

Faculty Profiles

Here's an overview of our Profile component and how individuals can create a page that feels appropriate and representative of accomplishments.

- For a complete view of a live sample page, see: <https://www.middlebury.edu/college/people/faculty-member-name>

Section-by-Section Overview

Below you'll find a breakdown of each section and how you can customize the information.

The diagram illustrates a faculty profile section with three main components: a name and title, preferred pronouns, and a title. Callout boxes provide instructions on how to customize each part.

Ezra Brainerd ← Your name and title are automatically pulled from Banner but can be overridden in the Edit Module.

He/Him/His ← You can add your preferred pronouns.

Video

This is where you could post one or more videos of research activities, coursework, or anything else you want to feature.

You can upload a video, image(s), and text to your profile for additional information about your expertise and accomplishments. Note that all videos need transcripts for accessibility.

TRANSCRIPT ^

All videos require a transcript for accessibility purposes. Communications can help provide transcript services.
