THESIS OPTION

Requirements	Course #	Title
One 100-level course (may also be used to fulfill the HSMT requirements)
Five courses focusing on HSMT: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>At least four must be taken in the history department</li> <li>If a thesis is completed on an HSMT topic, it may count not only toward fulfilling the two-credit thesis requirement but also toward fulfilling one of the five HSMT-focused course credits</li> <li>In consultation with the department Chair, one may be a cognate from another department or institution.</li> </ul>
Two pre-1800 courses (may also be used to fulfill the 100 or 400 level as well as HSMT requirements) (see separate list of pre-1800 courses)
One course that is comparative or trans-regional (may also be used to fulfill the 100 or 400 level as well as HSMT requirements)
HIST 0600 - Writing History
One 400-level reading seminar
HIST 0700 – Two term thesis. Please consult catalog to determine your eligibility.
History electives (to reach 11 courses)

- 11 courses in total are needed to fulfill the major. Please list all history courses, including AP history credits, if you are using them to fulfill your major.
- Two AP history credits, with a grade of 4 or 5, can count toward the 11 courses, but cannot fulfill any specific requirements listed above. Students counting AP European History may not use HIST 103 or 104 toward the major and those counting AP US History may not use HIST 203 or 204 toward the major.
- No more than three 100-level courses may count toward the total.
- One winter term course (in addition to HIST 0700) can count toward the 11 courses.
- FYSE courses do not normally count.
- Under extenuating circumstances, and written permission of the chair, one cognate course may count toward the major.

- See catalog or department advisor for further information regarding major requirements.
