BE SUSTAINABLE at MIDD go/sustainability

Sustainability Resources & Green Shopping

Everyday Living
Addison County Transit Resources (ACTR)
http://actr-vt.org
Your go-to resource for using public transportation in Addison County. Show your Middlebury ID to ride free on all ACTR buses!

Chittenden County Transportation Authority
http://cctaride.org
The Middlebury Link Express is the easiest way to get from downtown Middlebury to downtown Burlington or the Burlington Airport. Cost is $4 per one-way ride. Exact cash needed.

Ben Franklin - Main Street, Middlebury
A little bit of everything, including drying racks, office supplies, bedding, and power strips.

Reuse Trailers - Middlebury College Recycling
Check here first for office and dorm supplies passed down from other students. Often has rugs, small appliances, and binders, etc. At its best at the beginning and end of the semester.

Vermont Soapworks - 616 Exchange Street, Middlebury
Local soap factory, where you can buy bars of natural and organic soaps by the pound.

Middlebury Farmers’ Market
May-October: Outdoor market open on Saturdays, 9am-12:30pm at the Marbleworks. Nov-Dec and March-April: Indoor market open on Saturdays, 9:30am – 1pm at Mary Hogan School.

Middlebury Natural Foods Co-op -
Washington Street, Middlebury
Great food, much of it from local producers, and good selection of personal care items like soap, shampoo, toothpaste, and other toiletry items. Large bulk section.

TJ Maxx - Route 7 South, Middlebury
Carries some green products, like bamboo sheets - a sustainable alternative to cotton. Check the label.

Ilsley Public Library - Main Street, Middlebury
Great community spot with full selection of books and DVDs. Nice place to relax away from campus!

Clothing, Outdoor Gear, Bikes
Round Robin - Marbleworks, Middlebury
Thrift store with men’s and women’s clothing. Typically has an awesome sweater collection!

Neat Repeats - Bakery Lane, Middlebury
Downtown thrift store, women’s clothing in the front and men’s clothing in the back. Good place for unique vintage finds.

Middlebury Mountaineer - Part St., Middlebury
Local gear shop with good selection of winter clothing and jackets. Go-to spot for nordic skiers and fly fishermen.

Skihaus of Vermont - Merchant’s Row, Middlebury
All-purpose outdoor shop with winter jackets, clothing, and footwear. Also sells skis and bikes.
Sustainability Resources & Green Shopping (page 2)

The Bike Center - Main Street, Middlebury
The place to go for bikes! Also has rentals.

Middlebury College Bike Shop - Adirondack House on Middlebury campus
No need to buy a new bike, just go to the student-run bike shop and learn how to make your own. Offers tune ups and classes on bike maintenance. Rent a bike for a semester fee.

Gift Ideas
Clementine - Main Street, Middlebury
Great selection of unique, vintage, and handmade home goods and gifts.

Vermont’s Own Products - Main Street, Middlebury
Go-to spot for finding Vermont gifts like maple syrup, gourmet foods, candles, and more.

Main Street Stationary - Middlebury
A small-town stationary store at its best. Sells notepads, art supplies, pens and pencils, and more.

The Vermont Book Shop - Main Street, Middlebury
Full service book shop with fun selection of gifts. Has an extensive section of local authors and Vermont outdoor guides.

Farther Afield
Recyle North - 266 Pine Street, Burlington
35 miles from Middlebury College
An impressive reuse store with furniture, appliances, craft supplies, building materials, books, etc. Every DIY-er’s paradise.

City Market / Onion River Co-op - 82 S. Winooski Ave., Burlington
35 miles from Middlebury College
Large community-owned co-op in downtown Burlington with great selection of local products and extensive bulk section.

Rutland Area Food Co-op - 77 Wales Street, Rutland. 33 miles from Middlebury College
Another area co-op with local food, hard-to-find ingredients, and a great bulk section.

Useful Resources
Green Mountain Club
http://www.greenmountainclub.org
Nonprofit that maintains Vermont’s Long Trail. They publish excellent guides and maps for hiking and exploring Vermont.

Middlebury Area Land Trust
http://www.maltvt.org
Maintains the Trail Around Middlebury (TAM), a 16-mile trail that encircles the town of Middlebury. Check their website for a map.

Helping Overcome Poverty’s Effects (HOPE)
http://www.hope-vt.org/
Nonprofit working on a range of poverty issues in Addison County, including food access and basic needs. Volunteer opportunities!

Vermont Public Radio
http://www.vpr.net
Your daily dose of news and programming. Listen for Midd alum Angela Evancie ’09! Tune in online or on your radio in Middlebury at 107.9.

Addison Country Relocation Network (ACORN) http://acornvt.org
Publishes an annual guide to farms and farmers’ markets in Addison County.

Rutland Area Farm and Food Link (RAFFL) http://www.rutlandfarmandfood.org
Publishes a local guide to farms and farmers’ markets in Rutland County.

Experience Middlebury
http://experiencemiddlebury.com
Lists Middlebury businesses, services, and eateries.