WELCOME!

And congratulations on your acceptance to Middlebury College, the leading global liberal arts college of the 21st century.

We have organized Preview Days to give you a sense of what Middlebury is like, not just academically but environmentally and culturally as well. You’ve put in a lot of time and effort to get to this point—many of you have several exciting colleges from which to choose—and this visit is your opportunity to see how Middlebury feels to you.

Please don’t hesitate to ask questions as you consider whether Middlebury feels like it could be home for you for the next four years. To help, we have put together a short list of questions prospective students often ask that can yield intriguing answers. Check it out on the last page.

Feel free to spend one, two, or all three days with us—there is a lot to see and do.

Finally, please be sure to say hello at some point during your time with us on our beautiful campus. I’m looking forward to meeting each of you personally.

Have a great visit!

Sincerely,
Greg Buckles, Dean of Admissions
A sampling of the many things to do:

- Attend one of more than 200 classes in session.
- Stroll downtown and take the footbridge across Otter Creek Falls.
- Imagine yourself studying in one of the cozy armchairs in the Davis Family Library.
- Visit the College Bookstore and peruse books written by our faculty.
- Follow the path through the solar panels to the Knoll, where you can find out what’s being planted for the growing season.
- Stargaze from the rooftop observatory in McCardell Bicentennial Hall, Monday evening.
- Hear several of Middlebury’s a cappella groups perform their latest arrangements.
- Check out the latest exhibition at the Museum of Art, Power and Piety: Spanish Colonial Art.
- Share your story or listen to others during the Middlebury Moth-UP on Tuesday night. The theme of the night is “Arrival.”

Some events are for students only. Some are for family members only. These symbols will alert you to which events people are invited.

We hope that students will attend the evening events without their family members, so they can spend time getting to know other students. We have designed a few evening events specifically for family members on Monday evening, or family members may choose to spend some time exploring downtown Middlebury.
The following offices and centers will hold open hours on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, unless otherwise noted.

8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. College Bookstore
Proctor Hall, Lower Level
Pick up your Midd gear! Show your Preview Days booklet to receive 20 percent off one item of clothing.

9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Charles P. Scott Center for Spiritual and Religious Life
135 South Main Street, Hathaway House
Drop in at Hathaway House during open hours to meet the campus chaplains and the dean of spiritual and religious life, and learn about the many diverse opportunities to participate in spiritual and religious life on campus.

10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Middlebury College Museum of Art
Mahaney Center for the Arts
Please visit us and enjoy our permanent collections, as well as the current exhibits, Power and Piety: Spanish Colonial Art, an exhibition that demonstrates the wide range of artistic production and devotional practice of colonial Latin America; and 10 Years: The Cameron Print Project, which includes works produced by Middlebury College students in collaboration with many noted artists. Prospective students who visit the museum will receive a small gift!

1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Middlebury Language Schools, Schools Abroad,
Off-Campus Study, and School of the Environment
Sunderland Language Center, First Floor
Drop in to learn more about study abroad opportunities, summer language immersion programs, and Middlebury’s summer environmental program.

1:00 to 5:00 p.m. Special Collections
Davis Family Library, Lower Level
Special Collections holds rare books, archives, manuscripts, photographs, films, and other unique materials that tell the Middlebury story and the stories of our collective past. Stop by to view exhibitions curated specifically for Preview Days.

3:00 to 4:00 p.m. Student Employment Office (SEO)
161 Adirondack View
Please visit the SEO to learn about employment on campus.

McCullough Student Center, Wilson Hall
Student-led walking tours of the campus.

2:30 p.m.  Biomass Plant Tour
Service Building
Middlebury’s biomass gasification plant connects climate, energy, and community for a more sustainable energy future.

2:30 to 3:30 p.m.  February Admission Panel
McCullough Student Center, Wilson Hall
Come find out why being a Feb at Middlebury is a great opportunity to take a gap semester. A panel of current Febs will present their experiences and talk about the integration of Febs into campus life.

3:30 to 4:30 p.m.  Academic Fair
Peterson Family Athletics Complex, Kenyon Arena
Faculty representatives from academic departments, interdisciplinary programs, summer immersion experiences, and unique experiential learning opportunities will be on hand to explain their offerings and answer questions.

5:00 p.m. Students Meet Hosts
Peterson Family Athletics Complex Lobby
Students who have not yet met their hosts should attend this event to be paired with a host for the night. Please bring a sleeping bag and pad or a bedroll (sheets and blankets rolled and tied). Students staying overnight on campus are expected to abide by all College regulations and state and local laws.

6:00 p.m. Admissions Office Closes

6:00 to 7:00 p.m. Dinner
Proctor Dining Hall or Ross Dining Hall
Guests must wear name tags for admission into the dining halls
Visiting students will have the opportunity to dine and talk with current Middlebury students. Family members may choose to dine at the Grille, located in McCullough Student Center, or at one of the restaurants in downtown Middlebury. See page 16 for a list of local eateries.

7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Student Panel
Sunderland Language Center, Charles A. Dana Auditorium
Current students will answer all of your questions about life at Middlebury.

7:00 to 8:00 p.m. Programs for Family Members
Axinn Center, Room 100

7:00 to 7:30 • Center for Careers and Internships (CCI)
CCI guides students in the career exploration process throughout all four years with personalized advising, dynamic workshops, a robust alumni network, and internship and job opportunities that help students apply their liberal arts learning beyond the classroom. Wherever your student’s interest may lie—STEM, nonprofit, finance, health professions, education, the arts, environmental study, languages, and more—and even if they have only just begun to explore—we are there for them every step of the way! Please join us for a panel discussion with members of the CCI team as we offer some insight into the wide variety of programs and resources available to Middlebury students.

