Basic Syllabus Template
Below is a basic syllabus template that includes all of the information outlined above. Faculty are welcome to download and use the Word version of this template. (Please note that it is not an expectation that all faculty use this template or that all syllabi will be formatted/ordered in the same way. Faculty can design and format syllabi in whatever way makes the most sense for their content. However, all syllabi should contain the same basic information.) VI. Grading Information:
Include the methods by which students will be assessed during the course (exams, essays, presentations, participation, etc.) and the percentage of the overall course grade for each method of assessment.

VII. Relevant Policies:
Academic Integrity: As an academic community devoted to the life of the mind, Middlebury requires of every student complete intellectual honesty in the preparation and submission of all academic work. Details of our Academic Honesty, Honor Code, and Related Disciplinary Policies are available in Middlebury’s handbook.

Honor Code Pledge: The Honor Code pledge reads as follows: "I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid on this assignment." It is the responsibility of the student to write out in full, adhere to, and sign the Honor Code pledge on all examinations, research papers, and laboratory reports. Faculty members reserve the right to require the signed Honor Code pledge on other kinds of academic work.

Disability access/accommodation: "Students who have Letters of Accommodation in this class are encouraged to contact me as early in the semester as possible to ensure that such accommodations are implemented in a timely fashion. For those without Letters of Accommodation, assistance is available to eligible students through the Disability Resource Center (formerly called Student Accessibility Services). Please contact Jodi Litchfield or Michelle Audette, the ADA Coordinators,
VIII. Expectations of Students:
Outline the expectations specific to the course with respect to issues such as attendance, late work, missed exams, class participation, classroom environment, etc.

IX. Relevant Campus Resources:
Provide information about campus resources (CTLR, DRC, etc.) that can help students succeed in the course.

Center for Teaching, Learning, and Research: The CTLR provides academic support for students in many specific content areas and in writing across the curriculum through both professional tutors and peer tutors. The Center is also the place where students can find assistance in time-management and study skills. These services are free to all students. For more information on how to get the help you need, go to http://www.middlebury.edu/academics/resources/ctlr/students.

Disability Resource Center*: The DRC provides support for students with disabilities and facilitates the accommodations process by helping students understand the resources and options available and by helping faculty understand how to increase access and full participation in courses. The DRC can also provide referrals for students who would like to undergo diagnostic testing. Students who are on financial aid and have never undergone diagnostic testing can apply to the CTLR for support to cover the cost of off-campus testing. DRC services are free to all students. *(formerly called Student Accessibility Services)
