Dear Alumni,

On behalf of the Middlebury Alumni Association board, welcome to your class Reunion! A Middlebury Reunion is a wonderful weekend full of reconnecting with classmates, sharing memories, exploring what is new (and what remains the same) on campus, and simply enjoying this beautiful place that is Middlebury.

It is also an opportunity to make new connections with alumni from other generations—you will find yourself surrounded by members of the Classes of 1944 through 2014. That is a lot of Middlebury experience!

Within this program, you’ll find details of the many events planned for the weekend—including hikes, faculty talks, alumni achievement presentations, a presidential panel, and more.

On Saturday afternoon, I encourage you to join the parade of classes up to Mead Chapel for Convocation, where you will hear class memories from 75 years ago to today. It is truly memorable. Over the course of the weekend, I hope you will have a chance to reflect upon your Middlebury experience and celebrate the role the College has played in your life. Thanks for all you do to make Middlebury the great place it continues to be.

And, if you’d like to get more involved—conducting a prospective student interview, offering a summer internship to a Midd Kid, or becoming a mentor—please visit www.middlebury.edu/alumni.

Here’s to walls of ivy for years to come,

Tom Steinle ’84
Middlebury Alumni Association Board President

Middlebury College Museum of Art Special Exhibits

Norman Rockwell’s Willie Gillis returns to Middlebury

Thanks to the generosity of a private collector, Norman Rockwell’s 1946 painting Willie Gillis in College, which features a student in his Middlebury dorm room with Old Chapel visible in the background, has returned to the Middlebury College Museum of Art on extended loan. Rockwell’s painting was previously on loan to Middlebury in 1992 as part of the celebratory opening of the Middlebury College Museum of Art.

The painting by Rockwell was featured on a poster that coincided with the 1992 opening of the museum. Remaining copies of the poster will be distributed free to visitors (as long as supplies last).

50/50: Fifty Years of Collecting for Middlebury
January 25–August 11, 2019

Fifty years ago, Middlebury began the formal process of acquiring art for its permanent collection. This exhibit marks that anniversary by bringing together one work from each year. Included are paintings, sculptures, prints, drawings, and photography, from antiquity to the present and from diverse cultures around the world.

Kevin P. Mahaney ’84 Center for the Arts, Tuesday–Saturday, 10:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m., Thursday, 6:00–9:00 p.m., and Sunday, noon–5:00 p.m.

8:00 to 9:30 a.m.  Class of 1969 (50th) Two Morning Sessions  In each generation, free speech comes under close examination. It is one of the defining—and often contentious—traits of a free society. Over the past few decades, as a defense attorney, federal judge, and even teacher, Bill Sessions has had cause to examine and reflect on the First Amendment. In this session, he will lead a conversation on its implications in today’s culture.
In the second session, two parents relate their experiences raising differently abled kids. Kathy Rouse discusses the gifts, talents, and challenges of raising a son with Down syndrome. Incorporating his experiences as a pediatrician, as well as a parent, David Breen reflects on life with an autistic son.

College Admissions Workshop
The annual “Applying to College” workshop is sponsored by the Admissions Office. High-school-age children and grandchildren of Middlebury alumni, faculty, and staff, and their parents, are invited. The program gives an overview of the general selective college application process and does not focus on Middlebury College. There will be a presentation and discussion of case studies of mock college applications. More information and registration can be found at middlebury.edu/admissions/ccworkshop. In a separate session, there will be a financial aid overview.

Following the final presentation, individual afternoon appointments can be scheduled with Student Financial Services. In addition, for any students who are interested specifically in Middlebury College, a group information session will be conducted at 1:30 p.m., and campus tours will be offered at 2:30 p.m. Questions? Please contact the Admissions Office at 802-443-3000.

Libraries

Davis Family Library
Thursday–Sunday, 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m.
When the state-of-the-art Davis Family Library opened on June 28, 2004, it replaced the venerable Egbert Starr Library, which was constructed in 1900. The Davis Family Library’s holdings include fiction and nonfiction, newspapers and journals, graphic novels, films and videos, music scores and recordings, government documents, special collections, archives, and manuscripts.

