Dear Alumni,

On behalf of the Middlebury Alumni Association (MAA) board, we welcome you to your class Reunion! A Middlebury Reunion is a wonderful weekend full of reconnecting with classmates, sharing memories, exploring what is new (and what remains the same) on campus, and simply enjoying this beautiful place that is Middlebury.

It is also an opportunity to make new connections with alumni from other generations—you will find yourself surrounded by members of the Classes of 1949 through 2019. That is a lot of Middlebury experience!

Within this program, you’ll find details of the many events planned for the weekend—including hikes, faculty talks, alumni achievement presentations, a presidential panel, and more.

On Saturday afternoon, we encourage you to join the parade of classes up to Middlebury Chapel for Convocation, where you will hear class memories from 75 years ago to today. It is truly memorable. Over the course of the weekend, I hope you will have a chance to reflect upon your Middlebury experience and celebrate the role the College has played in your life. Thanks for all you do to make Middlebury the great place it continues to be.

And, if you’d like to get more involved—conducting a prospective student interview, offering a summer internship to a Midd Kid, or becoming a mentor—please visit go.middlebury.edu/ways-to-engage.

Here’s to walls of ivy for years to come,

David R. Ellis ’09
Hannah C. Burnett ’10

MAA Board President
MAA Board Vice President

Celebrating 100 years, the Middlebury Alumni Association (MAA) board would love to hear from you.

Please take a moment to share your thoughts in this alumni feedback survey.

Wishing you a wonderful Reunion Weekend!

Middlebury College Museum of Art Special Exhibits

Hunter Barnes: A World Away
Based on Barnes’s book of black-and-white photographs taken in the Eastern Province among the Tamil people, and accompanied by his personal handwritten diary entries, this exhibit offers a rare glimpse into a largely visually undocumented period in Sri Lankan history.

Recent Acquisitions
Over 30 recent additions to the museum’s permanent collection. The exhibit includes works by Veronica Ryan, Sean Scully, Joan Snyder, John Steuart Curry, Fidelia Bridges, and James McNeil Whistler, among others. Some of the works will be accompanied by short texts prepared by the 2022–2023 cohort of Robert Reiff museum interns.

Permanent Collection Galleries
In addition, visit the Permanent Collection Galleries, which have recently been reinstalled along thematic lines to be more inclusive and accessible.

Public Sculpture
Enjoy a self-guided tour of Middlebury’s excellent collection of public art at any time! go.middlebury.edu/cappcollection/

Dialogue: Middlebury Sustainability in Action Through the Years
Middlebury’s response to the climate crisis has taken many forms over the past several decades with significant involvement by students—both in advocating for setting bold and ambitious goals and in rolling up their sleeves to work on implementation. Join Jack Byrne, dean of sustainability and environmental affairs; Minna Brown, director of the Climate Action Program; and Tara Federoff, sustainability specialist, to learn how Middlebury is preparing students to take on the challenges. Using Energy2028 as a focus, they will share stories about how students, faculty, and staff are contributing to meeting the goals and imagine together what the years beyond 2028 may require.

Come meet “scythe sister” and competitive hand-mower and teacher, Michaela Stickney ’84 (also Saturday 1:00–2:00 p.m.). Sharpen your skills and knowledge about scythe handling, blades, whetstones, and grass by joining this short scythe school snapshot. Connect with this ancient knowledge that will strengthen your core muscles outdoors and deepen your roots with the earth. It’s addictive! Swing-snath, steel-sing, stone-hone, hammer-peen, and sip some switchel.
The Knoll, Route 125 West

3:30 to 4:30 p.m.
Dialogue: Middlebury Sustainability in Action Through the Years
Middlebury’s response to the climate crisis has taken many forms over the past several decades with significant involvement by students—both in advocating for setting bold and ambitious goals and in rolling up their sleeves to work on implementation. Join Jack Byrne, dean of sustainability and environmental affairs; Minna Brown, director of the Climate Action Program; and Tara Federoff, sustainability specialist, to learn how Middlebury is preparing students to take on the challenges. Using Energy2028 as a focus, they will share stories about how students, faculty, and staff are contributing to meeting the goals and imagine together what the years beyond 2028 may require.

Dear Alumni,

On behalf of the Middlebury Alumni Association (MAA) board, we welcome you to your class Reunion! A Middlebury Reunion is a wonderful weekend full of reconnecting with classmates, sharing memories, exploring what is new (and what remains the same) on campus, and simply enjoying this beautiful place that is Middlebury.

It is also an opportunity to make new connections with alumni from other generations—you will find yourself surrounded by members of the Classes of 1949 through 2019. That is a lot of Middlebury experience!

Within this program, you’ll find details of the many events planned for the weekend—including hikes, faculty talks, alumni achievement presentations, a presidential panel, and more.

On Saturday afternoon, we encourage you to join the parade of classes up to Middlebury Chapel for Convocation, where you will hear class memories from 75 years ago to today. It is truly memorable. Over the course of the weekend, I hope you will have a chance to reflect upon your Middlebury experience and celebrate the role the College has played in your life. Thanks for all you do to make Middlebury the great place it continues to be.

And, if you’d like to get more involved—conducting a prospective student interview, offering a summer internship to a Midd Kid, or becoming a mentor—please visit go.middlebury.edu/ways-to-engage.

Here’s to walls of ivy for years to come,

David R. Ellis ’09
Hannah C. Burnett ’10

Wishing you a wonderful Reunion Weekend!

Celebrating 100 years, the Middlebury Alumni Association (MAA) board would love to hear from you.

Please take a moment to share your thoughts in this alumni feedback survey.

Wishing you a wonderful Reunion Weekend!
