APPLICATION DEADLINES FOR STUDYING ABROAD DURING 2011-2012 (fall, spring, year)

JANUARY 7: You must submit all application materials to your academic adviser(s)

FEBRUARY 1: You must submit all application materials to International Programs and Off-Campus Study

APPLICATION CHECKLIST AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR STUDENTS:

☐ Part 1: Application Form
Please complete Part 1 of this application and sign it.

☐ Essay
Please submit an essay (approximately 500 words) giving your academic reasons for seeking to study abroad, addressing the following points:
• Demonstrate the connection between your interests and the program’s academic content, explaining the relationship to your major/minor and general academic goals, as well as why you have chosen the particular program/university/country of study. You should describe how your course of off-campus study will be integrated with your course of study at Middlebury. You also must demonstrate that you have adequate preparation for studying abroad, in the form of preparatory course work or research.
• What do you hope to accomplish academically in your time abroad?
• Explain your reasons for choosing a semester or a year abroad (students applying for spring semester must include an academic justification for studying abroad spring term only rather than fall).
• Students applying to study on programs that include independent projects (e.g., SIT Study Abroad programs) must provide a project proposal. (Please note that you are encouraged to identify a Middlebury faculty member who is willing to read and approve your completed project before you go abroad.)

NOTE: Your application will not be reviewed if you fail to address any of the above points in your essay. Please refer to the Study Abroad Guidelines for further details on the application essay.

☐ Part 2: Language Department Chair Signature
Only for students applying to non-Middlebury programs in languages taught at Middlebury: please obtain the appropriate Language Department Chair’s signature.

☐ Part 3: Adviser’s Form
Please complete the Tentative Course Selection information and turn the form in to your adviser(s) by January 7. Please see additional instructions on this form.

☐ Part 4: Language Assessment Form
For applications to programs in languages taught at Middlebury (both Middlebury and non-Middlebury programs): this form should be completed by your current or most recent language instructor.

☐ Copy of Passport
Please attach a copy of your passport (photo page and facing page) with this application. DO NOT delay submitting this application if you do not yet have a passport; turn the application and supporting materials in by the deadline and apply for a passport immediately (see: http://travel.state.gov/passport/).

☐ Major Declaration
You must complete a Major Declaration Form (including the appropriate signatures), available on the Registrar’s Office web site and submit it to the Registrar’s Office before your study abroad application can be considered. You do not need to turn in a copy of your major declaration form with this application.

It is your responsibility to ensure that this entire application is complete and returned to International Programs and Off-Campus Study by February 1. If you are a student with a disability, please contact the ADA Office, Meeker House, ext. 5936, TTY 7437. Note: Once approved, students will be placed "on leave" for the time they will be studying abroad and will be ineligible to participate in room draw or registration in the semester prior to studying abroad.
