

Quick Guide to Event Rules

The following rules, procedures, and laws pertaining to the Middlebury campus have been summarized for quick reference. Complete descriptions and requirements of most rules may be found on the websites provided below. Please review all links that apply to your event!

Questions about these rules should be directed to the department or entity of origin.

Rule	Description	Origin	Web Link
7 Day Rule	Service providers may not be able to provide support services for requests received less than 7 days before an event. NOTE: Catering requires a minimum of 10 days prior to the event date to ensure ability to procure goods and services.	Facilities Services, Dining Services, Media Services, Public Safety	http://www.middlebury.edu/offices/business/scheduling/EventFAQ
Academic Scheduling Restrictions	Events requiring a classroom/academic space cannot not be scheduled until the course schedule for that semester is complete.	Registrar's Office	https://www.middlebury.edu/event-management/policies#scheduling-prioritization
Alcohol Policies	Use of alcohol on campus is strictly regulated by Vermont state law. Please review all campus alcohol policies on the Dining Services website. Private student parties are subject to Residential Life Regulations. See "Private Parties" below.	Vermont state law; Dining Services; College Handbook	https://www.middlebury.edu/office/dining-services/catering/alcohol-policies
Barbecue Grills	The use of outdoor grills is limited to authorized locations at small houses and must be approved before use. Fuel may not be kept in residential buildings. Two permanent charcoal grills behind the Townhouses may be used on a first come, first served basis for small gatherings.	College Handbook	https://www.middlebury.edu/handbook/pages/ii-ug-college-policies/ug-policies/res-life-conduct-policies/residential-life-policies/#firesafety
Bonfires / Burn Permit Policy	Outdoor burning requires both a permit from the Town and permission from the College.	Environmental Health & Safety Office, and the Town of Middlebury	http://www.middlebury.edu/offices/health/ehs/policies/burnpermit
Catering Restrictions	Only non-college caterers approved by Dining Services may provide food on campus. The Controller's Office will not reimburse payments to caterers that are not on the approved list.	Dining Services and Controller's Office	https://www.middlebury.edu/office/dining-services/catering/non-college-catering-options

Catering License	Caterers or food prepared off campus may not be brought into any facility or dining hall for which Dining Services holds a catering license, without special permission from the Director of Dining Services. Dining Services also maintains right of first refusal to serve in these areas. Licensed facilities outside of dining halls include: The Grille, Crossroads & Kirk Alumni Center.	Dining Services, per VT state law	https://www.middlebury.edu/office/dining-services/catering
Contract Management Policies	There are contractual requirements for anyone providing a service on campus, including performers & lecturers.	Controller's Office	https://www.middlebury.edu/office/finance-and-administration/controller/purchasing-and-payment/independent-contractors
Course Relocations	Contact Course Scheduling to request course relocations. Activities related to a course (film screenings, meetings, an extra discussion session, a lecture for class, etc.) are scheduled by Event Management. Please submit requests for activities via your department coordinator.	Registrar's Office & Event Management	https://www.middlebury.edu/office/registrar/course-scheduling/guidelines-and-faqs
Crowd Control	All assembly occupancies greater than 50 people, shall be provided with a minimum of one trained crowd manager or crowd manager supervisor.	Environmental Health & Safety Office, per State of Vermont Life Safety Code	https://www.middlebury.edu/office/environmental-health-safety/fire-and-life-safety#crowd-manager
Demonstration & Protest Regulations	Demonstrations or protests must be organized in consultation with Event Management and Public Safety. With the V.P. of Student Affairs, Event Management and Public Safety will identify an appropriate time, location, and manner in which the demonstration may occur, in accordance with Middlebury Handbook regulations. Please review the Handbook regulations before submitting an Event Scheduling Request. See also, Handbook Policy on Open Expression below.	Middlebury Handbook	http://www.middlebury.edu/about/handbook/policies-for-all/health-safety/demonst-protests
Dining Facilities, use of for events	Use of any dining facility licensed to serve alcohol, even though the event does not call for food or alcohol service, requires a dining staff member to be present to manage the facility, to comply with the license. This represents added labor expense for the event.	Dining Services, per VT state law	dining@middlebury.edu

Exam Periods	Other than student org sponsored "stress-breaker" activities after 10 p.m., "no activities, athletic events (games or practices), course registration, additional or makeup classes will be scheduled for this period of time. A thesis defense may be scheduled during the final examination period." Quick Guide to Event Rules

Screening Rights	Film screenings often require public performance licensing to comply with U.S. copyright laws.	Middlebury Libraries, per Federal law	https://www.middlebury.edu/library/about/policies/copyright-fair-use#video
Student Orgs, Contracts w/Speakers & Performers	Student organizations may not sign contracts or use their budgets for guest lecturers or performers without first discussing with the Student Engagement office - even if no expenses will be incurred. Student Orgs are required to apply to the MCAB Speakers Fund for special funds and assistance.	MCAB / Student Engagement Office	https://www.middlebury.edu/college/student-life/student-activities/student-organizations/student-organization-handbook
Student Orgs, Election Do's and Don'ts (for public elections)	The College's non-profit status strictly prohibits us from "directly or indirectly participating in, or intervening in, any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for elective public office." There are, however, many things you can do in conjunction with elections. Consult the Student Organization Handbook.	Student Engagement, per U.S. Internal Revenue Code	https://www.middlebury.edu/college/student-life/student-activities/student-organizations/student-organization-handbook
Student Orgs, Fundraising Regulations	Student orgs must obtain a permit to raise money for charitable projects, or to defray costs of certain College-approved projects. (Strictly regulated due to the College's non-profit status.)	Student Engagement, Middlebury Handbook	http://www.middlebury.edu/about/handbook/ug-college-policies/ug-policies/res-life-conduct-policies/student-organization-policies#fundraising
Tabling	Only recognized student organizations and approved concessions may set up a table in certain approved locations, for the distribution of petitions, handbills, and literature.	Student Engagement, Student Org Handbook	https://www.middlebury.edu/college/student-life/student-activities/student-organizations/student-organization-handbook
Volunteers	Departments may sponsor volunteers to supplement the learning environment on campus and beyond. To sponsor a volunteer, a Volunteer Registration Form must be completed and submitted to Human Resources . All volunteers should be identified via this process to ensure they have appropriate training, and to support ongoing efforts to foster a safe and secure campus environment for all. If the volunteer needs a College email, ID card, or any other access, a Courtesy Account Form must also be submitted.
