Department: Creativity & Innovation

Supervisor: Liz Cleveland

Description: Join a fast-paced, creative, joyful and inclusive work environment and make a meaningful impact on-campus and in local, regional, and international communities through this position in the Center for Community Engagement! We seek a Summer Intern to help us with a range of projects including outreach, assessment, and program development. The intern position is full time with a start date in early June and an end date of the first day of fall semester classes.

Responsibilities include:

- General office tasks and responsibilities, including coverage while staff is away.
- Assist with planning related to Orientation and Fall CCE programming including the MiddAction Fair.
- Provide research assistance (e.g., comparison to other campus programs, “best practices,” student service leadership).
- Support CCE’s data collection and data analysis efforts as we work to measure and assess our programs.
- Communications and Outreach projects including updating CCE website and social media updates (Facebook, etc.).
- Support for the Language in Motion program.
- Support for the Privilege & Poverty Academic Cluster (include WordPress website work)
- Help prepare promotional materials for first years, including introductory e-mail, posters, flyers, etc.
- Other projects as needed.

Experience and Skills:

- Reliability and a strong commitment to the Center for Community Engagement’s mission.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills, both oral and written.
- Ability to manage and prioritize multiple tasks.
- Self-motivation and the ability to work independently and proactively on projects.
- Previous experience with community service, service-learning, and/or some familiarity with community service in Addison County preferred. Ideally, the person will also want to continue to work with CCE during the following academic year, if possible.

Event planning experience helpful.
Basic computer skills, proficiency in MS Word, Excel, Outlook. Experience creating content on WordPress is ideal. Knowledge of other computer programs including, but not limited to 25Live, MiddLink, Photoshop, and Drupal.

Ability to maintain confidentiality.

Research skills.

Creative/artistic/design skills would be a great asset.

Open to continuing Middlebury College students. Students from diverse backgrounds and interests are highly encouraged to apply.

EDORDA: 311-2505-50200-10-000000-13009

Position Type: None

Department:

Supervisor: Ashley Laux

Description: We are seeking a student staff member who is enthusiastic about community-service and activism who would like to work with the Community Engagement staff to promote local engagement among new Febs and First-Year students. This is a rewarding position that will enable you to work with students and community partners in an office committed to engaging the campus in its service initiatives.

This paid position includes two hours weekly work in the Community Engagement office and one hour weekly outside the Community Engagement office working to promote and coordinate first-year student community service and related initiatives.

Other Responsibilities

- Work collaboratively with Community Engagement to plan and facilitate community service opportunities for first-years and new Feb students.
- Work with key people in the Commons and communicate with them regularly to facilitate Commons-based community service events (First-Year Coordinators, Dean, Coordinator, CRAs, Co-Chairs, Council Members).
- Help to organize group community service activities.
- Make yourself and your role known to first-years and Feb students and help match them with on- and off-campus activism and service opportunities.
• Report back to Community Engagement on first-years and Feb students and their service- and advocacy-related initiatives and recommend ways in which the office can support them.

• Encourage first-years and Feb students to connect to the Community Engagement office as appropriate.

• Assist Community Engagement staff in completing and implementing office initiatives and administrative projects.

Experience

Must be at least a second-semester first-year, preferably a Feb, with excellent interpersonal and communication skills; ability to manage and prioritize multiple tasks; self-motivation and the ability to work independently and proactively on projects; previous experience with community service in Addison County preferred.

Position Title: Brainerd Peer Writing Tutor
EDORDA: 313-2261-50200-10-102022-00000
Brainerd Peer Writing Tutors are outstanding student writers, typically nominated for their position by faculty members. These tutors are trained by the Writing Program to work with their peers on papers assigned across the disciplines. Training takes place over a series of six required sessions at the CTLR. Peer Writing Tutors are trained to provide "authorized aid" on papers.

Brainerd Writing Tutors will offer drop-in tutoring hours for their peers at Brainerd Commons several nights a week. Peer Writing Tutors can work with students at any phase of the writing process. They are also trained to help with oral presentations.

While the Writing Program will pay for the tutors' training hours, Brainerd Commons will pay for the hours that tutors put into working their shifts at Brainerd.

Brainerd Peer Writing Tutors are expected to report to the Writing Program about their tutoring experiences at Brainerd Commons by filling out their log sheets and submitting them at the CTLR.

Description: For one weekend each year, alumni are invited to reunite with their classmates to remember and celebrate their four years at Middlebury as they explore and reconnect with the College campus. A Reunion Student Host works during the weekend of Reunion in June to create a welcoming atmosphere for alumni to fully enjoy and participate in their Reunion activities and events. This position presents a unique opportunity to engage with alumni from all different walks of life while simultaneously providing them with the resources and information they need to enjoy their Reunion. 2020 Reunion Student Hosts will work Wednesday, June 3rd through Sunday, June 7th. Housing is provided for the duration of that time. Student hosts will work approximately 40 hours during Reunion.

Responsibilities:
- Organize and maintain a presentable, informational and personalized Class Headquarters
- Greet alumni as they arrive on campus and guide them through the check-in process
- Engage and connect with alumni to create a welcoming and vibrant environment
- Assist Office of Advancement Staff in the set-up and organization of events
- Direct and offer assistance to alumni as needed throughout the weekend
- Communicate effectively and promptly with the Reunion Administrative (Student Host) Coordinator to troubleshoot any complications that may arise
- Other various tasks as needed.

Qualifications:
The ideal candidate will have the following characteristics:
- Is a reliable, outgoing, personable, and hardworking student who is able to work as a team player
- Has a broad general knowledge of the College and its many departments and buildings
- Can communicate efficiently and effectively with other Student Hosts and staff members
- Can create an inviting space for alumni to reconnect with the Middlebury campus and community
- Is ready to jump in and assist alumni or staff at any time during the weekend
- Represents the current Middlebury student body both humbly and confidently

Position Number: 900512
Position Title: ISSS Pre-orientation Student Coordinator
EDORDA: 311-2301-50200-10-000000-00000

Position Type: None
Department: Int'l Student/Scholar Services
Supervisor: Christy Fry

Description: RESPONSIBILITIES The ISSS Pre-orientation Student Coordinator is responsible for managing many aspects of Pre-orientation, including supporting new international and exchange students, helping to develop and promote ISSS resources, and leading the student volunteer team (Program Arrival Leaders-PALs). In addition, this role assists with the Friends of International Students (FIS) Host Program and other Fall Term programming. Pre-orientation 2022 does intend to return to a fully in-person program, though the position may require a combination of virtual and in person preparations. It is expected that the SC will be in-person for an on-campus program delivery. In case of any health/safety considerations, the candidate must be open to the possibility that this position may be required to function partially or wholly in a remote capacity. An ability and willingness to adapt quickly to changing circumstances will be a crucial consideration of this position. The ISSS Pre-orientation Student Coordinator position will tentatively begin in early August and extend into the Fall semester to support both PALS and participants of Pre-orientation through October. Main responsibilities include but are not limited to the following and may require a remote component in whole or part:

Pre-orientation Leadership & Training
- Assist the ISSS Team with preparations and execution of the Pre-orientation Program for International Students. This involves engaging with students and their families, as well as campus colleagues.
- Oversee a wide variety of details related to the planning/implementation of Pre-orientation events for international students.
- Serve as primary point of contact for Pre-orientation students in August.
- Communicate with new students from August into the Fall semester.
- Help train and supervise a team of student volunteers (Program Arrival Leaders - PALS) who will assist in the Pre-orientation and other opening of school activities.
- Serve as a liaison with ISO’s Board to recruit student volunteers for Pre-orientation.

Program Support
- Assist the Administrative Coordinator of the Friends of International Students (FIS) host program with processing student and family applications and locating necessary resources for the matching process and the actual event. The Student Coordinator may also represent the FIS program at recruiting meetings involving prospective families from the local community.
- Assist with MiddView’s new student orientation program, as needed; organize the student leadership team’s involvement with the MiddView interns.
- Complete program wrap-up, including taking an inventory of and storing supplies, and assisting with program evaluation preparations.

Administrative Tasks
- Draft and prepare written materials, emails, and Web information for new students and families.
- Assist with preparations for Pre-orientation, including purchasing supplies, tracking expenses, and organizing information in spreadsheets and other formats.
- Complete follow up tasks, including summarizing feedback forms, providing written suggestions for improvements next year, and finalizing the paperwork necessary to close the program (information in binders, saved on computer, etc.).
- Other duties as assigned.

QUALIFICATIONS
ISSS seeks a self-motivated person who enjoys handling important details and shares a sincere enthusiasm for working as part of a team to accomplish worthwhile and high-reaching goals.

Required skills/experience:
- Interested in and sensitive to intercultural issues and needs.
- Able to effectively prioritize projects and remain on task.
- Excellent leadership, organizational, interpersonal, and communication skills.
- Strong attention to detail, while also being a creative and solution-oriented thinker.
- Able to maintain confidentiality and assist with situations that may require discretion.
- Able to multi-task, problem solve, and work effectively under pressure.
- Self-motivated, punctual, reliable, and thorough in the performance of all responsibilities.
- Proficient in Zoom, Google Drive (docs, sheets, forms, slides), PowerPoint, Word, Outlook, Excel, and Discord/Slate. Experience with other office software is a plus.
- Comfortable talking to others and facilitating small group conversations.
- Able to work as part of a high-energy/productive team and accept direction from supervisor.

Preferred qualifications:
- Having a valid U.S. driver’s license and a Middlebury College 7-passenger van license.
- Prior leadership and work experience on campus.
- Event planning experience.
- Knowledge of the College and its various departments and resources.
- Prior experience as a PAL.

TIME COMMITMENT
- Position tentatively begins Mon., August 1 to Mon., October 31
- Up to 20 hours/week, depending on workload and Pre-orientation and MiddView schedules.
- Hours will be irregular due to the unique nature of Pre-orientation and MiddView, as well as due to workload and facilitation of events.

Special Instructions to Applicants
Please submit:
- A one-page cover letter, outlining why you are interested in this opportunity and what qualifications, strengths, and adaptability you offer that make you a qualified candidate. • Complete the PAL application and indicate in Section 2 your interest in the position by checking “yes” or “still considering” and please note whether you would be interested in a Program Arrival Leader (PAL) position if not selected for the Coordinator role by answering the follow on question. • A resume. • 2 Professional references: names, titles, and contact information (email and/or phone number) of two professional references who can comment on your work ethic and accomplishments. For more information, contact Christy Fry, Assistant Director of ISSS, at isss@middlebury.edu. Depending upon the College’s employment plans and the health/safety considerations, remote work within the United States only may be authorized.

The Educational Garden’s 1 acre is used for growing food and student/faculty research. Our goal is to test theories and develop techniques that move us toward sustainability, regeneration and resilience. Interns join in the yearly cycle of food production and regeneration. Plant, cultivate, harvest and sell garden produce and flowers wholesale and retail. Run seed trials and learn seed saving techniques. Interns work in the Outdoor Kitchen learning to use the pizza oven and host events. The Serenity Garden is in the process of being designed to incorporate perennial plants surrounding the meditation bench and the labyrinth. Interns interested in mindfulness will be able to work on bringing workshops/events to The Knoll. Interns also lead tours to tell our story to alumni and visitors.

On-site responsibilities

• Carry out the sowing, transplanting, cultivating, harvesting and sales of the production garden.

• Collaborate with staff at Middlebury Dining Services and other business partnerships to develop orders and delivery of produce.

• Work with HOPE, the local food shelf, to grow and deliver food for the community.

• Set up and run on campus retail booth.

• Participate in Work Days/Parties with volunteers and working with the pizza oven for community events.

• MUST attend MCOF meetings to act as a liaison between The Knoll and the student group.

• Attend Workshops when possible

• Participate in the seed trials, seed saving and faculty research programs at the farm.
• Participate in Fall Family Weekend and Homecoming weekend tours of the farm
• Maintains tools and equipment in proper condition.
• Follows safety procedures for all workers and volunteers.

Outreach

Participates in scheduled visits to local farms for observation, tours and joint projects and partnerships
• Supports public relations initiatives with the college and local community.
• Performs other duties as assigned.

Time Commitment

Spring: 10-15 hours a week depending on weather and interns availability, beginning the week before spring break. 10-15 hours per week for 8 weeks in fall term. Specific days of work can be scheduled to fit your class schedule.

If you desire to experience the entire gardening season cycle you are encouraged to apply for the FoodWorks summer internship as well which is paid and has free housing at Weybridge House.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: Qualifications
• Dedication, passion and enthusiasm.

Experience:

Education and Training

Previous farming or gardening experience is not required. The Knoll is a place to learn and to teach others. An able body, a smiling face, patience, and good communication skills are also highly recommended.

Position Type: None

Department: Dean of Students

Supervisor: Erin Morrison

Description: Orientation Interns serve as critical members of the College’s MiddView planning team. They help to design and coordinate all aspects of the MiddView experiences that provide small-group connections amongst new students to ease their transition to college. The Orientation & Community Engagement Intern will collaborate with campus and community partners at the Center for Community Engagement and with the MiddView planning team to plan orientation programs and assist with Leader Training as a part of fall orientation (Middview). Job Tasks may include but are not limited to: Communicate directly with over 50 community and campus partners to develop mutually beneficial programs & projects that engage with departments, local non-profits and agencies that support Addison County and the Middlebury College communities. With guidance from the Center for Community Engagement professional staff, assist in developing a leader training for Community Engagement Leaders that provides them with the opportunity to evaluate and deepen their awareness of personal values, learn about the local community, and develop interpersonal skills necessary to engage in community work. Create materials that will support orientation leaders as they implement community engagement projects during orientation including trainings, resource packets and leader handbooks. Work with local community partners to develop meaningful projects and events that introduce new students to social justice and community-based issues facing Addison County communities. Communicate regularly with incoming students by updating web and social media platforms, managing databases, responding to and solving unexpected problems, other duties as assigned. Work with MiddView planning team to plan and implement orientation events and programs during Middview, including managing registration, supporting move in day and other orientation programs as needed. Experience and skills that will make candidates especially successful: Current Middlebury student. It is helpful if interns have been involved in Orientation or CCE projects in the past or believe in the positive impact this program can have on campus. Commitment to social justice, equity, and inclusion and desire to create inclusive environments at Middlebury. Ability to work independently on projects and collaborate with team members. Experience/interest in curriculum writing and leadership development. Past experience working in areas including but not limited to community engagement, volunteerism and leadership. Position Type: None

Department: Ctr Teaching/Learning/Research

Supervisor: Genie Giaimo

Description: As Head Peer Writing Tutor, the main job is to serve as the student liaison between the student employees and their supervisor (Professor Bertolini). Students come to the supervisor with comments about hours they worked, frustrations and errors with time entries, or concerns in general. The student liaison will manage, supervise, and approve the hours of 45 student employees of the Peer Writing Program. Interfacing each student's hours between hand-written log-sheets and on-line submissions, they will track individual hours on a bi-weekly basis in order to manage the Writing budgets. Documenting the employee's time also aids the department in understanding the aspects of writing in which students seek help. Also aid (Professor Bertolini) in organizational capacities including maintaining a current student roster, creating flyers and posters for both the campus and the student employees, and maintaining training attendance.

EDORDA: 311-2911-50200-10-000000-14888

Position Type: None
Department: College Advancement
Supervisor: Riley Allen

Description: Offer is contingent upon successful completion of a criminal background check. Offer is also contingent on the completion of the PCI DSS training and the signing of the PCI Security Awareness and Confidentiality Agreement for campus personnel with access to credit card information. For one weekend each year, alumni are invited to reunite with their classmates to remember and celebrate their four years at Middlebury as they explore and reconnect with the College campus. The Office of Advancement staff are seeking reliable, personable, organized and hardworking students for the Reunion Deputy position. The Reunion Deputy assists the Reunion Planning Team with organizing and preparing materials before, during and after Reunion. The Reunion Deputy position builds upon the responsibilities of a Student Host by requiring exceptional leadership qualities and well developed organizational skills, the ability to efficiently and effectively carry out multiple tasks independently, strong interpersonal and communication skills, a familiarity with how Reunion runs, and problem solving and risk management skills. Reunion Deputies will likely work long hours in preparation for and during Reunion. Reunion Deputies are to either transportation, housing, registration, or inventory.

Responsibilities
- Independently manage reunion-related projects assigned by the Reunion Administrative Coordinator
- Assist Office of Advancement Staff in the set-up and organization of events
- Assist the Reunion Planning Team in organizing and preparing registration and check-in materials for returning alumni
- Assist the Reunion Administrative Coordinator in the delegation of tasks to Student Hosts
- Engage and connect with alumni to create a welcoming and vibrant environment
- Direct and offer assistance to alumni as needed throughout the weekend
- Other various tasks as needed

Experience Desired: Strong applicants will preferably have at least one year working with either Office of Advancement, Admissions, Student Activities or another College department that involves working with multiple departments on campus so that the student has a more developed knowledge of the inner workings of the College than the average student.

Supervisor: AJ Place

Description: The office of Residential Life is currently hiring two students for this summer to be Residential Life Interns. The Residential Life Intern (RLI) is an employee of Residential Life and Middlebury College, in the department of the Dean of Students and is supervised by the Associate Dean of Students for Residential and Student Life. Summer Residential Interns work with summer student residents and primarily function as a resource for students living on-campus. Additionally, Summer Residential Interns provide for community development through event planning, maintaining regular availability, and providing on-call support throughout the summer. The RLI will assist in office functions, data collection, publications, and special projects.

The Summer Resident Assistant typically works forty hours per week, but may vary from week to week.

Qualifications:

The ideal Summer Residential Intern is an undergraduate student who demonstrates an understanding of both the mission of Residential Life and the College. Ideal candidates will have demonstrated experience in leadership, conflict resolution, teamwork, and working with diverse groups of individuals.
Candidates should also demonstrate competency in written and oral communication, as well as use of good judgment in handling sensitive issues.

A successful candidate will be active, possess a positive demeanor and have excellent interpersonal skills along with a creative energy. Rising Senior status preferred but not required. Prior Residential Life or other student leadership experience preferred. An interest in a career in Student Affairs/Residential Life a plus. Applicants must have lived on-campus for at least one year.

Responsibilities:

Undergo training at the beginning of the summer

To be a visible, available presence in the assigned residence hall

Plan activities, both on and off campus, as an outlet for summer employees. A budget for this use will be provided.

Serve as an on-call responder for emergency situations.

Conduct administrative functions for the house office.

Be responsible for oversight and upkeep of the student housing kitchens

Report maintenance, custodial and facilities issues and submit work orders

Hold hall meetings at the beginning of the Summer and on-going as needed

Assist in addressing student issues (e.g. roommate issues, referral to services, etc)

Aid in enforcing College policy within the hall through promoting individual responsibility

Maintain an active, working relationship with custodial services, facilities services, public safety and other College areas

Other duties and special projects as required

Compensation:

On campus room and board provided. Level C compensation for up to 20 hours of work per week.

Position Title: Weybridge Food Preservation Intern
EDORDA: #N/A
Position Type: #N/A
Department: Campus Services
Supervisor: Sophie Esser-Calvi

Description: Weybridge House is the Environmental Studies and Food Studies Interest House. We commit to eating an all-local diet with a few exceptions and we rely on our summer preservation intern to can and freeze our fruits and vegetables so that we have access to a balanced diet year round. The Preservation Internship is therefore key to our success in achieving our mission. The Interns will have the opportunity to experience preserving and freezing on a large scale and will understand firsthand the time and labor involved in eating a completely local diet in a cold climate. Specifically, the Preservation Interns will be responsible for freezing berries and vegetables, canning jams, salsas, and sauces, and purchasing dry goods and sweeteners for the house for the upcoming year. A knowledgable and experienced community mentor will teach the interns hands-on preservation skills.

There are various options in how we can set up the internship, depending on your interest: it can be done as a Food Works internship (see go/foodworks for more information) or combined with work at the Middlebury College Organic Farm early in the season, or can be preservation full time all summer. We are hiring 2 interns to work for the entire summer and 1 extra intern for August, and have flexibility around start/end dates as well.

EDORDA: #N/A
Position Type: #N/A
Department: Ctr Teaching/Learning/Research
Supervisor: Mary Ellen Bertolini
Description: Wonnacott Peer Writing Tutors are outstanding student writers, typically nominated for their position by faculty members. These tutors are trained by the Writing Program to work with their peers on papers assigned across the disciplines. Training takes place over a series of six required sessions at the CTLR. Peer Writing Tutors are trained to provide "authorized aid" on papers.

Wonnacott Writing Tutors will offer drop-in tutoring hours for their peers at Wonnacott Commons several nights a week. Peer Writing Tutors can work with students at any phase of the writing process. They are also trained to help with oral presentations.

While the Writing Program will pay for the tutors' training hours, Wonnacott Commons will pay for the hours that tutors put into working their shifts at Wonnacott.

Peer Writing Tutors are expected to report to the Writing Program about their tutoring experiences at Wonnacott Commons by filling out their log sheets and submitting them at the CTLR.

Position Number: 900853
Position Title: JusTalks Coordinator
EDORDA: 313-2201-50200-10-102022-00000

Position Type: None
Department: Dean of the College
Supervisor: Renee Wells

Description: Essential Functions:

Compiles benchmarking data from other institutions of higher education related to peer education programs

Does ongoing research to identify training resources and activities that can be used for peer education

Reviews academic literature on social justice pedagogy to identify content for J-Term course

Recruits new peer education facilitators for the J-Term course

Collaborates with campus partners to coordinate peer education workshops for students

Manages scheduling and logistics for peer education workshops

Compiles peer education workshop assessment data

Drafts annual assessment report for JusTalks peer education program

General Responsibilities:

Social Justice Peer Education Benchmarking

The JusTalks Coordinator will do benchmarking research on both the peer education workshops offered at other colleges and the facilitator training provided to peer educators at other colleges. This research will be used to enhance the JusTalks program infrastructure on an ongoing basis.

Research Support for Curriculum Development
JusTalks peer education facilitators will meet twice a month to work on developing workshop curricula. As the peer education facilitators identify topics they would like to focus on for their workshops, the JusTalks Coordinator will provide support by doing research to identify existing training resources and compile existing activities.

Research Support for J-Term Course Development

The JusTalks Coordinator will provide research support to identify articles and resources related to social justice pedagogy and facilitation techniques that will be used to develop the curriculum for the J-Term course that JusTalks peer education facilitators are required to take.

Campus Outreach to Recruit JusTalks Peer Education Facilitators

Each fall, the JusTalks Coordinator will manage the process of recruiting students to sign up for the J-Term JusTalks course and to serve as J-Term peer education facilitators.

Campus Outreach to Promote JusTalks

Beginning in the Spring 2020 semester, JusTalks will offer ongoing peer education workshops for students on campus. The JusTalks Coordinator will do outreach to key areas (Res Life, Athletics, Student Activities/Student Orgs, Center for Community Engagement, Privilege & Poverty Program, etc.) to invite campus partners to host JusTalks workshops for their students.

Logistics Management for JusTalks Workshops

As campus partners request JusTalks workshops, the JusTalks Coordinator will be responsible for managing logistics (room reservations, training supplies, coordinating with facilitators to assign workshops based on interest and availability, etc.).

Assessment Management for JusTalks Workshops

Every JusTalks workshop will have its own individual assessment survey, and all workshops will be assessed at the end of the session. The JusTalks Coordinator is responsible for ensuring assessments are prepped prior to each workshop and that assessment data is compiled afterwards. The student coordinator will also create a cumulative assessment report at the end of the spring semester that includes data for all JusTalks workshops.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

- Nuanced understanding of systems of oppression (racism, classism, ableism, heterosexism, etc.)
- Nuanced understanding of the interpersonal, institutional and cultural barriers experienced by members of historically underrepresented communities
- Critical awareness of facilitation techniques such that potential training resources can be evaluated for relevance and effectiveness
- Ability to use 25 Live to manage room scheduling
- Ability to collaborate with campus partners to identify common goals and plan events designed to meet those goals
Ability to do general research (data gathering and comparison)
Ability to do specialized research (literature review of academic articles)
Ability to analyze and report out on assessment data

Experience:
Applicants must have previously served as a JusTalks peer education facilitator to be eligible for this position

The objective of the Gamut Room operation is to provide a warm, congenial non-smoking gathering place for students where they can meet for conversation and good food, with occasional quiet entertainment.

Duties include:

1) Maintain the facility - clean dishes and food storage, tidy the main room, and continually support the location as a non-smoking environment.

2) Order baked goods from outside suppliers; establish delivery or pickup system. Order from Food Services: coffee, cider, hot chocolate, tea, etc. Order from outside suppliers: special teas and coffees.

3) Order supplies from Food Services as needed: plastic silverware, mugs, napkins, tablecloths, etc.

4) Hire and train staff in the collection of income including the use of the card reader and cash box. Review serving procedures and food storage. Set up schedule for student workers each semester.

5) Arrange funding through Finance Committee and schedule occasional performers or films; advertise with posters, flyers, This Week at Middlebury notice.

6) Deposit receipts weekly - Check cash box at Security regularly to keep cash to a minimum needed for change. Post funds that have been collected in the card reader. Monitor the cash receipts.

7) Divide responsibilities of the two managers. One manager, only, will do ordering from Food Services. The other manager will sign and process payroll cards for all employees, will be responsible for depositing receipts at the cashier's office, will submit weekly reports on income from the card reader and will monitor monthly printouts against proposed budget. Deposits are made to account 99-055.

8) Formulate a budget for the following year with the assistance of the C-CAL staff. Gain funding through Finance Committee.

EDORDA: 311-2911-50200-10-000000-11487

Position Type: None
Department: Film and Media Culture
Supervisor: Christian Keathley
Description: Responsibilities:

This project looks at headlines from the New York Times and other newspapers that mention groups like Muslims, Jews, and Christians to see if they are portrayed in a negative or a positive light. Our research on Muslims has found that their portrayal varies significantly across time, and that the portrayal depends less on terrorist events than you might think. As a research assistant, you would help with secondary source research, you would help code and analyze headlines, and you may be asked to help draft portions of papers, or to review/edit those papers. You would also have a say over future directions of research that may align with your interests and that may provide you with material for your own purposes.

Experience Desired:

Students involved in this project have co-authored papers presented at national conferences, have been co-authors on manuscripts submitted to professional journals, and have access to a database of information that they can draw on for independent projects or senior theses. If you are highly motivated by the topic and can work in a team, this project will be a good fit for you. I am especially eager to hire first or second year students who can commit to 6-8 hours of work a week through the spring semester, and who are interested in continuing work on the project through the 2014-15 academic year (and possibly beyond). I will also consider third years that are a particularly good fit for the project. The position is open to all majors, and to students who have not yet declared a major.

Knowledge Desired:

Position Number: 901092
Position Title: Health & Wellness Party Assistant
EDORDA: 311-2911-50200-10-000000-11380
Position Type: None
Department: Dean of Students
Supervisor: Barbara McCall
Description: Responsibilities:

Party Assistants are Middlebury College hourly student employees of Health and Wellness Education. Party Assistants supplement (i.e. do not replace) the control functions assigned to members of the hosting organization to maintain order and compliance by serving as an independent observer at registered campus events, which primarily, but not always, take place on weekends and evenings.

Working in teams of no less than two, Party Assistants will be required to arrive before the start time of an event to meet with event hosts and the Department of Public Safety and to remain at the event location until after the close of the event to meet with Party Hosts and the Department of Public Safety. Party Assistants will be provided with reporting guidelines for events and will be responsible for filing timely and complete reports to the Director of Health and Wellness Education. Responsibilities include assisting hosts in maintaining safety and reducing risk by providing an independent observer who can help the host organization avoid and/or discontinue risky practices at the event. When on duty, Party Assistants report to the designated leaders or hosts of the organization hosting and sponsoring the event. Party Assistants will not independently contact or summon outside assistance from organizations such as the Department of Public Safety or law enforcement officials except in cases of extreme or imminent danger to event participants.

Party Assistant candidates must have completed at least two semesters in order to be eligible for selection. There is an expectation that all students working in Health and Wellness Education commit to modeling healthy lifestyle choices.
Selection Process: Party Assistants are recruited and selected by the Director of Health and Wellness Education and Lead Party Assistants with assistance from other professionals in the Office of the Dean of Students. The selection process includes a formal application and interview.

Training: Once selected, Party Assistants are required to complete a number of trainings with staff from Residential Life, Health & Wellness Education, Environmental Health and Safety, Public Safety, and community trainers that will cover the applicable registered event policies, bystander intervention training, alcohol and other drug education, crisis management, and specific trainings on the duties of the Party Assistant program. Party Assistants are required to attend monthly meetings for event assignments and continued education. Party Assistants who fail to follow the official policies established in their training sessions or act outside of their role at any event may be asked to leave the premises by the hosting officials (as is true of any visitor to any College event) and may face consequences within the program up to and including termination.

Compensation: Party Assistants are compensated at the student employee specialist rate. Party Assistants are compensated for attendance at monthly meetings, required Party Assistant-specific trainings, and for 5 hours of work for events unless otherwise specified (i.e. if a party ends early, Party Assistants are still paid for the total time they were projected to work an event).

Position Title: GEOG Kress Research Fellow
EDORDA: 311-2116-50200-10-301074-00000

Position Type: None
Department: Geography
Supervisor: Anne Knowles

Description: Geography professor Anne Knowles seeks one or two student assistants to help her plan and develop curricular materials for a two-week faculty workshop on applying digital mapping to Art History. Please note that both positions require committing to spending some time on campus in summer 2014. The two positions may be filled sequentially by the same student. Your email application to Anne Knowles (aknowles@middlebury.edu) should include a letter explaining your interest and relevant background and a one-page CV that includes your technical and topical qualifications. Please specify whether you are applying for one or both positions. Applications will be reviewed as they are received. The Undergraduate Fellow will work throughout spring semester 2014 and into the summer to assist Knowles and GIS Specialist Bill Hegman with a number of tasks: (1) organizing logistics and events at Middlebury for the Institute's 15 participants and 2 guest speakers; (2) developing GIS layers and other digital materials to support participants’ research projects; (3) exploring non-GIS visualization software options; (4) researching relevant scholarly literature to find useful examples of conceptual frameworks and empirical applications related to participants’ projects. This position requires good knowledge of ArcGIS and Adobe Illustrator or comparable graphic software, as well as ability to learn other software fairly independently. It also requires excellent skills in research, writing, and organization. Knowledge of Art History and Geography desired but not strictly required. Being able to work independently and as part of a team is essential.

Museum Summer Intern
Become familiar with the wide-ranging missions of the Sheldon Museum of Vermont History (founded in 1882 and considered the oldest community-based Museum in the country) while contributing to a variety of projects including exhibits, archival work, and special events. henrysheldonmuseum.org

Responsibilities

The Sheldon Museum Intern will work with the Executive Director, Associate Director, and Archivist on a variety of projects related to objects in the permanent collection, archives in the Research Center, summer events, upcoming exhibits, and marketing. Potential projects include mounting three small permanent collection displays of objects in the permanent collection.

Gallery Summer Intern

Assist the Vermont Folklife Center’s Director/Curator with the Vision & Voice Gallery. The Vision & Voice Gallery and Workspace provides a site for the planning, development, and exhibition of new documentary work that embraces the challenge of Ethnographic inquiry—opening a window on the fabric of everyday life and the richness and diversity of our common humanity—with the goal of making Vermonters from all walks of life more visible to one another. www.vermontfolklifecenter.org

Responsibilities

The Gallery Summer Intern will work with the Vermont Folklife Center team under the supervision of the Director/Curator on diverse aspects of the Vermont Folklife Center’s ongoing exhibition program. The Gallery Summer Intern will also assist in systematizing the Folklife Center’s exhibit touring program by formalizing relationships with exhibit venues statewide and developing a storage protocol. The Intern will also develop strategies to boost gallery visitation by researching creative uses of conventional and social media to build audiences.

Curatorial Summer Intern

Work with the Chief Curator on a variety of research and writing projects involving exhibitions and the permanent collection of the Museum.

Responsibilities

The Curatorial Summer Intern must be highly motivated and able to work independently. Her/his projects will include researching and writing catalogue entries for inclusion in a handbook of the Museum’s collection. The intern will also conduct independent research on artworks under consideration for acquisition or exhibition. Previous experience with the history of photography and the work of Keith Haring is highly desirable for work on upcoming exhibition projects.

Education Summer Intern

Work with the Curator of Education and Academic Programs to develop new programs for the Education program, which serves local children, Middlebury College students, and the general public.

Responsibilities

The Education Summer Intern assists the Curator of Education and Academic Programs with a variety of tasks related to the Education Department and the Museum Assistants Program. Key projects will include:
• researching and creating a self-guided introductory tour of the Museum's permanent collection;
• working with the Curator of Education to research, develop, and implement a program serving the needs of senior citizens;
• identifying and serving as a liaison with Middlebury College professors whose teaching would benefit from interaction with the Museum;
• and working with the Curator of Education and Web Master to devise and generate content for a new social media strategy for the Museum.

College Collection Summer Intern

Assist the Museum Registrar with various projects related to the maintenance of the College collections. This intern must be able to work independently and professionally, as the intern will represent the Museum in offices across the campus. The intern must also

Responsibilities

The College Collection Summer Intern is responsible for continuing the annual inventory of artwork on view across Middlebury’s campus. This is a self-directed internship requiring contact with numerous College departments, maintenance of a collection database, photography skills, and careful record keeping. Experience working with FileMaker Pro, the Museum’s collections database software, is essential, as is attention to detail. Time is split between working in various locations on campus and working in the Museum. The College Collection Summer Intern will gain museum experience by occasionally assisting with the day-to-day operations of the Museum Registrar’s office and by working with other staff members responsible for the care of the Museum’s permanent collection.

The intern must be comfortable with public speaking, as s/he will be expected to develop and deliver a tour of public sculpture on the campus. In addition, all Middlebury College Museum of Art summer Interns may be asked to act as substitute receptionists, as necessary, to cover absences.

In addition to their departmental duties, all MuseumWorks Summer Interns will meet one day a week for professional development. Interns will collaborate to curate an exhibition, to open to the public in late July. Please refer to the MuseumWorks Summer Internship Program description for further details.

Position Number: 901223
Position Title: AFC Office Assistant
EDORDA: 311-6108-50200-10-000000-10708

Position Type: None

Department: Dean of the College

Supervisor: Derisa Collymore

Description: The Anderson Freeman Resource Center (AFC), located in Carr Hall, works to promote an inclusive and welcoming learning environment for the Middlebury community. In particular, this work includes support for students of color; first-generation college students; students from low-income backgrounds; LGBTQ+ students; international students; and other students who have been historically underrepresented or marginalized in U.S. higher education.

In conjunction with the Center for the Comparative Study of Race and Ethnicity (CCSRE), the AFC provides resources and programming that encourage the holistic development of Middlebury’s increasingly diverse undergraduate students as they attain their goals of academic achievement and personal growth while exploring and sustaining their identities and cultures.

Responsibilities:
• Provide front desk support and reception coverage for the Center, including greeting and assisting visitors.
• Complete space management tasks such as having students sign in, answering questions, ensuring students clean up after themselves, etc.
• Perform frequent check-in rounds throughout the building.
• Maintain a tidy and professional Center, resource library, kitchen, lounge, and conference room.
• Complete general clean-up tasks such as running the dishwasher, closing windows, and putting furniture back in its place.
• Stock office supplies and other resources as needed.
• Receive incoming calls; answer questions; take messages and transfer calls to appropriate parties.
• Distribute mail accordingly.
• Complete office tasks as necessary: running errands, updating website and social media, hanging posters, printing and copying materials, etc.
• Maintain AFC Google and Event wall calendars
• Manage technology (printers, phone, setting up equipment, etc.)
• Assist with data entry and various projects during time at front desk on an as-needed basis
• Attend regular meetings with AFC/CCSRE Staff and Faculty.
• Work collaboratively with other student employees and Center Staff and Faculty.
• Assist with events as needed.
• Perform other duties as assigned.

Experience Desired:
• Excellent interpersonal and communication skills
• Strong attention to detail
• Ability to remain organized while balancing multiple priorities and tasks
• Self-motivated and reliable
• Ability to work independently and proactively on projects
• Ability to work with a team and accept direction from supervisors
• Willingness to greet and direct Center visitors in a friendly professional manner
• Creativity and professional etiquette
• A commitment to diversity and inclusion is required
• Ability to maintain confidentiality
• An interest in and openness to learn about the intercultural vision and role of the Center
• Knowledge Desired:
• Basic computer skills, proficiency in MS Word, Excel, Outlook. Basic office skills – photocopying, filing, and answering phones. Knowledge of Middlebury College resources helpful. Knowledge of other computer programs including, but not limited to, 25Live, MiddLink, Drupal, InDesign, and Photoshop, is helpful.

Other:
• Students from diverse backgrounds and interests are highly encouraged to apply.

Position Type: None
Department:
Supervisor: Liz Cleveland
Description: Responsibilities:

Join a fast-paced, creative, joyful work environment and make a positive impact on-campus and in the local community through this position. We seek an On-call Photography Intern to support Center for Community Engagement staff to attend and photograph events, and to transfer, organize, and maintain digital media data. The Photography Intern would work on an on-call basis, ranging from 0-3 hours per week based on events and the office’s needs. Events that will be photographed occur on a flexible basis, and the ideal candidate will be able to remain responsive to office needs as they arise.

