

Middlebury Bread Loaf
School of English

Bridge Scholarships to BLSE Summer Study

for Attendees of the Bread Loaf Winter Institute

Funding: The Bread Loaf School of English is pleased to offer Bridge Scholarships for students who have attended at least one Bread Loaf Winter Institute and who are enrolling for the first time in one of Bread Loaf's summer programs. These scholarships help pave the way for Institute participants to undertake the first year of graduate study as continuing education or Master's degree candidates in any of the School's residential or online programs. Scholarships will support summer study at BLSE in the amount of $2500; the application fee will also be waived.

Eligibility: Anyone applying newly to BLSE's summer programs who has received professional development credit hours at a Bread Loaf Winter Institute is eligible to apply. Applicants must take a full course load (2 units).

Additional Funding: Scholarship recipients are eligible to apply for Middlebury financial aid and other special BLSE scholarships or fellowships.

To apply: To apply, you will need to 1) submit a Bread Loaf application (the application fee will be waived automatically) and 2) send an email to blseadmissions@middlebury.edu indicating your interest in being considered for a Bridge Scholarship.

Award notifications: Scholarships are limited and will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis.