

MIDDLEBURY C.V. STARR SCHOOLS ABROAD

2026-27

THESE ARE THE EXPERIENCES THAT MAKE MIDDLEBURY PROGRAMS DIFFERENT.

IMMERSION IN LANGUAGE AND CULTURE Living with the people of your host country.

REAL-WORLD ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITY Adapting to the local educational approach.

GUIDED INDEPENDENCE
Engaging with communities, taking on internships, and making personal discoveries that can last a lifetime.

Moldakhmet Syzdykovich and Tsivchinsky

IMMERSION IN LANGUAGE AND CULTURE

The Language Pledge®, pioneered by Middlebury's summer Language Schools, is a cornerstone of immersive language study and a key part of our study abroad programs. When students sign it, they pledge to speak only the language of their host country while there. Exceptions exist, but they are few.

By signing the pledge, students embrace both the challenge and authentic experience of a study abroad program in every respect—academic, social, and even professional when they undertake internships. Sticking to the pledge requires self-discipline, creativity, fearlessness in the face of mistakes, and a sense of humor. The reward is rapid progress in gaining proficiency and self-confidence in language learning.

Many of our students major in areas other than foreign languages, yet all are committed to linguistic development and cultural immersion.

"The Language Pledge, course load in Spanish, and close relationship to my internship mentor facilitated integration into the community that I now love so dearly."

—Liv Drazen, Wesleyan University,
San Juan, Puerto Rico

REAL-WORLD ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITY

With a few exceptions, courses are taught in the host country's language and conform to its educational approach. Universities in most other countries expect students to exercise a high degree of self-determination in their learning, and courses therefore may have a different structure than U.S. students are used to. Students adjust to a new teaching style and way of learning, which is an education in itself. On-site Middlebury staff are there to help ease transitions as students navigate university systems and policies.

"I was always told that studying abroad would change my life, but studying Russian in Kazakhstan truly gave me a better idea of who I am, where I want to go, and who I want to be in the future."

—John Paul Oberst, University of Cincinnati, Astana, Kazakhstan

"As a student interested in pursuing a career in healthcare, the opportunity to enroll in the nursing program provided me with a unique insight into the Chilean healthcare system. I also gained hands-on experience through a variety of clinical rotations."

—Sydney Rodgers, Middlebury College, Viña del Mar, Chile

GUIDED INDEPENDENCE

An important part of the Middlebury study abroad experience is helping students discover their interests in a new place—engaging with their community, exploring culture and history, and making personal connections. We encourage students to take an active role in this process, learning to navigate on their own. At the same time, our on-site staff is there to support them all along the way. Internships and extracurricular activities can further understanding of the host culture and help students gain professional experience, as well as boost language proficiency and make local connections. On-site staff help connect students to activities, internships, volunteer work, and research projects tailored to their interests. Past students have been involved with the following:

Museums and galleries
Theater companies
Media and entertainment
Environmental organizations
Research organizations

Education
Local sports teams
University choirs
Governmental agencies
Health care

"I had never stayed in a homestay before but it ended up being the best abroad housing experience I could've asked for. I loved my host family and got very close with them during my time in Yaoundé."

—Noah Miller, Middlebury College,
Yaoundé, Cameroon

MIDDLEBURY SUMMER PROGRAMS

LANGUAGE SCHOOLS

Middlebury has led the world in full-immersion language studies since the launch of its first summer program in 1915. Today the Middlebury Language Schools offer seven- and eight-week summer sessions from beginner to advanced levels in 13 languages. Middlebury also offers graduate programs in Vermont, abroad, and online; these programs can be completed in 15 months or in four six-week summers.

The Middlebury Language Schools prepare students and teachers, scholars and artists, entrepreneurs and political leaders every summer to achieve their language goals and so much more, offering a year of college-level language learning (9–12 semester hours of credit) in one intensive summer. Before going abroad, students can gain the language skills and confidence necessary to function more independently. When returning from abroad, students can further their study of languages or begin graduate work.

All of our students pledge to communicate only in their language of study for their entire time in the program. With the Language Pledge®, students are immersed in language 24/7, enabling them to make remarkable progress in their studies. They are surrounded by world-class faculty who will help and support them both in and out of the classroom, joining them for meals and cocurricular in-language activities that enhance their cultural and contextual understanding.

Need-based financial aid and merit-based fellowships are available.

MUSEUM STUDIES IN OXFORD

Middlebury Museum Studies in Oxford features two credit-bearing courses with weekly seminars and guest lectures, an intensive week of experiential learning at a local stately home, special tours of Oxford's renowned museums and archives, and numerous field trips to sites in London and further afield. For five weeks, students live and study in the heart of the city of Oxford. They gain an unparalleled insight into the structure, management, and activities of museums as well as a critical introduction to the unique British approach to historical preservation. Need-based financial aid is available.

SCHOOL OF THE ENVIRONMENT

The Middlebury School of the Environment is a six-week summer environmental studies and leadership training program. Students take three courses investigating community-based sustainability initiatives. Past locations include Dali and Kunming, China, and Monterey, California. Stay tuned for information on upcoming program dates and locations.

Nationally recognized environmental faculty and mentors lead the interdisciplinary courses both in and out of the classroom. Students participate in leadership training workshops and field experiences to build a toolkit of leadership skills. The program awards three Middlebury units of credit (equivalent to nine semester hours of credit), and need- and merit-based financial aid is available.

STUDY AWAY AT MONTEREY

Undergraduates have the opportunity to spend a semester or a year at the Middlebury Institute of International Studies, a graduate school of Middlebury College. Students can draw from the extraordinary resources the Institute has to offer, including faculty active in the fields of international development, environmental policy, global security, social impact, and languages. These programs educate students to advance understanding, promote peace, and drive change in pursuit of a more just world.

In addition to direct enrollment in Institute course work, students can design independent studies, participate in global courses, and work as graduate assistants. Excursions, led by Middlebury staff, encourage engagement with the community and environment in Monterey.

Students can use their Study Away at Monterey semester to work toward a master's degree at the Institute. By taking required courses during their Study Away semester, they are able to apply credit toward a master's and, in some cases, accelerate the degree.

Language Schools

Through the Middlebury Language Schools, students can obtain a Master of Arts (MA), Master of Arts (MA) in Applied Languages, or Master of Arts in Teaching (MAT) with Licensure.

Students can complete an MA in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Russian, or Spanish over four six-week summers in Vermont or one or two six-week summers combined with an academic year in France, Germany, Italy, Kazakhstan, or Spain. Hebrew, Japanese, and Korean have online options.

The MA in Applied Languages is available in French, German, and Italian. Students spend one six-week summer in Vermont followed by an academic year abroad paired with an international internship.

The MAT is offered in Arabic, Chinese, French, German, Hebrew, Italian, Japanese, Korean, and Spanish. Students spend one six-week summer in Vermont, an academic year online, a second summer in Vermont, and a final teaching practicum in their preferred place of residence.
