Dear Teachers of Italian,

The Italian Language Foundation is pleased to inform you it will be offering six (6) scholarships to teachers who are interested in attending a one week professional development seminar at Middlebury/Mills College in Oakland, California. The seminar will focus on methodologies that can be applied in all levels of the teaching of the Italian language and culture. The scholarship will include room, board, and tuition. It will NOT include transportation.

For more information, please visit http://italianlanguagefoundation.org and http://www.middlebury.edu/ls/italian/oneweekitalian.

Application Criteria
- Must be a current high school or middle school teacher of Italian.
- Must become a member of the Italian Language Foundation. http://italianlanguagefoundation.org

Please complete the following application and submit it electronically by Saturday, April 24, 2017 to Lucrezia Lindia at lglindia@hotmail.com

The recipients will be contacted and announced on the Middlebury and on the Italian Language Foundation websites.
Application for the scholarship offered by the Italian Language Foundation

First Name: _______________________ Last name: _______________________
Mailing Address_____________________________________________________
Home phone number: ________________________________________________
Cell number: _______________________________________________________
Email address: ______________________________________________________

Name of current Institution: __________________________________________
Address: ___________________________________________________________
Phone number: ______________________________________________________
Position: ___________________________________________________________
Years of teaching Italian: _____________________________________________

Please briefly explain why you believe that you should receive this scholarship:
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________