

CMLT Major Requirements (revised 1/18/19)

OPTION 1: For English native speakers

Student	Year	Advisor (primary foreign language)
Director (Comparative Literature Program)

Majors in Comparative Literature will develop a plan of study with the guidance of a faculty advisor with expertise in the students chosen primary language and literature, and the Director of the Comparative Literature Program.

The basic structure of the program is as follows:

1. One primary foreign language AND
2. Four courses in a secondary foreign language OR English/American Literatures (ENAM). Students' first language cannot be their primary language, but it can be their secondary language. For example, English cannot be the primary language of a student whose first language is English, but it can be the secondary language.

Requirements	Course #	Title
1. CMLT 0101
2. Primary Foreign Language Three content courses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> one cultural course two literary courses (These courses must be approved by the student's advisor and the Program Director. Students will also need approval for the inclusion of study abroad classes in this category.*)	Language: 1. cultural 2. literary 3. literary

*In the case of students whose primary foreign language is Arabic, Chinese, Russian, or Japanese, some of these three content courses MAY be taught in English, depending on the availability of suitable courses in the language. Students should be aware that policies regarding acceptance of study abroad courses to satisfy requirements vary widely from department to department.
