ENAM Major Requirements Worksheet – OLD

[Students who declared an ENAM major prior to Fall 2020 may elect to fulfill the old requirements; students who declared Fall 2020 and after must fulfill the new requirements]

Majors are required to take twelve ENAM courses, consisting of the following requirements:

- ENAM 103 or CMLT 101
- ENAM 205
- Three “pre-1800” designations. Only one of the three may be a Shakespeare course.
- One “pre-1900 AL” designation
- One “Diversity” designation
- Junior Seminar: ENAM 4XX or LITS 705
- Senior thesis: ENAM 700 or CRWR 701*

*Additional requirements for CRWR 701

- 100-level CRWR course
- Two 300-level CRWR courses with a grade of at least B+
- These courses must be completed prior to beginning thesis
- With the exception of 701, CRWR courses cannot be counted toward the twelve ENAM courses required for the major

Please Note:

- Classes that are not cross-listed with ENAM, even if they contain lots of literature in English, do not count for electives.
- If a course is cross-listed with ENAM, but is not taught by an ENAM professor, this course will fulfill an elective requirement only.
- Transfer credits from courses taken abroad may be used, when approved by the chair, to fulfill distribution requirements.
