*This information ensures that any Administration Committee decisions that may have implications for a student's visa status are made in consultation with International Student and Scholar Services (ISSS).

Petitions may be submitted to the Administration Committee for the requests below. Please see page 2 for requests formerly reviewed by this committee that are now overseen by other offices.

Please indicate the purpose of your petition below by checking as many categories as apply and submit the required materials. For more detailed information, please visit go/adminco.

Late Course Drop for Administrative Error; Exceptional Personal Circumstances; and Significant Injuries and Non-chronic Illness

- If never attended the course: petition, signed drop card, and confirmation from professor that never attended
- If exceptional personal circumstances or related to a significant injury or non-chronic injury (non-disability-related): petition, and confirmation letter from professional caregiver (counselor, physician, etc.) and/or Student Life dean
- If this will reduce your course load to 2 or fewer classes, see "Reduced Course Load for Exceptional Personal Circumstances" below
- Please review the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy (go/sapp). If your late drop will compromise your required progress, meet with your advisor and/or Student Life Dean to develop a plan to address this.
- F-1/J-1 visa holders should consult with ISSS before petitioning

Reduced Course Load (<3) for Exceptional Personal Circumstances

- All materials noted above under "Late Course Drop," above, as appropriate
- F-1/J-1 visa holders must also submit a letter of approval from ISSS
- Please review the Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) policy (go/sapp). If your reduced course load will compromise your required progress, meet with your advisor and/or Student Life Dean to develop a plan to address this.

Waiver of "Senior Year in Residence" Requirement

- Brief petition
- Completed signed Degree Audit form (see go/registrar, Forms)
- Notes of support from academic advisor and Student Life Dean
