APPLICATION FOR COURSE AUDIT

General Instructions & Guidelines:

A full-time, year-round staff member, his/her spouse/domestic partner/civil union partner, as well as a full-time academic year faculty member with ongoing contracts and his/her spouse/domestic partner/civil union partner may apply for permission to audit a class at Middlebury College, after a one-year waiting period. An eligible applicant may take one course per semester, and must first apply through the Office of the Dean of the Faculty.

Once completed, turn the form into the Office of the Dean of the Faculty, who will send written notification of eligibility to the applicant.

Please consider that the availability to audit in any given course may be limited by certain factors as outlined on the back of this form and the needs of the College.

RESTRICTIONS AND LIMITATIONS:

Recognizing that the Mission of Middlebury College is meant to serve the needs of its full-time regular students requires that the course considerations of those students are primary to serving the purpose and mission of the College. Thus, the College reserves the right in certain instances to limit access to its course offerings. The list below provides the most common restrictions and limitations that the College may use to ensure that the needs of the regular student body are not adversely impacted.

- Employees of the College may be limited by the staffing needs of their department.
- Applicants must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the instructor their qualifications for the course and related course work.
- Permission to audit a particular course may be withheld due to space limitations.
- Permission to audit a particular course may be withheld to maintain balance between regularly enrolled students and eligible applicants under this policy already enrolled in a particular course.
- Permission to audit under this process occurs only after regular student registration.
- Specific courses may be excluded by the Dean of the Faculty.
- Other limitations as outlined by the Employees Handbook or necessary for the College to maintain its mission to serve the full-time students.

Middlebury College complies with applicable provisions of state and federal law which prohibit discrimination in employment, or in admission or access to its educational or extracurricular programs, activities, or facilities, on the basis of race, color, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, age, marital status, place of birth, service in the armed forces of the United States, or against qualified individuals with disabilities on the basis of disability.
