

Pathways to Connect

The Center for Community Engagement is an experiential learning center at Middlebury College. Our programs prepare students for lives of meaning and impact through local, domestic, and global community connections.

We work with students, faculty, and community partners to strengthen communities and contribute to the public good.

Use this guide to navigate 40+ ways you can connect with the CCE, other students, faculty, partners, and programs.

Ready to get started?

Schedule a Find Your Place meeting with a CCE staff member:

Center for Community Engagement + Students

Explore Connections with the Community

Find us on Instagram , Facebook , and LinkedIn	Year-round
Sign up for our newsletter	Year-round
Attend the Fall Student Involvement Fair	September & February
Explore off-campus work study opportunities	Year-round

Volunteer with the Local Community

Join a Community Engagement Organization (CEO) to get involved in efforts such as democracy initiatives , food access, migrant justice, and youth mentoring	August-May
Find one-time opportunities to volunteer with a community organization with MiddVolunteers or your Athletic team	August-May

Integrate Community Engagement into Academics

Work on real-world community projects in CCE's INTD 0121: Community-Connected Learning Course	Fall and Spring
Engage in the Privilege and Poverty Cluster	Year-round
Explore other Community-Connected Classes	Fall and Spring
Work directly with faculty to support community-connected projects in a Project Assistant (PA) Position	Fall and Spring

Grow Your Civic Leadership

Become a leader and develop your civic leadership skills within a Community Engaged Organization (CEO)	August-May
Apply for a CCE Mini-Grant	August-May
Become a Civic Leadership Fellow in CCE's many student employment roles	Year-round

Join Intercultural and Global Programs

Work with Language in Motion (LIM) , Middlebury Alternative Break Programs (MAlt) , History in Translation , and Service Learning	Year-round
Apply for the Cross-Cultural Community Engagement Grant (CCCE Grant)	Year-round

More details on back!

Connect Today!

Explore Connections with the Community

The CCE student opportunities newsletter, released each Monday, shows current opportunities across 40+ programs. Sign up for the weekly newsletter:

The Fall Student Involvement Fair lets students meet community partners and student organizations connected with the CCE. Learn more about this event:

Visit the approved list of off-campus Work Study partners, then search Handshake for work openings with these partners. Search approved partners here:

Volunteer with the Local Community

View the list of CCE-supported organizations, find the ones which interest you most, and meet more like-minded students. Learn more about these orgs:

Integrate Community Engagement into Academics

Join the Privilege & Poverty Cohort and participate in a summer internship and academic courses that address economic inequality. Learn more about P&P:

Pair your community engagement with academic credit in our Community-Connected Learning course. You'll get to develop social-issue knowledge, collaborative skills, and civic identity. Learn more:

See Course Catalog for community-based classes across departments.

Grow Your Civic Leadership

The Center for Community Engagement funds grants for community action and connection initiatives for current and returning undergraduates to explore their purpose and engage with Middlebury and global communities. Read more about these grants:

Join Intercultural and Global Programs

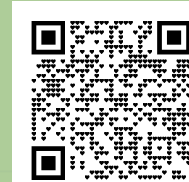

The Center for Community Engagement offers programs that connect students with intercultural and global experiences, during the school year and over the summer. Learn more:

Have a question about who to connect with?

Email us at cce@middlebury.edu

Visit our Website:

Visit our Instagram:

CCE Staff Members

Kailee Bricker-McDonald (she/her), kbricknermcdonald@middlebury.edu
Director

Claire Tebbs (she/her),
ctebbs@middlebury.edu
Program Director

Carolinne Griffin (she/her),
carolinneg@middlebury.edu
Community Engagement Coordinator

Jason Duquette-Hoffman (he/him), jduquettehoffman@middlebury.edu
Assistant Director, Privilege & Poverty

Kristen Mullins (she/her), kmullins@middlebury.edu
Assistant Director, Intercultural and Global Programs

Shannon McClain (she/her), smcclain@middlebury.edu
Assistant Director, Youth & Educational Partnerships

Visit Us at 26 Blinn Lane!
(Behind Ross Dining Hall Towards the Knoll)