Responsibilities

• With the CCE Assistant Director, create a weekly schedule of events and documentation goals for each event; attend events and shoot photos

• When in the office, greet faculty, students, community partners, and other visitors to the Center for Community Engagement. Provide information about the office and our programs to visitors. Process, cull, and select images based on CCE’s media guidelines and store files as appropriate

• Represent and serve as an ambassador for the Center for Community Engagement and Middlebury College at events held on- and off-campus

While photographing and attending events, remain mindful of the confidentiality of those being photographed

• Help prepare media files for publications, bulletin boards, posters, articles, etc.

• Assist with other office responsibilities as needed
Experience Desired:

• Strong background with photography composition, digital design, and media processing/editing

• Excellent interpersonal and communication skills; ability to manage and prioritize multiple tasks; self-motivation and the ability to work independently and proactively on projects; previous experience with community service, service-learning, and/or some familiarity with community service in Addison County preferred

• Desired: candidate will be able to provide her/his own camera equipment, or will conscientiously borrow Center for Community Engagement equipment

Own transportation recommended but not required, as some events take place off-campus

Familiarity with social media platforms (facebook, blog posts) and willingness to post on behalf of the Center for Community Engagement a plus

Knowledge Desired:

Education/Training

• Strong computer skills, including Word, Excel, and PowerPoint

• Reliability and a strong commitment to the Center for Community Engagement’s mission

• Ability to maintain confidentiality

This position is 0-3 hours per week in and outside of the Center for Community Engagement, and the ideal candidate can be flexible and highly responsive to new requests for photographing events.

Position Title: Intern, Office of the DOC
EDORDA: 311-6003-50200-10-000000-000000

Position Type: None

Department: Dean of the College
Supervisor: Katy Smith Abbott

Description: Responsibilities:

The DOC intern will be focused specifically on the work of "the Grid," developing programmatic solutions to combat student stress, build resilience, cultivate community, and increase inclusivity on campus. Working with data and feedback prepared by Dean of the Faculty Andi Lloyd, Dean of the College Katy Smith Abbott, and Chief Diversity Officer Miguel Fernandez during the 2015-2016 academic year, the intern will examine national best practices, and in consultation with others develop a long-term vision for strengthening these initiatives at Middlebury.

Experience Desired:

The student intern must have excellent communication skills, both oral and written. The intern should feel comfortable convening meetings and focus groups; developing agendas, action plans, and proposed programming. The student intern must be highly organized, capable of producing power points, and comfortable presenting to faculty, staff, and administrators. An ability to work independently and without constant supervision is essential.

Knowledge Desired:

Other:

The intern will be asked to work closely with the summer intern (if approved) at the Anderson Freeman Resource Center.
Description: The Anderson Freeman Resource Center (AFC), located in Carr Hall, works to promote an inclusive learning environment for the Middlebury community. This work includes support for the needs of students of color; first generation college students; students from low-income backgrounds; LGBTQ+ students; international students; and other students that have been historically underrepresented or marginalized in U.S. higher education. In conjunction with the Center for the Comparative Study of Race and Ethnicity (CCSRE), the AFC provides resources and programming that encourage the holistic development of Middlebury’s increasingly diverse undergraduate student body as they attain their goals of academic achievement and personal growth, while exploring and sustaining their identities and cultures. The staff and faculty of AFC and CCSRE serve as advocates for our student and alumni constituencies, their families, and their communities.

Responsibilities:

AFC Fellows will play an integral student leadership role within AFC and across campus by creating programming, acting as hosts of the Center, managing the space, supporting cultural student orgs, and serving as peer resource advisors. AFC Fellows will also complete administrative tasks and errands as assigned by staff.

Through programming, AFC Fellows will promote academic excellence and build community for all students, with a particular focus on students from underrepresented populations. AFC Fellows will work closely with Center staff and faculty to design and implement programs in the following areas: academic success, social transition, cultural events, coalition and community building, and alumni engagement. Additional programs include but are not limited to the first gen experience, queer/trans*/gender non-conforming student support, undocumented student and DREAMer support, and international student support.

Additionally, the AFC Fellow and Student Supervisor is responsible for scheduling the AFC fellows and office assistants for their shifts throughout the semester. They are responsible for meeting with the AFC associate director to discuss hiring new students and administrative decisions. The student supervisor is expected to assistant with training new hires and to schedule shadowing opportunities for new hires after their initial training. The student supervisor is the main connection between the associate director and the student staff to communicate about important events, news, and instructions. The student supervisor needs to be a leader, a flexible employee, and a respectable representation of the Anderson Freeman Resource Center at Middlebury College.
Experience Desired:

Required Skills & Experience:

- Excellent interpersonal, communication, and organization skills
- Strong attention to detail
- Ability to remain organized while balancing multiple priorities and tasks
- Self-motivated and reliable
- Ability to work independently and proactively on projects
- Ability to work with a team and accept direction from supervisors
- Willingness to greet and direct Center visitors in a friendly professional manner
- Creativity and professional etiquette
- A commitment to diversity and inclusion is required
- Ability to maintain confidentiality

Research Skills

Preferred Skills & Experience

- Prior leadership and work experience on campus

QUALIFICATIONS

Experience Desired:

• Demonstrated experience in leadership, conflict resolution, teamwork, and working with diverse groups of individuals.

• Demonstrated competency in written and oral communication, as well as the use of good judgment in handling sensitive issues.

• Successful candidates will be proactive and organized, and have excellent interpersonal skills along with lots of creative energy.

• Previous successful completion of MiddCORE is required, and experience with residential life is preferred.

RESPONSIBILITIES

• Have a working understanding of Middlebury College and MIIS policies and the MiddCORE summer handbook.

• Be a visible and accessible presence at Asilomar Conference Grounds.

• Plan activities, both on and off campus, during non-programmed times (hikes, bike rides, beach trips, talent shows, etc.).

• Serve as an on-call responder for urgent or emergency situations.
• Be responsible for oversight and upkeep of guest rooms and student-used facilities.

• Assist in addressing student issues (e.g. roommate concerns, referral to services, etc.).

• Aid in enforcing MiddCORE and Middlebury policies at Asilomar and MIIS through promoting individual responsibility.

• Maintain an active, working relationship with Asilomar and MIIS’s staff, including those in custodial services, housekeeping services, dining services, and other areas.

• Help conduct administrative functions for MiddCORE’s daily sessions.

• Other duties and special projects as required.

Other:

PHYSICAL DEMANDS

Must be able to stand for long hours and carry at least 25 lbs.

COMPENSATION INCLUDES

• Room and board at Asilomar Conference Grounds for the 4 weeks of MiddCORE and local Monterey housing, if needed, in the days immediately preceding/after MiddCORE.

• Round-trip transportation from Middlebury, Vermont, to Asilomar/MIIS in Monterey, Calif.

• This is a full-time hourly position, 38.75 hours per week, with some flexibility for part-time hours in the weeks before and after the MiddCORE program.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLICANTS:

• Applications will be reviewed as they are received. All application materials must be submitted online by Monday, March 7 at 5:00 pm EST to be considered. Finalists will be interviewed, and hiring decisions made by March 30, 2018.

• Previous successful completion of MiddCORE required.

APPLICANT REQUIRED DOCUMENTS:

• Cover letter that includes a statement indicating you will available for the entire, eight-week employment period

• Resume

• A statement of 350 words or less that explains why you want this job, demonstrates why you think you’re qualified, and provides some ideas you have for creating an exceptional “out-of-classroom” experience

Position Title: DLINQ Intern

EDORDA: 311-2902-50200-10-110025-11403

Position Type: None

Department: Provost

Supervisor: Joseph Antonioli

Description: General description of the position and department

The mission of the Office of Digital Learning & Inquiry (DLINQ) is to explore and create digital practices and spaces that advance the transformative potential of education in students’ lives, and to advance digital fluency and critical engagement with the digital at Middlebury.

Student interns play a key role in the Office of Digital Learning & Inquiry’s (DLINQ) student engagement program which centers student learning that, as an extension of the mission and reach of our office, applies equally to and serves to unify and connect students across Middlebury programs. DLINQ interns actively engage with DLINQ staff, project partners, and one another as peer mentors in ways that engage their curiosity, advance and prioritize their learning, and foster their sense of cross-institutional community.

Under supervision of an assigned DLINQ staff member, DLINQ summer 2020 interns will work remotely to support educational continuity for the summer Language Schools faculty and students, on-going strategic instructional design projects, departmental logistics and communications related to support of programs for the Fall, as well as on-going digital fluency projects.

Interns work autonomously and in collaboration to assist community members with digital technologies, tools, environments and practices. At the start of employment, interns work through an on-boarding training program that explores a variety of digital environments, media development tools, web technologies and issues in digital learning. Over the course of their employment, interns are also expected to deepen their knowledge of digital tools and to choose at least one area of specialization.

Responsibilities and duties

Under supervision of an assigned DLINQ staff member, intern responsibilities and duties include:

- Facilitating peer-to-peer consultations with other students, and occasionally staff and faculty, on topics and tools on which they have received training or demonstrated interest and proficiency (e.g., multimedia production, web tools, emerging technologies, effective use of software)

- Responding to Middlebury community with thoughtful and responsive support by taking virtual appointments

- Writing and updating website posts, calendar events, as well as documentation for common digital tools, environments and practices

- Supporting or co-leading one and one or small group learning sessions (when requested by their supervisor) on topics relevant to DLINQ’s areas of focus

- Contributing to the development, progress, and success of DLINQ sponsored as well as community partner projects and initiatives. Projects are assigned by DLINQ supervisors based on interns’ experience, skills, interest, or professional/academic development goals.

Knowledge, abilities, skills and prior experience

Interns will bring a unique set of skills to the team and have opportunities to develop new knowledge and skills. Successful interns will be self-motivated and creative problem solvers, curious about digital tools and practices while continuing on their own learning curve, and work well in a remote working supervisory setting. Though DLINQ Interns may not possess all of these skills and areas of expertise, they may be asked to develop and deepen the following:

- familiarity with multimedia production tools and processes including video and audio editing and digital storytelling

- familiarity with website development

- familiarity with Canvas, Panopto, Wordpress, MiddCreate tools, and Domain of One’s Own movement

- familiarity with visual presentation practices and various graphic design tools, for example the Adobe creative suite

- experience with digital collaboration tools like Google docs and communicating with tools like Zoom web conferencing and Slack

- strong verbal and written communication skills including writing for the web

- excellent customer service and the ability to communicate clearly and patiently about complex technical issues

- ability to effectively coordinate and collaborate in geographically-dispersed and team-based environments ability to think creatively and critically about digital tools, practices, and environments taking initiative to investigate problems and work through viable solutions autonomously troubleshooting or researching solutions to technical issues

adopting a partnering mindset with faculty, staff, and other students to move projects forward

earning new technologies and developing new skills independently that benefit personal growth or the intern team

Typical schedule demands

Regular attendance at mandatory meetings is expected as is contribution and follow-up to tasks and topics discussed at the meeting. Interns will often be called upon to complete professional presentations of services and tools.

Description: Successful candidates will apply molecular genetic skills to investigate an important metalloregulatory protein in the oral pathogen, Streptococcus mutans. Preference will be given to students who have experience working with microorganisms (Biosafety Level-2) and who have some expertise in or exposure to basic molecular biology skills including micropipetting, agarose gel electrophoresis, nucleic acid isolation and purification, restriction enzyme mapping, and polymerase chain reaction (PCR). Looking for highly motivated self-starters with keen organizational skills. Attention to fine detail is a must. Successful candidates will work independently on a research project that addresses the goals of the laboratory's mission which is funded by the NIH-NIDCR. Completion of the core Biology sequence (BIOL0145 and BIOL0140) is required, and an upper level laboratory experience (eg. BIOL0310, BIOL0314, BIOL0324, BIOL0365) preferred. Seeking applicants who are committed to the research process and have keen organization skills and an ability to manipulate small reaction volumes. BIOL0145 and BIOL0140 laboratory experience. Additional laboratory experience a plus. Looking for students who like being in a laboratory setting and are motivated to learn new procedures. Ability to work independently and alongside others is a must.

Position Title: STRT Research Asst - Ayoub
EDORDA: 314-2001-50200-10-213103-00000

Position Type: None
Department: Arabic
Supervisor: Dima Ayoub

Description: The research assistant will be in charge of using a shiny app to transform a paratext dataset into a table where users can query an author, title, or keyword and the app will return a list of all corresponding information related to the query that exists in the dataset. I will teach research assistant how to update the database and deploy the Shiny app onto a website. Additionally, the research assistant will be in charge of analyzing the dataset for trends and creating any graphs or maps that show those trends. Other tasks include, but are not limited to, adding content to the website that explains purpose and project and using design principles to increase experience and traffic on website. The research assistant must have completed at least two years of Arabic study (ARBC 202 or higher).

The digital project “Paratext and Power in Arabic Literary Translation” is still in progress. This project’s goal is to compile a comprehensive database of every translation of an Arabic fiction novel into English, French, Spanish, German and Portuguese from WWII to the present. Thus far, we’ve compiled over 800 Arabic into English translations using databases like WorldCat, ArabLit.org, and publisher websites. We’ve acquired each of these books and PDF scanned all the “paratexts” within these translations, i.e. anything that isn’t the text of the translation including introductions, glossaries, footnotes, prefaces, forewords, dedications, and front and back covers. We’ve OCR scanned each PDF using ABBYY software (which can read Arabic text) so that each PDF paratext scan is searchable, which allows us to search for certain glossary terms and thematic content. We then enter information about each text and its paratext into a Google Sheets chart, including book title, author, translator, publisher, author and translator gender/nationality, a list of paratexts, and a list of glossary terms. As new titles are constantly being translated and published, this project is always growing. Alongside the growing charts of raw data, we additionally keep “standardized” copies of the chart to aid quantitative analysis in the form of .tsv files that can be read by OpenRefine to make the data less unruly. In the standardized version of the chart, all glossary terms have the same spelling so we can quantify the frequency of each term across all translations, and we also make sure that each paratext is indicated in the same way so we can quantify the frequency of each paratext type (for example, each introduction becomes “intro”). From the standardized version of the chart, we were able to sort all glossary terms by frequency and content (food/clothing/religious/etc.) to see which terms are most used by translators and publishers as words a western readership is unfamiliar with. Last spring and through the summer, we’ve also created growing companion charts and collections of PDFs of French, Spanish, and German translations of Arabic novels. This summer, we are working on expanding the charts, thematically tagging the content within each paratext beyond glossaries, and expanding our analysis of the existing data.

Experience Desired:
Ability to find articles and books in the library and work with the specialized librarian.

Knowledge Desired: Ability to read Arabic.

Position Number: 901454
Position Title: Admissions Social Media Intern
EDORDA: 311-2901-50200-10-210383-10756
Position Type: None
Department: Admissions (Middlebury)
Supervisor: Cynthia Hatch
Description: Essential Functions:
The Admissions office seeks a dynamic, creative, flexible Admission Intern with a focus on Communications and Social Media. The intern will help develop a consistent online voice for the Admissions office as well as a relevant and engaging online presence. In addition, the intern will perform the duties of an Admissions Student Assistant.

General Responsibilities:

- Work with the communications team within the Admissions office to strategize, coordinate, and execute communications.
- Must handle confidential materials with discretion.
- Produce digital content (photos, video, text) that enhances affinity for and knowledge of Middlebury, shares community success, and highlights the student experience.

Position Title: Food Commons Research Assistant

EDORDA: 311-2910-50200-10-530192-11244

Position Type: None

Department: Biology

Supervisor: Molly Anderson
Description: The Food Commons Research Assistant will work with representatives from several community organizations to create a new multi-use facility, situated in the former Greg’s Market, to serve Addison County’s food producers, citizens, and Middlebury College. We envision space for food retail, a community kitchen, food storage, new food businesses, and services provided to entrepreneurs in food-related start-ups or small-to-medium sized businesses. Addison County, despite having higher agricultural sales than any other county in Vermont, has no such facility at present. Yet food hubs and incubators in other counties (e.g., The Intervale, Mad River Food Hub, The Vermont Food Venture Center) have been successful in creating jobs, new businesses, and increased food tourism. The Research Assistant will work closely with community members to get this facility underway in Middlebury, building on previous work by creating an Advisory Board (on which Dr. Anderson will serve), developing a business plan, and exploring options for financing. The Research Assistant will help to create projects that students in Exploring Food Systems, Dr. Anderson’s summer class held in conjunction with FoodWorks internships, will conduct. Their work will further the aims of identifying and putting in place critical components of success for the Addison County Food Commons. This position requires knowledge of previous work done on this project, excellent written and oral communication skills, analytical and business skills, ability to work independently and also with a team, and ability to assist other students in research projects.

• Complete weekly check-ins with CCE Director Tiffany Sargent and/or SerVermont VISTA member
• Brainstorming luncheon topics, researching topics, and preparing discussions for the monthly luncheons
• Attending monthly luncheons
• Participation in Privilege & Poverty internship information sessions
• Planning and helping carry out other events to build the P&P community – including an end-of-year reception, Commons dinners, screenings, etc.
• Preparing necessary documents for events (e.g., fact sheets and ways to get involved handouts for luncheon topics, intern handbook)
• Creating posters to advertise P&P events and hanging posters around campus
• Advertising P&P events/application deadlines via e-mail, on the P&P website, and on social media
• Organizational efforts (e.g., compiling attendance sheets and e-mail lists, organizing shared documents)
• Research on electives courses to enhance P&P’s scope and campus impact
• Serve as liaison between Directors and intern alumni; misc. support for James Davis, faculty director, P&P and meetings among the P&P faculty
• Research re. poverty statistics for Addison County (and possibly beyond)
• Research re. poverty-related programming (academic and co-curricular) on other campuses, nationally
• Provide possible support to a UVM/Middlebury P&P collaboration currently under development
• Assistance with possible community events related to poverty
• Other needs as they arise

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:
• Knowledge of and experience with the different components of the P&P academic cluster (Internship AND Gateway Course, RELI/INTD 0298)
• Willingness to contribute ideas and provide feedback on events
• Experience working in teams / leadership experience
• Graphic design skills
• Knowledge of WordPress
• Facility with Facebook and Instagram
• Ability to think creatively and take initiative when crafting outreach strategies, collaborating with other campus stakeholders, and planning luncheons
Experience:

- Experience with the different components of the P&P academic cluster (Internship AND Gateway Course, RELI/INTD 0298)
- Experience working in teams / leadership experience

Position Type: None

Department: Environmental Affairs

Supervisor: Megan Brakeley

Description: Essential Functions:

Mission of the Program

The Knoll is dedicated to cultivating well-being of people, place and the planet. The Knoll is comprised of the Educational Garden, the Outdoor Kitchen and the Serenity Garden. The Educational Garden’s 1 acre is used for growing food and student/faculty research. Our goal is to test theories and develop techniques that move us toward sustainability, regeneration and resilience. Interns join in the yearly cycle of food production and regeneration. Plant, cultivate, harvest and sell garden produce and flowers wholesale and retail. Run seed trials and learn seed saving techniques. Interns work in the Outdoor Kitchen learning to use the pizza oven and host events. The Serenity Garden is in the process of being designed to incorporate perennial plants surrounding the meditation bench and the labyrinth. Interns interested in mindfulness will be able to work on bringing workshops/events to The Knoll. Interns also lead tours to tell our story to alumni and visitors.

On-site responsibilities

• Carry out the sowing, transplanting, cultivating, harvesting and sales of the Educational Garden.
• Collaborate with staff at Middlebury Dining Services and other business partnerships to develop orders and delivery of produce.
• Work with HOPE, the local food shelf, to grow and deliver food for the community.
• Sets up and run on campus retail booth.
• Participate in Work Days/Parties with volunteers and working with the pizza oven for community events.
• MUST attend weekly MCOF meetings to act as a liaison between The Knoll and the student group.
• Attend workshops when possible at The Knoll.
• Participate in the seed trials, seed saving and faculty research programs at The Knoll.

General Responsibilities:

Time Commitment

Approximately 35 hours per week for 16 weeks beginning May 29 or June 4th and ending September 8. Some weekend hours are also expected. Interns get two weeks unpaid vacation.

The Knoll interns are now part of the FoodWorks program, a cohort of food related internships combined with food systems field trips. It has changed from past years and no longer has a course or tuition. There is solely a paid internship program that offers FREE housing in Weybridge house for 8 weeks of the FoodWorks program. www.middlebury.edu/foodworks
You are responsible to pay for housing in Weybridge house the remaining weeks of your internship.

If you desire to experience the entire farm season cycle you are encouraged to apply for the spring/fall internship as well.

Position Title: Astronomy Observing Specialist
EDORDA: 311-2152-50200-10-214153-00000
Position Type: None
Department: Physics
Supervisor: Jonathan Kemp

Description: This position is only open to Middlebury students, is available for both the academic year and the summer, and is accepting online applications. Questions regarding this posting can be directed to Jonathan Kemp at jkemp@middlebury.edu and students are encouraged to reach out before applying.

General Responsibilities:

The successful applicants will manage and oversee acquisition and evaluation of astronomical data obtained with the 24” telescope at Middlebury College Observatory atop McCardell Bicentennial Hall. Duties will include exercising proficiency with telescopes, instruments, and software packages and using these skills and techniques in conjunction with a mastery of astronomical principles of the night sky and celestial targets to obtain astronomical data for science and engineering purposes. The successful applicants will work both independently and with the Telescope Specialist who manages the observatory, its telescopes, and its outreach program. Scheduling and hours for this position will be irregular, often at night, and will require motivated, independent work.

Applicants must have advanced proficiency with the principles and practices of telescopes and instruments and intimate familiarity with the night sky. Applicants should have taken and excelled at PHYS 155 or PHYS 165, mastered concepts of observational astronomy and telescope operation as part of one of these courses, served as Astronomy Outreach Event Assistant, or should have advanced equivalent experience with telescopes and observational astronomy. Applicants filling this position should already possess and should have successfully demonstrated the required skills, proficiencies, and training corresponding to Astronomy Outreach Event Assistant. Applicants will be responsible for attention to detail, data quality control, and safe and responsible operation of complex precision equipment. Applicants should enjoy observing with telescopes, acquiring data, and contributing to science and engineering projects that enhance the performance of the Observatory and the answering of scientific questions as a way of applying their knowledge about and enthusiasm for astronomy.

Position Number: 900386
Position Title: DLINQ Lead Intern/Peer Mentor
EDORDA: #N/A
Position Type: #N/A
Department: Provost
Supervisor: Amy Collier
Description: DLINQ's Lead Intern / Peer Mentors play a special role in DLINQ's student engagement program, by providing needed feedback, guidance, and mentoring capabilities. These Lead Intern / Peer Mentors are selected because of their leadership potential and their experience as DLINQ Interns in the past.

Under supervision of an assigned DLINQ staff member, DLINQ Lead Intern / Peer Mentors balance their time between:

Lab management/consultations: This involves co-managing the resources and physical spaces in the Wilson Media Lab and providing peer-to-peer consultations to other students, and occasionally to staff and faculty, on topics and tools on which they have demonstrated interest and expertise (e.g., multimedia production, web tools, emerging technologies, effective use of software). DLINQ Lead Intern / Peer Mentors, when working in the Wilson Media Lab, will provide thoughtful and responsive support to the Middlebury community by taking in-person and virtual appointments, helping drop-in visitors, facilitating workshops (when requested by their supervisor), and managing our collaborative spaces and technologies.

In addition, Lead Intern / Peer Mentors oversee the lab schedule, ensuring that all “open shifts” are covered and that the lab is operating successfully. This includes being the primary and first point of contact for DLINQ Interns who need to adjust their schedules, and notifying the DLINQ Leadership Team of changes that could impact the operation of the lab.

DLINQ Lead Intern / Peer Mentors will also consult with DLINQ Interns, other students, and faculty. DLINQ’s consultation-based appointment system for staff and student employees will include the following areas:

> Digital Pedagogy & Instructional Tools: Course site design, flipped instruction, digital tools for teaching
> Digital Web Presence & Identity: Creating professional/academic websites, digital portfolios
> Presentation & Graphic Design: Design presentations, reports, CVs, fliers, banners, posters
> Multimedia Production: Audio recording, podcasting, video editing, screencasting, digital storytelling
> Emerging Technology Exploration: Virtual reality tools, new media

DLINQ Projects: DLINQ Lead Intern / Peer Mentors will contribute to the development of specific DLINQ projects and initiatives, and provide expertise and support to help DLINQ projects (and related faculty, staff, and students) to succeed. Projects are assigned by DLINQ supervisors based on Interns’ expertise, interest, or professional/academic development goals.

Lead Intern / Peer Mentors have an added responsibility associated with projects, which is to maintain a global view of DLINQ projects that involve DLINQ Interns to ensure that projects are moving forward and that projects have appropriate resources.

Additional Supervision/Management responsibilities: DLINQ Lead Intern / Peer Mentors provide a “first line” of management and leadership over the DLINQ Intern program. As such, they are expected to communicate regularly (through Slack mostly) with Interns to provide updates and helpful information, answer questions, and celebrate team successes. They will provide feedback and guidance to other Interns to help them be productive and meet internship expectations. They will communicate with the Leadership Team about any issues that arise and help identify and plan additional training and learning opportunities for DLINQ Interns, as needed.

General Responsibilities:

The mission of the Office of Digital Learning & Inquiry (DLINQ) is to explore and create digital practices and spaces that advance the transformative potential of education in students’ lives, and to advance digital fluency and critical engagement with the digital at Middlebury.

Student employees play a key role in the Office of Digital Learning & Inquiry’s (DLINQ) student engagement program which centers student learning that, as an extension of the mission and reach of our office, applies equally to and serves to unify and connect students across Middlebury programs. As such, DLINQ Interns are actively engaged with DLINQ staff, project partners, and one another as peer mentors in ways that engage their curiosity, advance and prioritize their learning, and foster their sense of cross-institutional community.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

The DLINQ Lead Intern / Peer Mentor position requires a technical orientation that is creative, curious, and critical, and it also requires leadership potential and reliability. The position requires a troubleshooting aptitude and willingness to investigate problems and work through viable solutions autonomously, and the ability to partner with faculty, staff, and other students to move projects forward and to learn new things.

We expect strong verbal and written communication skills, and proven strength in collaboration and working in team-based environments. Candidates must be self-motivated, interested in continuing on their own learning curve, and work well with and without supervision. An ability to take initiative, be a creative problem solver, and possess a high level of adaptability is required. Regular attendance at mandatory weekly meetings is expected as is contribution to topics discussed at the meeting. Interns will often be called upon to complete professional presentations of services and tools in the Wilson Media Lab.

Experience: No specific technical experience or work experience is required

Position Title: DLINQ XR Studio Fellow
EDORDA: 311-2901-50200-10-211183-00000
Position Type: Single incumbent
The mission of the Office of Digital Learning & Inquiry (DLINQ) is to explore and create digital practices and spaces that advance the transformative potential of education in students’ lives, and to advance digital fluency and critical engagement with the digital at Middlebury.

Student fellows play a key role in the Office of Digital Learning & Inquiry’s (DLINQ) student engagement program which centers student learning that, as an extension of the mission and reach of our office, applies equally to and serves to unify and connect students across Middlebury programs. For example, DLINQ Studio Fellows may be asked to work with partners or on projects relating to any part of Middlebury, including the Institute in Monterey, our Schools Abroad, or immersive programs like Social Impact Corps. DLINQ Studio Fellows actively engage with DLINQ staff, project partners, and one another as peer mentors in ways that engage their curiosity, advance and prioritize their learning, and foster their sense of cross-institutional community.

About the Extended Reality Studio

Fellows in the Extended Reality (XR) Studio work collaboratively on components of virtual spaces, immersive, interactive, multimedia experiences. Intra-media activities pull apart the components, examine how they work together, and re-assemble them to create interesting and informative performances, projects, activities, and hybrid learning experiences. For example a Fellow may look at the video, animation, soundtrack, and user interface of a virtual world. Inter-media activities look at how XR technologies interact in physical and other digital spaces. For instance, they may look at the relationship between a motion capture suit and a rendered avatar, or how learners might interact beyond the classroom with web content triggered by geolocation metadata. XR Studio Fellows will work collaboratively with faculty and staff to explore XR technologies in creative and critical ways, “breaking the box,” while developing meaningful interactions with people, sometimes in different geographic locations, using these new medium and modes of communication.

DLINQ XR Studio Fellows responsibilities and duties include:

- Taking care of the hardware resources, software tools, and collaborative spaces that are used for XR activities. This includes, but is not limited to, the virtual reality resources in 240B of the Davis Family Library, and the motion capture suit in the Dance Department.
- Collaborating with XR Studio Members to design, plan and execute events pertaining to XR technologies.
- Facilitating peer-to-peer consultations with other students, and occasionally staff and faculty, on topics and tools related to XR technologies.
- Responding to Middlebury community with thoughtful and responsive support by taking in-person and virtual appointments and welcoming drop-in visitors.
- Writing and updating documentation for XR digital tools, environments and practices.
- Supporting or co-leading one and one or small group learning sessions (when requested by their supervisor) on topics relevant to XR.

- Contributing to the development, progress, and success of the XR Studio, as well as community partner XR projects and initiatives.

Knowledge, abilities, skills and prior experience

Studio will bring a unique set of skills to the team and have opportunities to develop new knowledge and skills. Successful fellows will be self-motivated and creative problem solvers, curious about XR tools and practices while continuing on their own learning curve, and work well with and without supervision. Though DLINQ Fellows may not possess all of these skills and areas of expertise, they may be asked to develop and deepen the following:

- familiarity with virtual, augmented, and mixed reality tools, practices and environments. Some examples may include Unity, Blender, Tilt Brush, headsets, and geolocation services like Google Earth.

- familiarity with multimedia production tools and processes including video and audio editing

- familiarity with website development, Wordpress, MiddCreate tools, and Domain of One’s Own movement

- familiarity with visual presentation practices and various graphic design tools, for example the Adobe creative suite

- experience with digital collaboration tools like Google docs and communicating with tools like Zoom web conferencing, and Slack

- strong verbal and written communication skills including writing for the web

- excellent customer service and the ability to communicate clearly and patiently about complex technical issues

- ability to effectively coordinate and collaborate in geographically-dispersed and team-based environments

- ability to think creatively and critically about XR tools, practices, and environments

- taking initiative to investigate problems and work through viable solutions autonomously

- troubleshooting or researching solutions to technical issues

- adopting a partnering mindset with faculty, staff, and other students to move projects forward

Position Number: 901703
Position Title: Bio/ES Research Asst.
EDORDA: #N/A
Position Type: #N/A
Department: Biology
Supervisor: Eric Moody
Description: Essential Functions:

Professor Eric Moody is seeking motivated students currently or considering majoring in Biology, Chemistry, or Environmental Studies to conduct research on the evolutionary ecology of aquatic organisms this fall term. Research in our lab focuses on aquatic ecology across scales from organismal biology to biogeochemical processes.

We are currently seeking help with projects related to desert fish conservation and biology. This work will involve the examination and analysis of museum fish specimens as well as work with literature and other existing data. Successful candidates will have opportunities to continue working in the lab beyond the fall term and ultimately develop and independent thesis project if they desire to do so. Future opportunities to conduct fieldwork and/or labwork with desert fishes and harmful algal blooms in Vermont lakes will be possible.

General Responsibilities:

Immediate responsibilities will include the examination of museum fish specimens and photos thereof to study morphological variation in desert fishes. This will include work with specialized morphological analysis software as well as Microsoft Excel and the R statistical computing environment. The successful candidate will also have opportunities to assist with the presentation and publication of the data collected during this project depending on their interest.

Students interested in pursuing future senior and/or thesis work on aquatic ecology, especially on topics related to desert fishes or lake plankton dynamics, will have opportunities to begin exploring opportunities in our lab and discussing potential project ideas.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

Prior experience with Microsoft Excel and experience or a willingness to learn about specialized morphological analysis software and R are required. Motivation to solve biological and environmental problems is an asset to this position.

Experience:

Preference will be given to applicants with experience conducting ecological research in a job, internship, and/or course, but applicants with no such experience are still welcome to apply.

Other:

To learn more about our research interests please visit our website at https://erickmoody.wordpress.com/. Our research group is committed to welcoming and mentoring students of all backgrounds and no prior research experience is required.

Position Type: None
Department: Ctr Teaching/Learning/Research
Supervisor: Lisa Gates

Description: Responsibilities:

The research assistant (RA) works closely with a team of faculty and staff, undergraduate and graduate research assistants from Middlebury College and the Middlebury Institute of International Studies at Monterey in developing online learning modules for social science research methods. In the process, RAs will be engaged in research of materials related to social science methods, identification of materials for integration into online instructional content, working with project members to incorporate material into an online environment, and working with testing and assessment of the learning modules. We are hoping to hire 1-2 RAs for J-term and/or spring semester, with a possibility of continuing during the summer. Our current work focuses on surveys and interviews.

Preferred candidates have experience with surveys and other social science research methods (experience may include coursework, independent research, and/or previous experience as a research assistant), the ability to work with WordPress and a facility with textual and visual material. We expect strong verbal and written communication skills, attention to detail, and the ability to collaborate and work effectively in team-based remote work environments as well as independently. RAs must be able to take initiative, be interested in continuing their own learning, and work well with and without supervision.

To apply: submit cover letter, resume and unofficial transcript. Application review begins week of 1/19. Selected applicants will be invited to interview.

Eligible for remote work from within the United States only.

Position Number: 901788
Position Title: Lake Research Assistant
EDORDA: 314-1304-50200-10--
Position Type: Single incumbent

Department: Biology

Supervisor: Eric Moody

Description: Essential Functions:

The successful applicant will assist with USDA-funded research examining the success (or lack thereof) of restoration projects in Iowa lakes. The student will work primarily with an existing dataset of Iowa lake biological and chemical data and with complementary lake restoration reports and other primary data sources to complete this project, but opportunities for lab and/or fieldwork may develop from the position.

General Responsibilities:

The primary responsibility will be to compile information about Iowa lake restoration projects and use this information in conjunction with long-term lake monitoring data to work with the faculty supervisor to study what explains why some lake restoration projects are more successful than others and the implications for how resources for lake restoration are distributed.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

As the work will primarily be computer-based, general familiarity with computer systems and Microsoft Office will be required. Students with a general interest in lake ecology, conservation, environmental justice, and/or the human health implications of lake eutrophication and harmful algal blooms will be particularly competitive. The Moody lab aims to foster a positive learning and working environment for students with any background or experience, thus applications from any student interested in the project are welcome regardless of previous experience.

Experience:

No prior experience with lake ecology or data analysis is required. However, experience using R to work with and analyze data or a willingness to learn is preferred.

Position Number: 901789
Position Title: Food Truck Associate
EDORDA: 311-1106-50200-10--12085
Position Type: Single incumbent
Department: Retail Food Operations
Supervisor: Jennifer Stratman
Description: Essential Functions:
In many ways, because the food truck has only one serving window, you will often be the customer’s first impression of the business. Professionalism is indispensable.

We are looking for someone quick to welcome customers and ready to place their order, because fast service is going to be just as important as quality service.

When taking pre-orders from customers inline, taking payment and giving change at the window, or calling out and delivering completed orders, fast and friendly service is always essential.

General Responsibilities:
Cashier: You will need to learn our seasonal menu items as well as have a reasonable working knowledge of how they are made and served, so you may accurately answer customers’ questions about them. You will be trained on using our cash register and point of sale system to ring in orders correctly and provide precise change.

Expediter/Food Runner: During excessively busy times, this position will pivot to taking pre-orders from customers further down the line to help the “kitchen” get ahead. So knowledge of our menu will also be important for this position. At the same time, completed orders will need to be delivered to customers to prevent congestion from forming at the front of the truck.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:
Basic math is needed for cashiering, and some straightforward food knowledge for customer service is a plus. Most skills will be taught during training, so positivity is the fundamental skill.
Experience:

Food service/food truck experience isn’t required but it is appreciated. Excellent customer service is the primary job function, so communication skills and a positive attitude are necessary. Retail work experience will also be a plus, but not mandatory.

Other:

Life is hard enough. Working here should not be. The language we use should always be compassionate and inclusive. When conversing with each other and our customers, the rule of thumb will always be 1. Is it true? 2. Is it kind? 3. Is it helpful?

Position Number: 901792
Position Title: Civil Rights & Title IX Intern
EDORDA: 311-2143-50200-10--

Position Type: Single incumbent

Department:

Supervisor: Marti McCaleb

Description: Essential Functions:

Provides administrative and programming support for education and prevention programming surrounding sexual harassment, sexual misconduct, and other prohibited harassment and discrimination. Position will work closely with the Civil Rights and Title IX Coordinator to develop and administer programs and educational initiatives.

General Responsibilities:

Update web-based information on sexual and dating violence resources, reporting options, and complaint/investigation procedures;

Assist with the adaptation of prevention and education materials to meet the specific needs of our students, faculty and staff at all Middlebury locations;

Research and develop programming initiatives;

Research policies and best practices on a variety of civil rights related topics;

Assist with meeting and event planning, preparation of materials, etc.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

graphic design; written and interpersonal communication skills; high-level organizational skills; self-directed.
The ideal candidate will have a strong interest in the area of civil rights, anti-discrimination, and/or sexual violence prevention and response and will have been involved at some level in related initiatives at Middlebury.

Experience:

1. Experience with graphic design, including print materials and Web-based design;
2. Excellent written and interpersonal communication skills and organizational skills;
3. Experience conducting research in various areas—policies, products, printing approaches, etc.—and presenting the choices coherently and with a well-reasoned recommendation.

Other:

Availability of at least 5 hours per week to commit to this position. High level of self-direction; excellent phone skills for additional research.

Note: This position will NOT be exposed to or involved with any confidential Civil Rights or Title IX investigations; however, you will work closely with the CRTIX Coordinator, HROs, and senior administrators. Ability and willingness to maintain strict confidentiality necessary. Candidate will be required to undergo specialized training and sign confidentiality/non-disclosure agreement prior to beginning work.

Position Number: 901793

Position Title: Habitat Housing Design Tech TA

Position Type: Single incumbent

Department:

Supervisor: John McLeod

Description: Essential Functions:

Assist the professor with training the students in the Habitat Housing Design course in AutoCAD and Revit programs for computer drafting, modeling, and rendering. Beyond training, the TA will assist the professor in guiding and advising the students in using the software to develop the house designs, conduct construction cost estimating, obtain necessary permits, and produce the construction drawings for the next two Habitat for Humanity houses to be built in Addison County.

General Responsibilities:

Attend the two weekly class meetings and assist with teaching—in person for as long as that is allowed, and remotely if necessary. Prepare for each class with the professor, review the progress of the ongoing work with the professor, and manage files.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:
Knowledge, skill, and experience with the complex and high-powered industry programs AutoCAD and Revit are critical to this job.

Experience:

Experience working with AutoCAD and Revit on real projects, preferably in an architecture firm, is a must. Experience in past Habitat for Humanity Housing Design courses is strongly preferred.

Other:

Beneficial attributes:

- Experience with construction and how things get built.
- Architectural Studies major.
- A willingness to work hands-on with students and help train and guide them

Position Number: 901797
Position Title: Climate Action Fellowship
EDORDA: #N/A
Position Type: #N/A
Department: Environmental Affairs
Supervisor: Minna Brown

Description: Essential Functions:
Launching this fall, the Climate Action Fellowship program will offer students from various backgrounds and disciplines the opportunity to deeply engage in collaborative thinking and skill development on how to confront the climate crisis in meaningful ways. This Fellowship program is directly tied to Middlebury’s new Climate Action Capacity Project under the umbrella of Environmental Affairs. Fellows will work together (and with partners and mentors) to identify their own roles and theories of change while supporting the engaged learning pillar of Energy2028. They will coordinate with groups on campus and in the community through a mix of defined projects and projects of their own design to envision pathways for all students to leave Middlebury with the knowledge, motivation, and capacity to act on climate change in just and equitable ways.

Eight fellows will comprise the initial cohort for the full academic year with the possibility to extend into summer 2021. This is a 5-10 hour per week paid position.
Visit go/CACP for more information about the Climate Action Capacity Project.

General Responsibilities:

Beginning in the fall, Fellows will focus on understanding roles, system leverage points, and theories of change. Throughout the year, Fellows will meet regularly as a group and individually with the Project Director as needed. They will also have access to mentoring and partnership opportunities depending on their needs and projects. Fellows will support the coordination and follow up surrounding the fall Energy2028 forum and will then spend winter and spring diving into their own team or individual projects.

Those projects may focus on a variety of themes including:

Working with departments, centers, and student groups on climate change integration
Planning and implementing communications efforts
Coordinating speakers, trainings, and other events
Working with data to better understand needs, opportunities, and impacts
Connecting with alumni on career pathways and toolkits
Connecting beyond Middlebury (other schools, external organizations, etc)

Project plans, opportunities to present progress, the development of institutional knowledge, and individual and collective next steps will provide grounding for work throughout the year.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

This program seeks to broaden and deepen Middlebury’s climate efforts. We hope to provide an inclusive space where students from many backgrounds and disciplines have a chance to tackle a topic that spans all topics and career paths. Knowledge, skills, and abilities that would support those efforts include: a basic understanding of climate change, a proven ability to work well in groups and individually, curiosity, and a sense of humor.

Facilitation, design (or other creative skills), project management, organizing, and assessment are all examples of helpful but by no means required skills.

Experience:

No experience is strictly required, and we hope to see applicants from across Middlebury departments, though a working knowledge of climate change, a proven desire to move from theory to action, and effective communication skills will enhance the experience.

Other:

Please submit your resume and a cover letter. In your cover letter, please consider the following questions:

How do you think change happens?
What does a better world look like to you?
How can Middlebury ensure that all students leave equipped to tackle climate change?

How might your work as a Fellow support that? What perspectives and backgrounds might you bring to the table?

What kind of work do you hope to do after graduation?

What questions do you have for us?

What other questions would you want to explore as a group/individual?

This position is approved for remote work within the United States only.

Position Number: Astronomy Music Specialist
Position Title: 901794
EDORDA: #N/A
Position Type: #N/A
Department: Physics
Supervisor: Jonathan Kemp

Description: The successful applicants will manage and oversee conception, design, creation, and production of musical works inspired by and to accompany astronomy and the Middlebury College Observatory atop McCardell Bicentennial Hall. Musical creations may be in or on a variety of media including both analog and digital, and may be acoustic, electronic, or synthetic. The successful applicants may be involved with the digitizing of analog objects to transform them to electronic formats, and may be involved with the conception, design, >> creation, and preparation of video, materials, and products featuring these musical works. The successful applicants will work both independently and with the Telescope Specialist who manages the observatory, its telescopes, and its outreach program. Scheduling and hours for this position will be irregular and will require motivated, independent work. Applicants must have advanced proficiency with the principles and practices of telescopes and instruments, mastery of appropriate professional industry-standard physical instrumentation and digital creation software packages for music production, and intimate familiarity with the night sky. Applicants should have taken and excelled at PHYS 155 or PHYS 165, mastered concepts of observational astronomy and telescope operation as part of one of these courses, served as Astronomy Outreach Event Assistant, or should have advanced equivalent experience with telescopes and observational astronomy. Applicants filling this position should already possess and should have successfully demonstrated the required skills, proficiencies, and training corresponding to Astronomy Outreach Event Assistant.

Applicants will be responsible for creativity in expression and design.

Applicants should enjoy designing and creating compelling musical works for outreach programs to share their knowledge about and enthusiasm for astronomy with others.

Department: President's Office

Supervisor: Craig Maravich

Description: Beyond the Page (BtP) is a new initiative at Middlebury College started by The Bread Loaf School of English and led by Craig Maravich. This project partners with professional actors/teaching artists, faculty and students to embed theatre arts practices across the undergraduate and graduate curriculum to cultivate an exceptionally high level of student engagement as well as of intellectual risk-taking, acuity, and trust. It enables students and faculty to develop ideas and entertain diverse perspectives as part of a learning community and revolutionize what learning and teaching in the liberal arts can be. The Teaching Artist Intern is a paid position and will have the opportunity to be involved in this process on multiple levels. This position will work closely with and learn from the Program Director and visiting Faculty Artists in the development of theater practices and teaching artist pedagogy in multiple undergraduate classrooms. This position will also work closely with the Program Associate to document the practices used in each classroom to help create an archive and aid in creating marketing materials and develop other avenues of promoting this work. Opportunities for mentorship and learning by doing with a cohort of professional artists will also be available during training sessions, weekly meetings, and artist residencies on campus

GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES - (1-5 hours per week)
- Weekly Beyond the Page meeting with program director, and program associate.
- Attend 1-2 retreats and trainings with entire Beyond the Page team
- Document select classroom visits. This includes taking photos and video of visits as well as acting as a model participant during visits.
- Collaborate in the planning and implementation of select classroom work as a teaching artist.
- Opportunities to implement marketing/branding strategy that may include website, promo video creation and other avenues to promote and tell the story of this program. BtP Interns run the social media for BtP and we are looking for more opportunities to increase our online presence and reach.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES
- Theatre experience as an actor or director OR strong interest in education OR creative learning practices, and/or working knowledge of pedagogy
- Ability to collaborate and think creatively
- Familiarity with Microsoft Office and google documents
- Ability to write concisely
- Working knowledge or strong interest in media and social media creation and strategies.

EXPERIENCE
- At least 1 year of college courses completed.
- Experience and completed courses/training in theatre OR other arts-based courses encouraged.
- Interest/experience in some elements of basic marketing i.e. video promotion/production, social media, web design, etc.

OTHER
- A desire to be a part of an evolving new program at the college and a passion for creative learning opportunities that connect multiple artistic and academic modalities.

EDORDA: #N/A
Position Type: #N/A
Department:
Supervisor: Joseph Antonioli
Description: Essential Functions:

About DLINQ

The mission of the Office of Digital Learning & Inquiry (DLINQ) is to explore and create digital practices and spaces that advance the transformative potential of education in students’ lives, and to advance digital fluency and critical engagement with the digital at Middlebury. Student employees play a key role in the Office of Digital Learning & Inquiry’s (DLINQ) student engagement program which centers student learning that, as an extension of the mission and reach of our office, applies equally to and serves to unify and connect students across Middlebury programs. As such, DLINQ digital teaching assistants and interns are actively engaged with DLINQ staff, project partners, and one another as peer mentors in ways that engage their curiosity, advance and prioritize their learning, and foster their sense of cross-institutional community. Lead interns are selected because of their leadership potential, interest in developing their digital fluency, and demonstrated effectiveness in dynamic and collaborative work environments.

Responsibilities

Under the supervision of a DLINQ staff member, the primary function of the Digital Teaching Assistant (DTA) is to support a small cohort of instructors and courses in successful online or hybrid delivery by providing technological and instructional support in partnership with the course professor. This position will include technology support for the faculty member, peer mentoring of other students, tech-related communications, following FERPA requirements and honoring student confidentiality. This position does not include grading or assessment of learning.

General Responsibilities:

Faculty & Class Support: General faculty support to ensure faculty are prepared to design and lead class sessions online, including but not limited to: course planning, attending class (online) as requested by faculty, supporting online learning environment needs – before, during, and after class meetings. Helping manage course technologies, posting course resources/readings/materials, online research and supplemental resources, creating handouts, etc. Researching and sharing ideas for online class facilitation (in consultation with DLINQ) and bringing content to online learning environments.

Technology Support: Updating course Canvas site and managing other technologies (e.g. FlipGrid, Google Docs, Polls, etc.) as relevant for the course. Updating and posting documents, reviewing dates, schedule, and details on Canvas. Checking for accuracy and content visibility.
Peer Mentoring/DTA Office Hours: Availability to meet with students outside of class by appointment to help students work through tech challenges, and keep a pulse on any concerns that might arise, while honoring student confidentiality and FERPA regulations.

General Faculty-Student Liaison: Listen and share ideas to bridge instructors and students, help support a positive learning environment, ask questions to clarify information with instructors, be proactive with ideas that will benefit student learning and manage expectations, etc.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

Required Experience & Qualifications:

Familiarity with technology; willingness to quickly learn Canvas and other commonly used curricular technologies including Zoom, Panopto, Google Drive and Microsoft O365, as well as comfort soliciting for assistance from DLINQ staff or Canvas Support as needed to support online learning environments.

Strong written and oral communication skills

Comfort with remote teamwork and collaboration

Attention to detail. Able to work independently

Must be in good academic standing and maintain satisfactory academic progress toward degree completion throughout the duration of the position.

Experience:

Preferred Qualifications:

A quick learner with a positive attitude and a growth mindset.

Familiarity with FERPA guidelines and Middlebury’s computing policies.

Prior technology support experience and/or experience coordinating or facilitating online learning (meetings, professional development, classes, etc.) preferred, but not required.

General Responsibilities:

The Student Friends of the Art Museum (SFOAM) Coordinators—there are usually 3 or 4 each year—need to be adept at soliciting feedback from students and working to translate current trends and interests into programs and initiatives that will guarantee student involvement with the Museum. The coordinators will organize and advertise 4–6 student events per year. Event formats are somewhat flexible but would include various virtual events and programs designed to bring our community together around art-related events using electronic means. Coordinators will be responsible for communicating directly with student members and creating and distributing marketing content in consultation with museum staff. Additional responsibilities include: maintaining the Student Friends database for regular communication about events; being present for all virtual student Museum events; attendance at three virtual hour-long Friends of the Art Museum board meetings each year as a student representative; collaborating with board members of the Friends of the Art Museum to plan combined events; and participating in some limited information sessions during Orientation Weeks.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

-Commitment to creating and promoting diverse and inclusive social environments (demonstrated experience desirable)

-Strong organizational and communication skills needed to organize 4-6 events per year

-Must be a team player to work with a team of 2-3 other students, and be guided by Museum staff

-Strong desire to advocate for the Museum and the ability to promote the Museum to the student body

-Ability to think outside the box to create original Museum related events for students

-Some graphic design background/ability is helpful for creating posters/marketing
- General computer literacy in Microsoft Office suite, Photoshop or other basic design software, and social media helpful

Experience:
- Solid familiarity with the Museum and its programs and collections preferred
- Writing, editing, and proofreading skills

Other:

In addition the standard applications materials, when applying to this position please include in your cover letter a short paragraph addressing why you want to use art as a way to build a diverse and inclusive community among Middlebury’s student body. (You might also address how you would do this through virtual means as well as in-person.)

