

Center for Community Engagement + Community Partners

Pathways to Connect

The Center for Community Engagement is an experiential learning center at Middlebury College. Our programs prepare students for lives of meaning and impact through local, domestic, and global community connections.

We work with students, faculty, and community partners to strengthen communities and contribute to the public good.

Use this guide to navigate all the ways you can connect with the CCE, our students, faculty, partners, and programs.

Connect with the CCE and Students

Our student opportunities newsletter goes out to 1000+ students each Monday during the academic year (every other week in the summer).

Submit volunteer opportunities or events to our student newsletter:

Sign up for our community partner newsletter which goes out in August and January each year:

Table at the Student Involvement Fair

The CCE hosts 20+ community organizations each year at the Fall Student Involvement Fair. Learn more about joining this tabling event to share volunteer opportunities with new students:

Network with Students, Faculty, and Partners

The Community Advisory Board brings together faculty, partners, students, and staff throughout the academic year. Join this group to help set directions, build networks, and share knowledge for community engaged learning.

Host a Student Volunteer Group

Partner with MiddVolunteers or an athletic team to gather a group of volunteers to help with a large, hands-on project!

Host new students for a half- or full-day service trip for Fall or February New Student Orientation.

Connect with Students in Ongoing Partnership

Student-led groups collaborate with community partners to strengthen communities and address social issues. Connect with students on a regular basis through ongoing engagement opportunities.

Partner with an Academic Course or Research

The CCE offers the Community Connected Learning course. Learn more about partnering with the course to host a student project:

Opportunities also exist through other departments depending on need and fit.

Host an Intern or Work Study Student

Paid or unpaid internships/jobs can be submitted through Handshake. Read instructions on posting:
