

Preliminary Application to Write an Honors Thesis: If you do not write a thesis you will take another 400-level seminar and an elective before graduation. Please speak with your academic advisor and plan accordingly. Students who have earned a minimum 3.5 GPA in at least 5 history department courses (including up to two courses taken abroad) and at least a B+ in HIST 0600, are eligible to write a two-term honors thesis (HIST 0700). See information below.

Some Dates to Keep in Mind

By April 18: Send an e-mail to Judy Mayer, the history coordinator, letting her know that you intend to submit an application to write a senior thesis. Subject heading: History thesis. Send to: Judy Mayer: jmayer@middlebury.edu

Prior to April 25: Consult faculty members in department and potential advisors about thesis topic.

By April 25: Submit preliminary proposal for consideration (See below). To articulate your interest in a senior thesis topic, you will create a preliminary prospectus and bibliography before April 25, 2022. Please send to Judy Mayer: jmayer@middlebury.edu Subject heading: History thesis proposal. This two-page document will serve as a declaration of your desire to pursue a particular line of historical inquiry and will give the department faculty a good indication of how grounded you have become in that topical area.

On page one of this prospectus, please indicate: 1) Your name 2) The semesters in which you hope to write your thesis 3) A working idea for your thesis 4) A one-paragraph description of your proposed project 5) An indication of faculty member/s you think might be appropriate as a thesis adviser.

On page two please include a working bibliography, divided into sections for primary and secondary sources. The department will notify you before the end of the semester who your thesis adviser will be. We encourage you to continue to read and think about your thesis over the summer months.

April 26, 2022: Registration Period Begins: The coordinator will give you permission to register for HIST0700A. You will be required to attend the senior thesis workshop in the Fall and winter term.

May-September: Sometime before the beginning of the fall semester, faculty leading the senior workshop will post the new senior thesis guide with dates on the history department website under forms