Note: Due to the College’s strict insurance policies, any offer of employment is contingent upon successful completion of a comprehensive background check conducted by an independent agency (HireRight). Please contact the Student Employment Office for more information on what this background check entails.

EDORDA: 311-2911-50200-10-000000-14462

Position Type: None
Department: Environmental Affairs
Supervisor: Sophie Calvi

Description: Essential Functions: The Office of Sustainability (OSI) is hiring students to be a part of the Sustainability Solutions Lab (SSL) this fall. Internships are for students interested in taking on campus related challenges and developing solutions that advance Middlebury’s sustainability and environmental leadership. This a 5-8 hour per week paid position.

General Responsibilities: SSL Interns will work with OSI staff and other experts to focus on advancing the goals of Energy2028 which include 100% renewable energy, decreasing consumption and increasing energy efficiency, engaging the community in sustainability awareness and action, reducing waste and other sustainability challenges on campus. Specifically, interns this fall may help oversee our office’s communications efforts, design and implement outreach strategies to increase awareness of sustainability on campus, work on reducing waste, and incorporate racial and environmental justice into our work. Interns will work in teams to more clearly define problems, brainstorm solutions, develop prototype designs and test them out. Interns will meet weekly with SSL staff one per week, and are expected to meet with the rest of their team weekly as well. The remainder of weekly hours will be used for independent work.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: We seek students who are creative, passionate, team-players.

Experience: No experience is necessary—the Sustainability Solutions Lab will provide any background information and training needed to complete projects in a meaningful manner.

Other: About Middlebury College – Office of Sustainability Integration
The Office of Sustainability Integration develops, implements, and supports sustainability initiatives that achieve environmental, social, and economic goals throughout the campus community, College operations, and the community at large. The office works in many different ways, from supporting independent student research projects to helping administrators and facilities staff with green campus infrastructure, such as the biomass gasification plant, as well as providing faculty... workshops on integrating sustainability into the curriculum. The staff also conducts an annual greenhouse-gas inventory, which tracks Middlebury’s carbon emissions, as well as a College-wide assessment of progress every few years.

Position Title: Museum Ambassador
EDORDA: 311-2010-50200-10-211053-00000

Position Type: None
Department:
Supervisor: Jason Vrooman

Description: Essential Functions:
Attend mandatory weekly training sessions on Tuesdays during the academic year. Trainings will begin on Sept. 14, 2021. (Time TBD but tentatively from 4:30-6:00 PM.)
Complete an additional 1-2 hours of work each week. This work may include completing assigned readings, researching works of art, preparing for tours, creating interpretive digital resources, and advancing accessibility initiatives. (See below for further details.)
Lead in-person and digital tours of the museum’s permanent collection and special exhibitions at mutually agreed upon times (including on October 8 and 9 during Fall Family Weekend).
Schedule 1-2 hours each week when you can be in the museum’s galleries to answer visitors’ questions. (This time will be dependent on your schedule, the museum’s hours, and public health guidelines.)

- Generate digital content to help contextualize artworks in the museum’s collection and special exhibitions. Resources may include (but are not limited to): blog posts, Instagram stories, thematic tours of the permanent collection for adults, and activities for children.

- Expand the museum’s accessibility offerings. This work may include (but is not limited to) writing verbal descriptions of works of art, editing interpretive labels for inclusive language, and generating large print labels.

- Hours Per Week: 3.5-5.5 hours per week per student (I anticipate hiring 15 students)

- General Responsibilities:
The Museum Ambassadors Program (MAP) trains Middlebury College students to lead in-person and virtual tours of the Middlebury College Museum of Art. Museum Ambassadors provide valuable community service as they engage school, college, and adult audiences in dialogue about art from the Museum’s permanent collection and special exhibitions. They also contribute to projects that help make the Museum’s collections, exhibitions, and programs more accessible to all visitors.

- Museum Ambassadors attend weekly training sessions where they study and practice a variety of styles of museum education and read about/discuss diversity, equity, access, and inclusion in contemporary museum practice. Special emphasis is placed on peer-to-peer learning, but art historians, museum professionals, and other experts may periodically visit these sessions to offer additional context. In addition, students gain useful skills and knowledge in areas that may include community engagement, public speaking, childhood development, working with ageing populations, accessibility, and public programming.

- Through their insights and work contributions, Museum Ambassadors are invaluable partners on the journey to making the Middlebury College Museum of Art more diverse, equitable, accessible, inclusive, and welcoming to the widest possible range of in-person and virtual visitors.

- Please note: Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, interactions with school-age audiences may be limited in the 2021-22 academic year. Program leaders hope that school and family programs will feature more prominently in future years.

- Knowledge, Skills and Abilities:

  - Passion for social engagement.
  - Strong interest in visual art.
  - Commitment to promoting diverse and inclusive learning environments.
  - Must be comfortable with public speaking in person and on camera (or willing to develop these skills).
  - Strong research and writing skills.
  - Must be excited to have conversations with museum visitors of all ages. Experience working with children and/or ageing populations is an asset.
  - Background or interest in community organizing, community engagement, or Diversity, Equity, Accessibility, and Inclusion (DEAI) work is highly desirable.
  - NOTE: Due to the Museum’s strict insurance policies, all offers of employment are contingent upon a candidate’s successful completion of a criminal background check conducted by an independent agency.
  - Experience:
  - Students from all majors are encouraged to apply. (Coursework in Art History, Museum Studies, Studio Art, History, Disability Studies, or Education Studies is especially desirable.)
  - Because of the time commitment of this program, students must have completed at least one semester at Middlebury in order to apply for MAP. We regret that First Years in their first semester are not eligible; we encourage you to apply for the 2022-2023 school year.

Position Title: Project-Based Learning Website Assistant
EDORDA: 311-2001-50200-10-211053-16341
Position Type: Pooled
Department: Ctr Teaching/Learning/Research
Supervisor: Amy McGlashan
Description: The Project-Based Learning Resources Intern works closely with a team of faculty and staff from Middlebury College to help redesign, create, and promote a web platform and other resources to support faculty interested in implementing Project-Based Learning (PBL) pedagogy at Middlebury. The PBL RI will help identify, curate, and possibly develop online and other resources pertaining to PBL, help organize materials, and be a contributing member of the team designing the site’s functionality. The RA will be engaged in research of materials related to project based learning pedagogy, identify materials for integration into online instructional content, work with project members to incorporate material into an online environment, and help test and assess key components. In addition, the intern may help develop materials with similar content to be used in faculty development workshops on PBL course design, PBL as anti-racist pedagogy, and PBL in the First-Year Seminar, among other topics.
Preferred candidates have experience with project-based and/or community-connected pedagogies and have an interest in on-line resources for professional development. The RI will work with WordPress (or learn the platform) and need a facility with textual and visual material. We expect strong verbal and written communication skills, attention to detail, and the ability to collaborate and work effectively in a team-based remote work environment, as well as work independently. RA must be able to take initiative, be interested in continuing their own learning, and work well with and without supervision. This is designed as a part-time summer opportunity with the possibility of extending into the academic year.

To apply: submit cover letter, resume and an unofficial transcript. Applications will be reviewed as they are received.

Position Number: 901921
Position Title: Senior Research Asst-Rao
EDORDA: 311-2905-50200-10-000000-11167

Position Type: Pooled
Department:
Supervisor: Akhil Rao
Description:  Title: Senior Research Assistant
Job description: The Senior RA role is intended for students in or approaching their senior year, who have worked as RAs for an economist or other quantitative social scientist for at least one semester or summer term. Ideal candidates will be skilled programmers familiar with multiple languages and code documentation practices, able to write mathematical proofs, and able to train and supervise other RAs on one or more projects. This position is ideal for students who are interested in pre-doctoral programs/graduate school or careers in managing cross-functional technical teams (e.g. engineering management). Essentials: A Senior RA must be able to both deliver product and supervise other RAs working on similar products. “Products” for this role encompasses code and/or mathematical proofs; datasets and simulations are essential verifications of product quality, but are not themselves products. Senior RAs may be responsible for success or timely completion of advanced research projects. Ideal candidate will be interested in economic research and data analysis (for statistical projects) or economic theory (for mathematical projects). Depending on the specific project, degree of autonomy, and quality of execution, Senior RAs may be listed as coauthors on research papers.

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities: Minimally-necessary KSAs are listed as bullet point headers. Sub-bullet points describe KSAs that are helpful for the role and will be considered during application review, but may be learned on the job.

Knowledge of statistics at least at the ECON 211 level, ideally at the ECON 212 level.

Advanced econometrics courses such as ECON 0355 (Empirical Methods in Macroeconomics) or ECON 0411 (Applied Econometrics) are helpful.

Ability to code estimators (e.g. OLS, FGLS) from scratch is helpful.

Ability to write Monte Carlo simulations to test performance of identification strategies and estimators is helpful.

Previous background (e.g. a course with certificate) in data carpentry is helpful.

Knowledge of calculus and optimization at least at the ECON 255 level, ideally at the ECON 0350 level.

Advanced economic theory courses such as ECON 0280 (Game Theory) or ECON 0344 (International Economics) are helpful.

Ability to write simulations to illustrate theorems and extend theorems to analytically intractable cases is helpful.

Ability to write and modify iterative convergence algorithms (e.g. Value Function Iteration) for dynamic optimization problems is helpful.

Familiarity with linear algebra and differential equations is helpful.

Ability to work independently and remotely.

Ability to present technical material to non-technical audiences.

Ability to supervise and train between 1 and 3 other RAs in technical work, verify the utility and completeness of code documentation and replication packages, and manage product delivery and quality testing.

“Quality testing” encompasses development of unit tests to check that code works, identification of potential counterexamples to isolate scope conditions for mathematical theorems, and other tasks necessary to verify the integrity of produced code and proofs.

Code documentation and replication packages are increasingly important for quantitative sciences like economics. A well-written documentation and replication package is often essential to project success and continuity. Senior RAs may be tasked with ensuring such documentation and packages are produced by the RA team or with producing it themselves.
may be responsible for allocating and scheduling sub-tasks among the RA team, so ability to efficiently delegate is helpful. Experience with “pair programming” and other agile software development techniques is helpful. Necessary coding experience: R & RStudio, Stata, Python, GIS, Mathematica. Senior RAs should be proficient in at least 3 of the 5 items listed above, as job responsibilities will include training others in their use.
Coding proficiency with 3 of the 5 listed items should be at a level where the Senior RA has produced at least one major deliverable using them. Such deliverables should be integrated products, e.g. a suite of codes to first process large numbers of maps, then generate a collection of datasets from those maps, and finally link them to support ad hoc statistical analyses in multiple languages. Senior RA may be responsible for translating codes in one language to another. Familiarity with Git (e.g. GitHub, GitLab) is helpful. Familiarity with functional programming is helpful.
Familiarity with REST APIs, SQL, and relational databases is helpful.

Position Title: College GIS Lands Database Redesign Intern
EDORDA: 311-2601-50200-10-202033-14334
Position Type: Pooled
Department: Geography
Supervisor: William Hegman
Description: Middlebury College is looking for an intern to help with the redesign of their GIS-based College Lands database. The database, first designed in 2005, is used extensively by the administration for long-term and day to day planning and management and by faculty and students working on research, theses, and special projects.

The redesign of the database will improve access, provide the ability to easily update important information and improve record keeping for the College. The redesign will focus on a web-based interface and integration with ArcGIS Pro and cloud-based data storage and will be compatible with the College’s other Oracle databases.
The intern will work with the College administration as needed and with Bill Hegman, the College GIS Specialist, and Jonathan Kemp from ITS on the redesign. The majority of the work will be database design, GIS project development and web-based interfaces. There may be opportunities for some field work as well to explore and revise parcel boundaries.

Desired qualifications/skills/coursework:

- Successful completion of coursework in GIS (QGIS or ArcGIS Pro)
- Experience with database design and scripting (Java script or Python) a plus.
- Position requires a highly organized individual with attention to detail and documentation. Flexibility is also important, with the ability to maintain focus while performing a diverse set of tasks.

Start and End Dates: September 19th to December 12, 2022, but dates are negotiable. 10 - 15 hours/week with flexible schedule possible.

Location: Preference given to a student on campus

How to apply: Submit a resume and cover letter by the September 12th, 2022
