

If you or someone you know has been affected by sexual misconduct, dating or domestic violence, or stalking, a variety of resources are available at Middlebury College and in the greater community. There is no wrong place to start—we are all here to support you.

QUESTIONS ABOUT Sexual Violence?

COMPREHENSIVE INFORMATION IS AVAILABLE AT GO/SEXUALVIOLENCEINFO
 ONLINE REPORTING AVAILABLE AT GO/REPORT

CAMPUS

COMMUNITY

EMERGENCY SAFETY SUPPORT

Department of Public Safety
802-443-5911 (emergency)
802-443-5133 (nonemergency)

24-hour emergency response, safety planning, and supportive measures, including issuing a campus No Contact Order, recording an initial report, or offering transportation to campus or community services.

911 or

Middlebury Police Department
802-388-3191

Vermont State Police
802-388-4919

MEDICAL CARE

It is never too late to get medical attention. Evidence collection is best within 72 hours.

College Health Services
go/parton | 802-443-5135

Medical care, including injury triage, sexually transmitted infection testing/treatment, and pregnancy testing. A forensic exam with a sexual assault nurse examiner (SANE) is also available if desired.

Porter Hospital | 802-388-4701

Comprehensive medical care, including access to a forensic exam with a sexual assault nurse examiner (SANE), pregnancy testing, sexually transmitted infection testing/treatment, injury triage, and all other hospital resources.

ADVOCACY AND RESOURCE REFERRALS

MidSafe Confidential Peer Support
go/midsafe | 802-377-0239
go/onlineadvocate

Free and confidential support, information, and referrals from trained Middlebury undergraduate students. A 24/7 student-run hotline is available when undergraduate classes are in session. Resources tailored to individual needs are available on the interactive website go/onlineadvocate.

WomenSafe | 802-388-4205

Free anonymous or confidential 24-hour support, information, referrals, transitional housing, and advocacy for people across the gender spectrum. www.womensafe.net

SafeSpace | 802-863-0003

Free and confidential information, support, referrals, and advocacy for LGBTQ+ individuals. www.pridecentervt.org

EMOTIONAL AND MENTAL HEALTH CARE

College Counseling Services
go/counseling | 802-443-5141

Free and confidential crisis counseling available during office hours.

Employee and Family Assistance Program: go/EFAP

Counseling Service of Addison County (CSAC)
802-388-7641

Confidential counseling for all community members, with 24/7 emergency services.

SPIRITUAL AND PASTORAL CARE

College Chaplains
go/chaplain | 802-443-5626

Confidential resource and support for individuals of all faiths and worldviews.

Local Congregations
go/congregations

ACADEMIC AND ECONOMIC SUPPORT

Deans of Student Life
Deans and Program Directors for All Summer Programs
 Academic and other institutional support.

Emergency Financial Assistance for Employees
go/emergencyassistance

Economic Services | 800-479-6151

Emergency help for Vermonters to meet basic needs for health insurance, child care, food, transitional housing, and fuel assistance.

REPORTING AND SUPPORTIVE MEASURES

Reports and requests for supportive measures
 (academic/schedule and residential changes, no-contact orders, etc.)

Civil Rights and Title IX Coordinator
 Marti McCaleb
mmccaleb@middlebury.edu
 802-443-2147 (direct)

Report online at go/report.
 Anonymous reporting options available.

Middlebury Police Department
802-388-3191

Vermont State Police
802-388-4919

Incidents that occur on campus or in the town of Middlebury can be reported to the Middlebury police. Incidents that occur in other Vermont locations can be reported to the Vermont State Police. An investigation may be handled by a uniformed officer, a plain-clothed detective, or both, with additional support from the Addison County Unit for Special Investigations (ACUSI).

CONFIDENTIAL*

*Refers to a confidential resource except as follows: healthcare and counseling professionals are required to report to law enforcement authorities the sexual assault of a person under the age of 18, or where there is a risk of immediate danger to self, others, or property.