Open Houses and Tours

PTP/NYC (Potomac Theatre Project) Open Rehearsal

PTP/NYC, Middlebury’s professional theatre company, will be on site rehearsing for its 30th season of challenging, provocative theatre. They are delighted to welcome reunion goers to join them briefly at a rehearsal (10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.) to see for yourselves the work of putting together a PTP season. Class of 1996, look for David Barlow on stage.

Mahaney Center for the Arts, Room 232 and Seeler Studio

FRIDAY, JUNE 10

1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Solar Decathlon Open House

The U.S. Department of Energy Solar Decathlon is a biennial competition that challenges 20 collegiate teams to design, build, and exhibit completely solar-powered homes. Self-Reliance, Middlebury’s fourth-place finisher in 2011, will be open for tours on Friday only. Kris Williams ’11 will be present to answer your questions and show you around.

Self-Reliance on Porter Field Road

1:00 to 3:30 p.m. Open House: Peterson Family Athletics Complex

In 2015, Middlebury celebrated the opening and dedication of the new Virtue Field House and remodeled Peterson Family Athletics Complex. Come see the new facility along with the Middlebury Athletics History Wall, and the Athletics Hall of Fame.

South Main Street, Route 30

1:00 to 4:00 p.m. Organic Farm Open House

The Middlebury College Organic Farm is celebrating 13 years since students, faculty, staff, and community members first planted it in the summer of 2003. Within walking distance of the College campus, the farm has become an important asset to the College, offering opportunities for academic involvement, community connections, and environmental stewardship.

Middlebury College Organic Farm, Route 125 West

2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Middlebury College Special Collections

View several new spring exhibitions and visit the special collections reading room to browse highlights selected for Reunion Weekend from the Eric D. Tunis ’66 Collection of Antiquarian Maps of Asia, along with complementary items from the permanent collection.

The annual “Applying to College” workshop sponsored by the Admissions Office is open to high school age children and grandchildren of Middlebury alumni, faculty, and staff as well as students from Vermont high schools. Preference is given to juniors in high school. This program gives an overview of the general selective college application process and does not focus on Middlebury College. It runs from 8:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and covers four areas of the college application process: 1) choosing a college; 2) how to visit a college; 3) how a college admits its class; and 4) financial aid. Following the final presentation, individual afternoon appointments can be scheduled with Student Financial Services.

For any students who are interested specifically in Middlebury College, a group information session will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. at the Emma Willard House (Admissions Office), and campus tours will be offered at 2:30 p.m. Questions? Please contact the Admissions Office at 802-443-3000.

Tunis Maps in the Hands of Today’s Students
Rebekah Irwin, Director and Curator of Special Collections & Archives, will share how current students are using a collection of 15–19th century historic maps given to the College by Cane Society member, Eric Tunis, ’66.
After majoring in Geography at Middlebury, Tunis served in the Peace Corps in Eastern Iran. He was a Foreign Service Officer with posts in Kabul, Djakarta, Cyprus, Katmandu, Western Samoa, New Delhi, and Pakistan. Tunis's collection of nearly fifty maps reflects his interests in the historic and changing landscapes of the Middle East and Asia, and it continues to inform and engage Middlebury students today.

Carolyn Kroll Reidy ’71

Carolyn K Reidy ’71 is delighted to return to Middlebury for her 45th reunion, ever-grateful to the College for its important role in launching her into a life and career that has been more rewarding than she could have ever imagined. Since 2008 Carolyn has been president and CEO of Simon & Schuster Inc., after joining the company in 1992 and holding various executive positions. Prior to that that, she worked at Avon Books and Random House, where she began her career in 1976. Over the years she has had the privilege of publishing books by a veritable who’s who of distinguished and prize-winning authors, world figures, celebrities, newsmakers, and journalists. In recent years she has particularly enjoyed leading Simon & Schuster through a period of the most significant changes to the world of publishing in living memory.

Carolyn double majored in English and Russian at Middlebury, and met her husband, Stephen, while here. She then went on to earn an MA and PhD in English from Indiana University (the latter completed after she began working in publishing).

Carolyn is a board member and past president of the Association of American Publishers and also serves on the board of the National Book Foundation.
