

Middlebury Bread Loaf
School of English

OXFORD AWARDS

for Students Attending Bread Loaf's Oxford Campus

Funding: The Paul Epply-Schmidt Award and the Oxford Special Scholarship, established by donors who themselves have loved the Bread Loaf Oxford experience, supports students who might not otherwise be able to attend our Oxford campus. Each award, which is based on financial need and academic merit, supplements financial aid.

Eligibility: To be eligible for Oxford awards, applicants must be returning students enrolled at the Oxford campus. They must also have applied for and received regular financial aid.

Award: Recipients will receive a supplemental award for the 2026 Bread Loaf summer session, to help cover costs of tuition, room, and board. Applications are due by April 20; award decisions will be made in May.