June 2023

Dear Alumni,

On behalf of the Middlebury Alumni Association (MAA) board, welcome to your class Reunion! A Middlebury Reunion is a wonderful weekend full of reconnecting with classmates, sharing memories, exploring what is new (and what remains the same) on campus, and simply enjoying this beautiful place that is Middlebury.

It is also an opportunity to make new connections with alumni from other generations—you will find yourself surrounded by members of the Classes of 1948 through 2018. That is a lot of Middlebury experience!

Within this program, you'll find details of the many events planned for the weekend—including hikes, faculty talks, alumni achievement presentations, a presidential panel, and more.

On Saturday afternoon, we encourage you to join the parade of classes up to Middlebury Chapel for Convocation, where you will hear class memories from 75 years ago to today. It is truly memorable. Over the course of the weekend, I hope you will have a chance to reflect upon your Middlebury experience and celebrate the role the College has played in your life. Thanks for all you do to make Middlebury the great place it continues to be.

And, if you'd like to get more involved—conducting a prospective student interview, offering a summer internship to a Midd Kid, or becoming a mentor—please visit go.middlebury.edu/ways-to-engage.

Here's to walls of ivy for years to come,

Middlebury College Museum of Art Special Exhibits

Tossed: Art from Discarded, Found, and Re-purposed Materials

Composed of nearly 20 works that make use of discarded materials, Tossed explores themes of aesthetics, social/political commentary, and cultural reference juxtaposing contemporary works—by artists such as Swoon, Richard Stankiewicz, El Anatsui, Romuald Hazoumè, Melvin Edwards, and Betye Saar—with artists’ statements and contextual insights about our throwaway society.

Recent Acquisitions

Over 30 recent additions to the museum’s permanent collection. The exhibit includes works by Veronica Ryan, Sean Scully, Joan Snyder, John Steuart Curry, Fidelia Bridges, and James McNeil Whistler, among others. Some of the works will be accompanied by short texts prepared by the 2022–2023 cohort of Robert Reiff museum interns.

Permanent Collection Galleries

In addition, visit the Permanent Collection Galleries, which have recently been reinstalled along thematic lines to be more inclusive and accessible.

Public Sculpture

Enjoy a self-guided tour of Middlebury’s excellent collection of public art at any time! go.middlebury.edu/cappcollection/

Middlebury College Special Collections Exhibit

“Pop-up books! Books in All Dimensions”

Visit the current Special Collections exhibit featuring 100 years of pop-up books from the fanciful to the functional, including science texts, fairy tales, and artists’ books.

Davis Family Library, Atrium, Lower Level

FRIDAY, JUNE 9

9:00 a.m. to
3:00 p.m.

Stroll the Knoll

The Knoll offers opportunities for academic involvement, community connections, and environmental stewardship. Walk or drive out to meet the summer interns, enjoy the gardens, and walk the labyrinth as we celebrate 20 years in the garden!

The Knoll, Route 125 West

11:00 a.m. to
4:00 p.m.

Library Special Collections Exhibitions and Open House

Home to rare books and manuscripts from a 4,000-year-old cuneiform tablet to contemporary artists' books, Special Collections serves as a research laboratory for the history of the book and material culture; in addition to collecting and preserving the history of the College, as custodians for Middlebury College's history and the Middlebury College Archives. Mingle with our staff and browse artifacts celebrating Reunion Weekend.

Davis Family Library, Lower Level, Special Collections Reading Room

1:00 to
3:00 p.m.

Peterson Family Athletics Complex Open House

In 2015, Middlebury celebrated the opening and dedication of the Virtue Field House and remodeled Peterson Family Athletics Complex. Come see the facility along with the Middlebury Athletics History Wall and the Athletics Hall of Fame.

South Main Street, Route 30

SATURDAY, JUNE 10

1:00 to
4:00 p.m.

The Knoll Open House

The Knoll offers opportunities for academic involvement, community connections, and environmental stewardship. Summer interns will lead garden tours at the top of each hour. All are welcome to come enjoy the gardens and labyrinth, chat with current and former food and garden educators, and take in the beauty of the Champlain Valley. We will provide drinks, garden produce samples, and small bites from the wood-fired oven. Please note that driving is permitted and there is a handicap-accessible portalet available.

One of the issues that overrode our years in college was politics, primarily in relation to the Vietnam War. We have asked classmates who were politically active during college and/or in the years since college to share their experiences. We hope they will reflect on how their college years may have influenced their later pursuits, or whether they "fell into" a political life. We're not interested in discussing specific political issues, except perhaps as they informed the lives/careers of the participants. Jim Morone, professor of political science and public policy at Brown, will moderate.

Computer Access

Wireless Internet access is available throughout most of campus. If you need to use a computer, visit the Davis Family Library or McCullough Student Center.

Access Wi-Fi on Campus

Turn on your wireless device and select the MiddleburyGuest wireless network under settings/Wi-Fi. A welcome screen should appear on its own on most devices; on others, you may have to open a web browser. TIP: If the welcome page doesn't appear when you open the web browser, enter cpauth.middlebury.edu in the address field.

Click on Create Basic Guest Account. Check the box next to "I accept the terms of use" and then click "LOG IN." You should see a mostly blank screen with the word "success" in small font in the upper left. Click "Done." You should now be able to get email, use apps, and navigate the web as normal, using the guest Wi-Fi.

ATMs

ATMs are located in the McCullough Student Center lobby and outside the Wilson Café in the Davis Family Library.

Lost and Found

Lost-and-found articles should be delivered to general Reunion headquarters in McCullough Student Center's Crest Room throughout the weekend. If you are missing anything, please call 802-443-5183 or contact alumni@middlebury.edu. Middlebury College is not responsible for lost or stolen articles.

How to Get Around on Campus

Buses or Middlebury vans will be available to transport guests to and from many events. Golf carts will also be available to transport guests who need special assistance. A campus shuttle will make regular stops at points around campus from 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. on Friday, and 9:00 a.m. to midnight on Saturday. The campus shuttle will make stops at Adirondack Circle, Ridgeline parking lot, Adirondack View Road, Hepburn Road/Stewart Hall, Alumni Stadium, Mahaney Arts Center parking lot, McCullough, and behind Wright Theatre. Shuttle stops will be marked with signs, and shuttles will run approximately every 15 minutes.

Accommodations and Assistance

Guests in need of accommodations or assistance should contact the Alumni and Parent Programs Office at 802-443-5183 prior to Reunion.

Physical Access

Most campus buildings are accessible to all individuals. There are accessible parking spaces, designated for those with appropriate license plates, in front of most buildings. If you need additional assistance with parking, please call the Department of Public Safety at 802-443-5133.

12-Step Hospitality Center

Held in Mahaney Arts Center, Room 126

Friday 6:00–10:00 p.m.