7:30 to 8:00 • Innovation Hub
Innovation Hub oversees MiddCORE, innovation and social entrepreneurship programs, and the Old Stone Mill space for makers, artists, and entrepreneurs. Learn about these funding, course work, and mentorship opportunities for Middlebury students.

8:00 to 9:00 p.m. Ice Cream Social
Atwater Dining Hall
Mingle and get to know your future classmates.

8:30 p.m. Hotel Shuttle
Admissions Office, Emma Willard House, 131 South Main Street
The shuttle departs to drive families to the Middlebury Inn, the Inn on the Green, Swift House Inn, and Courtyard Middlebury. No advance registration for the shuttle is required.

9:00 to 10:00 p.m. A Cappella Concert
Mead Chapel
Come enjoy this musical jamboree featuring several of Middlebury’s a cappella groups.

9:00 to 10:00 p.m. Swing Dancing Club
McCullough Student Center, Wilson Hall
If you already swing, then come join in! If you’ve never tried it, then come join in!

9:30 to 10:30 p.m. The Campus (Middlebury's student newspaper)
Hepburn Hall, Basement Newsroom
Want to meet the students who write the first draft of Middlebury history? Tour our recently renovated newsroom and chat about working on one of the most respected student newspapers among liberal arts colleges.

9:30 to 10:30 p.m. Social Houses Open House: Brooker and Tavern
Brooker and Tavern Common Rooms
Middlebury offers upper-class students the chance to live in special interest houses, residences where students pursue a common interest and share the fruits of that interest with the community. Brooker is the outdoor interest house, and Tavern houses students interested in community service. Drop by one or both!

9:30 to 11:00 p.m. Open Observatory
McCardell Bicentennial Hall, College Observatory
One of the great things about living in Vermont is the breathtaking night sky. Take a look at the stars from the observatory and learn a little about the constellations from our all-star Physics Department (weather permitting).
Tuesday, April 17

7:00 to 10:30 a.m.

Gap-Year Discussion
McCordell Bicentennial Hall, Room 104
Are you thinking about a gap year? Middlebury students who have taken a gap year will share their experiences and answer your questions.

Discover MiddCORE
McCordell Bicentennial Hall, Room 220
MiddCORE is a leadership and innovation program for students who want to develop the skills, experience, and confidence to be successful in life and work. Through intensive mentor-led workshops, students build skills in leadership, collaboration, ideation, design thinking, persuasive communication, strategic problem solving, financial literacy, negotiation, and crisis management. The program is highly collaborative and hands-on, and students work closely with each other and more than 50 mentors from leading fields and professions. MiddCORE happens twice a year, during winter term for Middlebury students and in the summer; the summer program is open to undergraduate students from any university or college.
4:00 to 6:00 p.m.  Self-Reliance Open House
44 Porter Field Road
Visit one of Middlebury’s two Solar Decathlon houses and experience sustainable design in person. Take a tour and meet the students who live in this solar-powered, student-built home.

Interested in campus politics and government? Looking forward to becoming a student leader on campus? Come learn more about SGA over dinner.

7:00 to 8:00 p.m.  Yoga
McCullough Student Center, Mitchell Green Room
Take a breather from the Preview Days events and roll out the mat for some dynamic action and stillness—all aiming to discover a deeper self-awareness.
7:00 to 8:00 p.m.  Language Special Interest Houses Drop-In Sessions
Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Portuguese, Spanish, and Russian Language Houses
Some Middlebury students choose to live in language-based academic interest houses, all residents of which sign a pledge to speak only the target language when in the house. Drop by, check out our living spaces, and brush up on your language skills!

7:00 to 8:00 p.m.  Jamaican Dance Workshop
Mahaney Center for the Arts, Room 109
Whether you’re an experienced dancer or have no sense of rhythm at all, come on out and we’ll show you the ropes!

7:00 to 8:00 p.m.  Debate Society
McCordell Bicentennial Hall, Room 538
Do you want to discuss important issues with students from around the world and travel internationally? Come meet the Middlebury Debate Society and learn about how you can join our no-cuts, all-expenses-paid debate team. Pastries provided.

7:15 to 8:30 p.m.  Hillel Hangout
Freeman International Center, Annex
Do you want to schmooze with some Jews? Do you like good food? Come hang out with Hillel and we’ll answer any questions you may have about Jewish life on campus.

8:00 to 9:00 p.m.  Anderson Freeman Resource Center
Carr Hall, 452 College Street
The Anderson Freeman Resource Center (AFC) is an intercultural center providing resources and support to students of color, first-generation college students, students from low-income backgrounds, LGBTQ+ students, international students, and other students who have been historically underrepresented or marginalized in U.S. higher education. Come learn about the AFC and the Center for the Comparative Study of Race and Ethnicity, meet our team of staff, faculty, and students, and take a guided tour of the center.

8:00 to 9:00 p.m.  Otter Nonsense Players
Axinn Center, Abernethy Room
The Otters are Middlebury’s oldest improv comedy group; over their 20-plus years, they have experimented with different structures, ranging from deconstructed monologues to improvised Shakespearean plays, and have worked with many celebrated professional improvisers.
9:00 to 9:30 p.m.  Evolution Dance Performance
McCullough Student Center, Wilson Hall
Evolution is a student-run urban dance crew inspired by dances of global diasporas, including African, Latino, and Caribbean.

9:00 p.m.  Middlebury Moth-UP
Gifford Hall, Amphitheater (rain location: Gamut Room)
The Middlebury Moth-UP is a live storytelling event of true stories. Tonight’s theme will be “Arrival.” Come for the laughter. Come for the truth. Come for the story.
