3:00 p.m.  Solar Decathlon Open House

Self-Reliance (2011)

The U.S. Department of Energy Solar Decathlon is a biennial competition that challenges 20 collegiate teams to design, build, and exhibit completely solar-powered homes. Self-Reliance, Middlebury’s fourth-place finisher in 2011, will be open for tours on Friday only. A student host will be present to answer your questions and show you around. See Saturday’s schedule to tour the 2013 home, InSite.

Self-Reliance on Porter Field Road

1:00 to 3:30 p.m.  Peterson Family Athletics Complex Open House

On January 24, Middlebury celebrated the opening and dedication of the new Virtue Field House and remodeled Peterson Family Athletics Complex. Come see the new facility along with the Middlebury Athletics History Wall, and the Athletics Hall of Fame.

South Main Street, Route 30

Your name tag is your ticket into meals and activities. Please wear it at all times.
SATURDAY, JUNE 6

10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Organic Farm Open House

The Middlebury College Organic Farm is celebrating 13 years since students, faculty, staff, and community members first planted it in the summer of 2003. Within walking distance of the College campus, the farm has become an important asset to the College, offering opportunities for academic involvement, community connections, and environmental stewardship.

Middlebury College Organic Farm, Route 125 West

11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Peterson Family Athletics Complex Open House

See Friday’s description on page 4.

South Main Street, Route 30

1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Solar Decathlon Open House

InSite (2013)

InSite, Middlebury’s eighth-place winner in 2013, will be open for tours on Saturday only. See Friday’s schedule to tour the 2011 home, Self-Reliance.

9:00 a.m.     Ross Dining Hall

6:45 to       Class of 1965 (50th) Spin with Tim Hopf ’65
8:00 a.m.     Spinning may evoke images of copiously sweating hardbodies, draconian instructors, and thumping euro-techno disco. Tim’s class will be nothing like that; it will be fun and will feature the great songs of our college years.
                Minimum equipment: sneakers, gym shorts, tee shirt, water bottle. Bike shoes and shorts are helpful but not necessary. Set-up assistance will be available. BONUS: the exercise will help justify the eating and drinking later on. Limited to 15, please sign up in the class headquarters.

College Admissions Workshop

The annual “Applying to College” workshop sponsored by the Admissions Office is open to high school-age children and grandchildren of Middlebury alumni, faculty, and staff as well as students from Vermont high schools. Preference is given to juniors in high school. This program gives an overview of the general selective college application process and does not focus on Middlebury College. It runs from 8:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and covers five areas of the college application process: 1) choosing a college; 2) how to visit a college; 3) how a college admits its class; 4) financial aid; and 5) understanding the common application—a hands-on session. Following the final presentation, individual afternoon appointments can be scheduled with Student Financial Services.

For any students who are interested specifically in Middlebury College, a group information session will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. at the Admissions Office, and campus tours will be offered at 2:30 p.m. Questions? Please contact the Admissions Office at 802-443-3000.

Many Thousand Gone and The Language Schools at the Art Museum

Featuring: Pieter Broucke and William Hart

Associate Professor of History William Hart, who cocurated Many Thousand Gone, with assistance from the students in his spring 2015 course, HIST 0225: African-American History, will review the history of the exhibit’s approximately 100 photographs—covering more than 125 years of black life in the United States—from the exhaustive yet little-known collection of George R. Rinhart, one of the foremost collectors of American photography.

Pieter Broucke, Associate Curator of Ancient Art, will give an overview of The Language Schools at the Art Museum, an exhibition he cocurated with Sabarsky Graduate Fellow Peter Moore ’14 to celebrate the centennial of the Middlebury Language Schools. The exhibit, which includes two works for each language, strikes a balance between historical and contemporary works, highlights the geographic reach of each language, and provides surprising juxtapositions of subject matter. Reception to follow.

2:00 to 3:30 p.m.
Class of 1965 (50th) Pete’s Repeat Retreat

A delightful group-think proposed and facilitated by Peter Delfausse, MD at the 25th reunion. Peter writes: “We will convene, in a nonjudgmental attitude, to contemplate, to listen, to share our experiences since we last met. Please come in comfortable clothes and bring a bottle of water, as we may do some stretching, some chanting, some meditation, some letting go, and even a hug or two! At the close of the Friday session we can discuss whether to reconvene. All are welcome!”

The Story Circle, an interviewing method facilitated by the Vermont Folklife Center, invites people to come together and speak about their common experiences. Come hear members of your class tell stories about Middlebury and share some of your own.

Mahaney Center for the Arts, Room 125
3:30 to 4:30 p.m.  Sustainability at Middlebury
In and Out of the Classroom
Jack Byrne, director of the Office of Sustainability Integration, and Steve Trombulak, director of sciences and the Middlebury School of the Environment, will offer a short presentation on results of a comprehensive assessment of Middlebury’s progress toward sustainability as measured by a national framework for assessing sustainability in higher education. We’ll also describe how one specific program—the new Middlebury School of the Environment—implements sustainability education into its curriculum. The presentation will provide an opportunity for dialogue about what the College’s future vision and goals for sustainability should be.

Franklin Environmental Center at Hillcrest, The Orchard, Room 103

4:00 to 5:00 p.m.  Open AA Meeting
Moderated by a member of the Class of 1965. Open to all interested in learning about AA.