Special Collections in Davis Family Library
Thursday–Saturday, 1:00–5:00 p.m., closed Sunday
Special Collections serves as a research laboratory for students, faculty, staff, alumni, the Middlebury community, and independent scholars. Major collections are broad in scope and include the Julian W. Abernethy Collection of American Literature, the Helen Hartness Flanders Ballad Collection, Rare Books and Manuscripts, and the Middlebury College Archives.

Armstrong Science Library
Friday, 9:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m., closed Saturday and Sunday
Located in McCardell Bicentennial Hall, the Armstrong Library provides curriculum support in the fields of biology, chemistry and biochemistry, computer science, environmental studies, geography, geology, physics, and psychology. The library is also home to the Antique Scientific Instruments Collection, which captures the history of laboratory science at Middlebury College, from the early 19th to the early 20th century. A display case at the entrance to the library features exhibits showcasing some of these items.
College Bookstore
The College Bookstore is open throughout the weekend and is pleased to offer the following special discounts:
- 20 percent discount for the 5th–20th Reunion classes
- 25 percent discount for the 25th–45th Reunion classes

Friday 11:30 a.m.–2:00 p.m.
Saturday Closed
Located in the McCullough Student Center.

Telephone and Computer Access
There are telephones in the common areas of all residence halls. You need only dial the last four digits of any on-campus number. For local calls, dial “9” and the seven-digit number. For calling card calls, dial “9” and wait for the tone. Then dial the carrier’s toll-free number. If you have questions about the phone system, dial “2200” (during business hours, Monday through Friday, 8:15 a.m.–5:00 p.m.). Wireless internet access is available throughout most of campus. If you need to use a computer, visit the Davis Family Library or McCullough Student Center.

Access Wi-Fi on Campus
Connect to MiddleburyGuest, create a guest account, and enter the password that will be sent to you via SMS and email. Please call the Technology HelpDesk with any questions at 802-443-2200 (open only until Friday at 5:00 p.m.).

ATMs
ATMs are located in McCullough Student Center lobby and outside the Wilson Café in the Davis Family Library.
Lost and Found
Lost-and-found articles should be delivered to general Reunion headquarters in McCullough Student Center’s Crest Room throughout the weekend. If you are missing anything, please call 802-443-5183 or contact alumni@middlebury.edu. Middlebury College is not responsible for lost or stolen articles.

How to Get Around on Campus
Buses or Middlebury vans will be available to transport guests to and from many events. Golf carts will also be available to transport guests who need special assistance. A campus shuttle will make regular stops at points around campus from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. on Friday, and 9:00 a.m. to 11:30 p.m. on Saturday. The campus shuttle will make stops at Adirondack Circle, Ridgeline parking lot, Adirondack View Road, Stewart parking lot, Mahaney Arts Center parking lot, McCullough, and behind Wright Theatre. Shuttle stops will be marked with a sign, and shuttles will run approximately every 15 minutes.

Accommodations and Assistance
Guests in need of accommodations or assistance should contact the Alumni and Parent Programs Office at 802-443-5183 prior to Reunion if they need help with arrangements.

Physical Access
Most campus buildings are accessible to all individuals. There are accessible parking spaces, designated for those with appropriate license plates, in front of most buildings. If you need additional assistance with parking, please call the Department of Public Safety at 802-443-5133.

12-Step Hospitality Center
Open on campus at the following locations:
Friday 6:00–10:00 p.m. McCullough, Mitchell Green Lounge
Saturday 6:30–11:00 p.m. Mahaney Arts Center, Room 126
For information regarding local AA meetings, please call 802-388-9284.

Name Tags
Your name tag is your ticket to all meals and receptions (breakfast, lunch, and dinner), and you must have it with you in order to be admitted. There is no admittance without your name tag.
