Welcome to Middlebury College!

We’ve been counting down the days until your arrival and are so excited that you’re finally here. MiddView is the first of many opportunities you will have to explore what stimulates and motivates you, connect with your peers and mentors, and work together to create a dynamic, supportive, and inspiring community. This guide will serve as your go-to resource for all the information you’ll need throughout MiddView.

Enjoy your first week, meet new people, and immerse yourself in your surroundings. This is just the beginning of your new adventure.

Your MiddView Planning Team, Mehek Naqvi ’19 and Katie Mayopoulos ’18, with Ariana Hernandez ’19, Anna Paritsky ’17.5, and Campbell Wood ’19

LOCATIONS DETERMINED AT HALL MEETINGS

Commons Meeting for Families
Meet your student’s Commons team. These are the people who will be your student’s primary support throughout their Middlebury experience, and this meeting is an important opportunity for you to connect with your student’s Commons head(s), dean, coordinator, and residential director to learn about Middlebury’s Commons system and ask questions.

Please check the MiddView App or MiddView website for first-year seminar locations.

Transfer Students: Meeting with Registrar’s Office
Join fellow transfer students for a brief introduction to Middlebury’s degree requirements and information about advisors.

ARRANGE FOR MEETING WITH REGISTRAR’S OFFICE

First-Year Seminars
Your first-year seminar will be the one academic class you have during MiddView. This will be your first opportunity to meet your academic advisor (also your first-year seminar instructor) and your seminar classmates. A substantial part of the seminar meeting may be devoted to course content, or to an introduction to academic life at Middlebury. You will also be discussing course selection and registration, and you will be scheduling an individual session with your advisor. For scheduling purposes, it’s a good idea to bring this guide to class along with your other note-taking materials.

MEET AT ADIRONDACK CIRCLE
Getting the Most Out of Your Classes

Now that you have a course schedule, you may still have quite a few questions about getting the most out of your classes. What if you didn't get the schedule you were originally hoping for? What if you're having trouble understanding your assignments, lectures, or discussions? What if you don't get As? Should you be worried about the job market even as you begin college? What should you do about extracurricular activities if they start to conflict with academics? This discussion is designed to provide professorial advice that might help you get off to a good start when classes begin on Monday. It's also a chance to meet and work with students, staff, and/ or teachers at Splitting into small groups, you will have the opportunity to exchange feedback and ideas.