Polly Hallett Kawalek ’75

Polly Kawalek celebrates her 40th reunion with appreciation for Middlebury providing the tools for her 40-year corporate career. Her 25-year career with Quaker Oats began with an entry-level marketing position in the Pet Foods Division and culminated with running the entire Quaker Foods portfolio, following Quaker’s acquisition by PepsiCo in 2001. Polly currently serves on the board of directors of two mid-cap manufacturing companies, John Bean Technologies and Elkay Manufacturing.

Polly majored in economics at Middlebury and received her MBA from the University of Chicago (now Booth) in 1978. Her board service with not-for-profit organizations in Chicago has included the Chicago Foundation for Women, the Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago, and Northlight Theater, and she currently serves on the board of the Chicago Philharmonic Society.

Curtis G. Viebranz ’75

Curt Viebranz, a political science and Spanish double major, is here celebrating his 40th reunion. Curt spent nearly 20 years at Time Warner, where his last position was president of HBO International, responsible for launching HBO-branded channels outside the U.S. After leaving HBO, Curt moved to the world of Internet start-ups. As CEO of ad-targeting company TACODA, Curt helped grow the business while ultimately engineering its sale to AOL in 2007. Curt currently serves as the 10th president & CEO of George Washington’s Mount Vernon, the most visited historic home in America, where he is deeply engaged in countering the national trend away from the teaching of American history. He is also a member of the Council on Foreign Relations.
A former president of the Middlebury College Alumni Association, Curt is a 1995 recipient of the Alumni Plaque in recognition of his service to Middlebury.

10:45 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. Veterans’ Gathering
With special guests LTC (retired) Michael Palaza, former commander, University of Vermont ROTC; Dan Morosani ’05, U.S. Marine Corps, 2002–2011; and Allison Stanger, professor of international politics and economics
Led by the Class of 1965, vets and friends from all classes are welcome. After a brief address from each of our speakers, the audience will be encouraged to participate, and these stories and questions will direct the discussion. The event will culminate with a moment of silence as those who are able can process by the Middlebury Veterans Memorial upstairs in Mead Chapel. Honored are 90 Middlebury alumni who have died in war.

Years of Upheaval: Reflections on Designing and Teaching an Online Alumni Course

Presented by Russ Leng ’60, professor emeritus and trustee; and Susan Baldridge, provost and professor of psychology
Over 1,170 alumni, parents, and friends registered for this comprehensive—some say “Ken Burns style”—course covering the years from WWI–WWII. This multimedia delivery was nothing like the classroom Professor Leng experienced when he began teaching in 1966. Whether you have participated online or not, don’t miss this opportunity to hear why Middlebury took a bold step in offering a free online course. We will take a close look, through some short segments, at what is in the course and why, and have an open discussion of this new initiative in lifelong learning for Midd alumni. Just for fun, we will finish with some “outtakes” from the course filming.
Axinn Center at Starr Library, Room 232

1:00 to 2:00 p.m.
Class of 1965 (50th) Walk a Part of the Campus and the Trail Around Middlebury (TAM)

1:00 to 4:00 p.m.
Book Signing, Shape of the Sky by Shelagh Connor Shapiro ’85

One Vermont town’s experience of 15 minutes of fame, in the form of a music festival: Shape of the Sky weaves tales of friendship, family, love, and loss through the viewpoints of townspeople, a policeman, fans, and a rock star. Sydney Lea, Vermont poet laureate and cofounder of the New England Review, said that Shape of the Sky “dramatizes and testifies to the always complex and always intriguing intricacies of how we deal with one another as human beings.”
Middlebury College Book Store, Proctor Hall
1:30 to 3:30 p.m.  Alumni Choir Singfest
The College extends an invitation to ALL interested alumni, family, and friends to join in a singfest on Saturday afternoon. Professor Emeritus Emory Fanning will lead us in revisiting the great choral music from years past.

Telephone and Internet Access
There are telephones in the common areas of all residence halls. You need only dial the last four digits of any on-campus number. For local calls, dial “9” and the seven-digit number.
For calling card calls, dial “9” and wait for the tone. Then dial the carrier’s toll-free number.
If you have questions about the phone system, dial “5700” (during business hours, Monday through Friday, 8:15 a.m.–5:00 p.m.) or “0” (nights and weekends) for the campus operator.
Wireless Internet access is available throughout most of campus. If you need to use a computer, visit the Davis Family Library or McCullough Student Center.

To Access Wi-Fi on Campus or at Bread Loaf
Connect to GuestAccountCreation to create a guest account, then connect to MiddleburyCollege. Please call the Technology HelpDesk with any questions at 802-443-2200.
Automatic Teller Machines (ATMs)
ATMs are located in McCullough Student Center lobby and outside the Wilson Café in the Davis Family Library.

How to Get Around on Campus
Buses or Middlebury vans will be available to transport guests to and from many events. Golf carts will also be available to transport guests who need special assistance. A campus shuttle will make regular stops at points around campus from 3:00 to 11:00 p.m. on Friday and 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Saturday. The campus shuttle will make stops at Adirondack Circle, Ridgeline parking lot, Ridgeline houses, Stewart parking lot, Mahaney Center for the Arts parking lot, McCullough, and behind Wright Theatre. Shuttle stops will be marked with a sign, and shuttles will run approximately every 15 minutes.
