

The portion of the TAM on College property—from South Street Extension to Weybridge Street—including the College cross country trail, the Class of '97 trail, and the trail to the Knoll, is available to students only and closed to faculty, staff, and the public.

