WHY MIDDLEBURY?

Founded in 1800 in Middlebury, Vermont, Middlebury College is one of the most renowned liberal arts and sciences colleges in the United States. Middlebury enrolls approximately 2,500 undergraduate students from all 50 U.S. states and more than 70 countries.

MAJORS

American Studies
Arabic
Biology
Chemistry and Biochemistry
Chinese Classics and Classical Studies
Comparative Literature
Computer Science
Creative Writing
Dance Economics
Education Studies
English and American Literatures
Environmental Studies
Natural Sciences
Conservation Biology
Environmental Chemistry
Environmental Geology
Social Sciences
Conservation Psychology
Environmental Economics
Environmental Policy
Geography
Human Ecology

International Politics and Economics
Italian
Japanese Studies
Liberal Arts
Latin American Studies
Literary Arts and Sciences
Mathematics
Molecular Biology and Biochemistry
Music
Neuroscience
Philosophy
Physics
Political Science
Psychology
Religion
Russian
Sociology and Anthropology
Spanish and Portuguese
Studio Art
Theater

International and Global Studies

African Studies
East Asian Studies
European Studies
Latin American Studies
Middle Eastern Studies
Russian and East European Studies
South Asian Studies

EXTENSIVE ACADEMIC OPTIONS

Middlebury offers 47 programs and majors in the humanities, social sciences, and physical sciences. Middlebury also provides opportunities for professional development, funded internships, and networking around the world.

EXEMPLARY TEACHING

Our dedicated faculty teach every class, including discussion sections, and they have weekly open office hours. No classes are taught by graduate teaching assistants. We have an average class size of 19, and a student-faculty ratio of 9:1.

IDEAL CAMPUS LOCATION

Our location in the Champlain Valley of central Vermont is a very safe, naturally beautiful, culturally rich area known for its activism and awareness of social justice and environmental issues. On-campus housing is guaranteed for all four years.

SUPERIOR VALUE

Middlebury is ranked no. 11 in Best Value Schools by U.S. News and World Report and no. 6 in Best Financial Aid by the Princeton Review. We meet 100 percent of demonstrated financial need for both domestic and international students.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT SUPPORT

Our International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS) assists the international community, providing services including visa support, international student orientation, and the Friends of International Students host family program, which pairs local families with international students.

MIDDLEBURY’S GLOBAL REACH

CLASS OF 2021

8,909 Applicants
1,781 Total number of admitted students
19.9% Applicants admitted
710 Target size for class

28% U.S. students of color
10% International students
53 Countries represented
18 U.S. citizens residing abroad
13% First generation of their families to attend college

Testing profile of enrolling students
1300–1460 SAT (Mid 50% range)
30–34 ACT (Mid 50% range)
109 Average TOEFL

CONTACT US • Karen Bartlett, Associate Director for International Admissions, kbartlett@middlebury.edu

MIDDLEBURY RANKINGS

#2 Impact Schools Princeton Review
#4 Top National Liberal Arts Colleges U.S. News and World Report
#6 Top 50 Green Colleges Princeton Review
#6 Best Financial Aid Princeton Review

• 4 years of guaranteed housing • $500,000 available for internship funding • Middlebury Schools Abroad in 17 countries on 5 continents

• 0 classes taught by graduate assistants • 1 of only 2 U.S. colleges with its own ski area • 1st college with a muggle Quidditch team

GET HERE

New York City 426 km
Boston 297 km
Montreal 226 km
Burlington 58 km

The Class of 2021 comes from countries represented by international students countries represented by U.S. citizens living abroad

Middlebury College

Kai Yu ‘18
Hometown: Beijing, China
Major: Architectural Studies
Internship: Fifth Avenue Muses, the Forbidden City Student Activity: Language in Motion

Jihad Hajgozi ‘16
Hometown: Oualia, Morocco
Major: International politics and economics
Graduate School: MBA candidate, Stanford University Graduate School of Business
Employer: Dalberg Global Development Advisors

Ali Altufi ‘16
Hometown: Madina, Saudi Arabia
Major: Computer science
Student Activity: Playing rugby, watching comedy, engaging in political debates with friends
Languages: English, Somali, Arabic

Hannah Jordan ‘19
Hometown: Garissa, Kenya
Major: International politics and economics
Employer: Grant-funded position with SIFAX Costa Rica
Student Activity: Dancing tango

CONTACT US • Karen Bartlett, Associate Director for International Admissions, kbartlett@middlebury.edu