Parent Title IV Authorization Form

Title IV funds are federal student aid funds administered by the U.S. Department of Education, which include Federal Parent PLUS Loans.

The U.S. Department of Education requires that Title IV funds be applied to specific allowable charges such as tuition, mandatory fees, and housing and food billed by Middlebury. Any Parent PLUS Loan accepted in excess of these charges must be refunded to the parent, or student with the parent's permission. However, with the parent's authorization, Middlebury can use the Title IV funds to pay for charges on the student's account other than allowable charges, such as dorm damage, parking fines, health insurance, or library fines, or Middlebury can hold the funds to pay for charges incurred in a future semester within the same academic year.

These authorizations are voluntary and may be revoked at any time, although cancelation is not retroactive.
