Founded in 1800 in Middlebury, Vermont, Middlebury College is one of the most renowned liberal arts and sciences colleges in the United States. Middlebury enrolls approximately 2,500 undergraduate students from all 50 U.S. states and more than 70 countries.

MAJORS

- American Studies
- Arabic
- Biology
- Chemistry and Biochemistry
- Chinese
- Classics and Classical Studies
- Comparative Literature
- Computer Science
- Creative Writing
- Dance
- Economics
- Education Studies
- English and American Literatures
- Environmental Studies
- Natural Sciences
- Conservation Biology
- Environmental Chemistry
- Environmental Geology
- Social Sciences
- Conservation Psychology
- Environmental Economics
- Environmental Policy
- Geography
- Human Ecology
- Arts
- Architecture and the Environment
- Creative Arts
- Humanities
- Environmental History
- Environmental Nonfiction Literature
- Religion, Philosophy, and the Environment
- Film and Media Culture
- French
- Gender, Sexuality, and Feminist Studies
- Geography
- Geology
- German
- History
- History of Art and Architecture
- Architectural Studies
- History of Art
- Museum Studies
- International and Global Studies
- African Studies
- East Asian Studies
- European Studies
- Latin American Studies
- Middle East Studies
- Russian and Eastern European Studies
- South Asian Studies
- International Politics and Economics
- Italian
- Japanese Studies
- Literary Studies
- Mathematics
- Molecular Biology and Biochemistry
- Music
- Neuroscience
- Philosophy
- Physics
- Political Science
- Psychology
- Religion
- Russian
- Sociology and Anthropology
- Spanish and Portuguese
- Studio Art
- Theatre
- Interdisciplinary Minors
- African American Studies
- African Studies
- Global Health
- Hebrew
- Jewish Studies
- Linguistics
- South Asian Studies

EXTENSIVE ACADEMIC OPTIONS

Middlebury offers 47 programs and majors in the humanities, social sciences, and physical sciences. Middlebury also provides opportunities for professional development, funded internships, and networking around the world.

EXCELLENT TEACHING

Our dedicated faculty teach every class, including discussion sections, and they have weekly open office hours. No classes are taught by graduate teaching assistants. We have an average class size of 19, and a student-faculty ratio of 9:1.

IDEAL CAMPUS LOCATION

Our location in the Champlain Valley of central Vermont is a very safe, naturally beautiful, culturally rich area known for its activism and awareness of social justice and environmental issues. On-campus housing is guaranteed for all four years.

SUPERIOR VALUE

Middlebury is ranked no. 11 in Best Value Schools by U.S. News and World Report and no. 6 in Best Financial Aid by the Princeton Review. We meet 100 percent of demonstrated financial need for both domestic and international students.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SUPPORT

Our International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) assists the international community, providing services including visa support, international student orientation, and the Friends of International Students host family program, which pairs local families with international students.

WHY MIDDLEBURY?

Middlebury’s 141-hectare campus is located in central Vermont, a one-hour drive from the Burlington International Airport.

MIDDLEBURY'S GLOBAL REACH

The Class of 2021 comes from 18 countries represented by international students, countries represented by U.S. citizens living abroad