STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION

(Find out more at go/sga)

Do you love students?
Do you love government?
Do you love associations?

If you said “YES!” to any of the above, you should get involved with SGA, Middlebury’s Student Government Association.

What is SGA?
SGA is the vehicle through which students can collectively express their views and participate in the formation of institutional policy. We make appointments to College committees, oversee SGA committees, and disburse the Student Activities Fee to 170 student organizations. The SGA Senate serves as the student body’s voice, and holds open meetings every Sunday at 7:00 in the Crest Room.

What does SGA do?
- Funds the reimplementation of Outdoor Orientation Programs.
- Pioneers a subsidized break bus program for students.
- Organizes midnight breakfast during finals week.
- Represents students in discussions of College policy (like the new Pass/Fail option, which will begin in Spring 2013!)
- And much, much more...
How can you get involved?
