

Psychology Thesis Seminar and Timeline Spring 2020

Thesis seminar coordinator: Prof. Matthew Kimble
MBH 275 mkimble@middlbury.edu

Welcome to the final stretch for the senior honors thesis! We hope you are finding this a rewarding and meaningful educational experience.

Spring semester expectations for completing a Psychology or Neuroscience Honors thesis with Psychology faculty members:

In general, thesis students spend spring term coding and analyzing data, re-writing the literature review and methods section for the final thesis document, and adding the new sections of Results and Discussion. The completed thesis is due by 4:00 PM on Wednesday, May 6th.

Thesis students give a presentation to the psychology department students and faculty the last week of classes.

DATE	Thesis Schedule: Spring Semester 2020
Monday, April 6 Dinner and Thesis Info Session	Thesis information session for 2020-2021, 7:00-7:45, ATW 102 (this event follows the Psychology student-faculty dinner at Atwater at 6 PM, which you should attend!)
Tuesday, April 28, 4:15-5:30 pm	Psi Chi Membership Recognition &amp; Research Methods Poster Session – Great Hall
Monday, May 4, 4:30-6:30 pm	Practice session for presentations, MBH 220. Each person will present and get feedback from the group.
Wednesday, May 6, 4:00 p.m.	Submit completed thesis. Give a copy to advisor and each committee member. Advisor will likely want a hard copy and an electronic copy.
Wednesday, May 6, 12:30 pm	Thesis Presentations , 12:30, MBH 220. Invite your family and friends! Celebration with faculty to follow final presentations on Thursday.
Wednesday, May 20, by 4 pm	Submit final revised thesis for binding to Tanya Hershey, MBH 282. Tanya will send out instructions 2-4 weeks in advance.