Selection of Community Engagement Opportunities
Health & Advocacy
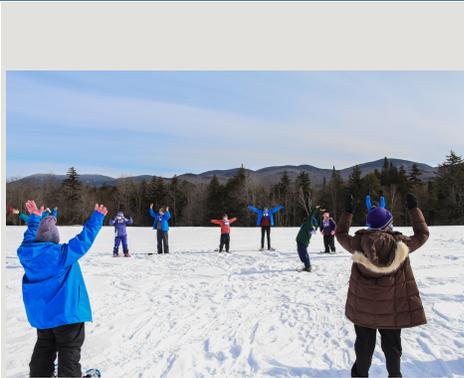

?

Did you know...
More than

1,500

Middlebury College students volunteer
annually,
contributing about

65,000

hours of service
each year

Note: Many health-related volunteer opportunities, including elderly services, have been suspended due to the pandemic.

Health & Counseling

Open Door Clinic

Josh Lanney, Patient Services Coordinator: 802-388-0137, odc@opendoormidd.org

Serve as a general volunteer, EMT, or medical interpreter at Addison County's only free medical clinic.

WomenSafe

802-388-9180, info@womensafe.net

Work toward the elimination of physical, sexual and emotional violence against women and their children through volunteering for tasks like answering the hotline or helping with administrative duties. Note: 30 hour training required prior to volunteering.

Turning Point Center of Addison County

info@turningpointaddisonvt.org, (802) 388-4249

Turning Point offers a safe, friendly for individuals in recovery and their families. Activities include peer-to-peer recovery support, social activities, recovery coaching, education, and advocacy.

Middlebury First Responders

mcems@Middlebury.edu

Work with Middlebury Regional EMS as a first responder, volunteering on a weekly basis.

?

Did you know...
More than

1,500

Middlebury College students volunteer
annually,
contributing about

65,000

hours of service
each year

Children & Families

Nutrition Outreach and Mentoring (NOM)
NOM Student Organization, nom@middlebury.edu
Connect with youth through food education., including monthly produce taste tests.

Advocacy

United Way of Addison County
Jesse Brooks, Director of Advocacy: 802-388-7189, jesse@unitedwayaddisoncounty.org
United Way's mission is to improve lives by mobilizing the caring power of Addison County. They seek Tax Aide Volunteers to help with their Tax Assistance Program (no prior experience needed; training and certification provided). UWAC also seeks student volunteers as part of its Community Impact Funding grant review committee.