Congratulations on your acceptance and on successfully navigating the long, often challenging, process of applying to and selecting a college. You’ve made a great choice in deciding to spend your college years at Middlebury, and we look forward to meeting you when you arrive. With this email, we invite you to acquaint yourself with the opportunities that await you on campus.

Important Correspondence
In the months to come, you will receive both mail and emails from Middlebury containing important information about your arrival, orientation dates (required for all new students), course selection, and various aspects of student life on campus. Please read these materials carefully. In some cases, you will need to respond quickly by completing information that will help with rooming assignments, first-year seminar placement, health accommodations, and more.

You can track your progress using our pre-arrival checklist in BannerWeb, Middlebury’s online database, which also provides you with direct access to academic and personal information.

- Type go.middlebury.edu/bannerweb into your browser.
- Log into BannerWeb with your User ID {insert ID here} and your PIN (your birthdate in MMDDYY format).
- Follow the links to complete and submit the required information.

If you experience difficulties using BannerWeb, please contact the Technology Helpdesk at helpdesk@middlebury.edu.

Orientation
Please note that MiddView (September Orientation) will begin on Tuesday, September 8, 2015, and February Orientation will begin on Wednesday, February 10, 2016. These orientations are required for all new students, including transfer and exchange students.

Early Arrival?
International students—including exchange students, international transfer students, and U.S. students abroad—who have registered for the pre-orientation program Early Arrival should contact International Student and Scholar Services at isss@middlebury.edu for specific arrival-day information.

Help?
Please visit go.middlebury.edu/orientation. We’ll update this site regularly, and final orientation schedules will be posted closer to your arrival. For questions that can’t be answered on the website, send an email to orientation@middlebury.edu or call 802-443-3103.

We look forward to seeing you on campus!
