

Selection of Community Engagement Health-Related Opportunities

Questions?

Searching for different opportunities? Need help figuring out transportation?

Contact
Kailee Brickner-McDonald
Center for Community
Engagement Program
Director
Kbricknermcdonald
@middlebury.edu
802.443.3010
or drop by the Center for Community Engagement at 20 Old Chapel Road

go/cce

Elder Care

Helen Porter Healthcare and Rehabilitation Center

Doreen Kadric, 802-385-3721, dkadric@hphrc.org

Engage one-on-one with residents or volunteer at one-time events such as bingo night.

Living Well Residential Care Home (Bristol)

Maryann Twyman, 802-453-3946, mrtwyman@gmail.com

Provide cognitive stimulation for residents through crafts, conversation, and activities.

Project Independence

Dana Perzanoski, Assistant Volunteer Coordinator: 802-388-3983, mail@elderlyservices.org

Spend time with elderly adults whose independence has lessened due to chronic illness, disability, or very advanced age. Meet weekly in person or over Skype.

Additional volunteer opportunities with elderly community members are available including Eastview and the Residence at Otter Creek. Please contact Ashley Laux.

Poverty Alleviation

Charter House Coalition

Charter House Coalition student organization, chc@middlebury.edu

Middlebury's emergency shelter; work directly with families in need of housing.

John Graham Housing & Services (Vergennes)

Friends of John Graham student organization, fojgs@middlebury.edu

Help serve homeless individuals and families including seniors, children, veterans, those in recovery, living with mental illness, and/or with mental or physical disabilities.

Advocacy

United Way of Addison County

Jesse Brooks, Regional Prevention Partnership Coordinator: 802-388-7189, jesse@unitedwayaddisoncounty.org

802-388-7189, jesse@unitedwayaddisoncounty.org

Particularly seeking volunteers to help people get trained and support people to file for the Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC).

Did you know...

More than

1,500

Middlebury College students volunteer annually, contributing about

65,000

hours of service

go/cce

Animals and Pet Care

Homeward Bound

Jessica Danyow, Executive Director: 802-388-1100, jessica@homewardboundanimals.org

Spend time with animals at Addison County's animal shelter. Note: Homeward Bound requires volunteers to commit to at least six months of weekly volunteer service.

Eddy Farm School

Margaret Bojanowski, Riding Director: 802-388-6196, margaretbojanowski@gmail.com

Volunteer to teach traditional horsemanship skills regardless of age or physical ability.

Health and Counseling

Open Door Clinic

Josh Lanney, Patient Services Coordinator: 802-388-0137, odc@opendoormidd.org

Serve as a general volunteer, EMT, or medical interpreter at Addison County's only free medical clinic.

End of Life Services

802-388-4111, endoflifevt.org

Offer care and support to those in our community facing the end of life or grieving the death of a loved one. Note: 30 hour training required prior to volunteering.

WomenSafe

802-388-9180, info@womensafe.net

Work toward the elimination of physical, sexual and emotional violence against women and their children through volunteering for tasks like answering the hotline or helping with administrative duties. Note: 30 hour training required prior to volunteering.

Middlebury First Responders

mcems@Middlebury.edu

Work with Middlebury Regional EMS as a first responder, volunteering on a weekly basis.

Children and Families

Addison County Parent/Child Center

Becky Bertrand, Program Coordinator: 802-388-3171, bbertrand@addisoncountypcc.org

Support the Center's mission of helping young families achieve self-sufficiency.

Nutrition Outreach and Mentoring (NOM)

NOM Student Organization, nom@middlebury.edu

Connect with youth through food education., including monthly produce taste tests.

Funding Highlight: Apply for funds to support your community service through the Service Cluster Board Flex Fund and CE Mini-Grants: go/ccefunding

Middlebury College
Center for Community Engagement