Teaching by the Case Method. Semester-long seminar at the Harvard Graduate School of Education, Cambridge, Massachusetts, 1998

RESEARCH SUPPORT

Principal or Co-principal Investigator or Project Manager:

Building Extension Capacity to Address Community Food Security through Food Systems

Funding Agency/Period: Global Food Security, Agriculture and Food Research Initiative, National Institute of Food and Agriculture, U.S. Department of Agriculture, 2014-2015

Role: Collaborating Investigator, responsible for helping to organize and lead a food systems workshop for Cooperative Extension participants in fall of 2014

Trans-Atlantic Partnership

Funding Agency/Period: Partridge Foundation, 2008-2012

Role: Director after January 2010, responsible for setting objectives and developing workplan, generating research and educational proposals from partners, coordinating and assisting with most funded activities, facilitating monthly Steering Committee calls, organizing international conference, managing $1M budget, final evaluation, contacts with funder

State-Level Food System Indicators

Funding Agency/Period: Healthy Food, Healthy Living Institute, University of Minnesota; 2010-2012

Role: Co-principal Investigator, responsible for identifying appropriate data for state-level food system indicators and using factor analysis to test the validity of the “healthy, green, fair and affordable” dimensions of “good food” proposed by the WK Kellogg Foundation

Partnership to Accelerate the Expansion of Sustainable and Community-based Food Systems

Funding Agency/Period: WK Kellogg Foundation, 2006-2008

Role: Project Manager, responsible for developing a credible set of indicators to measure the flow of food products through sustainable channels and working with academicians, civil-society and private-sector stakeholders, and government staff to ensure indicator use

Red Tomato: Reinventing Local Food Systems

Funding Agency/Period: Red Tomato, 2002-04

Role: Evaluator, responsible for assessing farmer and retailer satisfaction with the brokering services provided by Red Tomato and providing recommendations. Advisor to Illinois Food Systems project

Mystic Watershed Collaborative Clearinghouse: Information Retrieval, Integration, Analysis and GIS Training

Funding Agency/Period: Berger Family Technology Transfer Endowment, 2001-02

Role: Project Coordinator and Liaison between Tufts University and community

Northeastern Eco-Apple Market Development and Consumer Recognition

Funding Agency/Period: John Merck Fund and other foundations, 1996-98

Role: Co-investigator, responsible for the Consumer Evaluation Component

Directory of Greater Boston Organizations Working for Sustainable Food Systems

Funding Agency/Period: Food for All, 1996

Role: Project Director

Program in Agriculture, Food and the Environment

Funding Agency/Period: Wallace Genetic Foundation, Tufts Center for Environmental Management, 1993-94

Role: Co-investigator, responsible for co-leading program development

Pesticide Risk Perception and Use of Alternatives among Massachusetts Farmers

Funding Agency/Period: Environmental Protection Agency, 1992-93

Role: Principal Investigator

Research Policies to Foster a More Sustainable Agricultural System

Funding Agency/Period: Northwest Area Foundation, Ford Foundation, Joyce Foundation, 1990-92

Role: Co-investigator, responsible for co-authoring book

Collaborator (designed and conducted a significant portion of the project):

FLEdGE (Food: Locally Embedded, Globally Engaged)

Funding Agency/Period: SSHRC (Canada)/2014-2018

Role: Participate on Governance and Agroecology Working Groups. This project is under the leadership of Principal Investigator Alison Blay Palmer at Wilfrid Laurier University.

Food: Engaging in Action for Sustainable Transformation

Funding Agency/Period: International Social Science Council, Transformations to Sustainability Programme

Role: One-year planning grant under the leadership of Principal Investigator Alison Blay Palmer at Wilfrid Laurier University. My included investigation of the adoption of sustainable diets, integration of different forms of knowledge, and civil society participation in knowledge networks.

New England Food Knowledge Ecosystem Project

Funding Agency/Period: John Merck Fund, 2013-2015

Role: Developed indicators for Farm to Institution New England, helped to develop framework for knowledge ecosystem and set up pilot project on farm-to-institution work

Red Tomato: 18% Sustained Annual Growth Through Product Development and Capacity Building—Taking Red Tomato to the Next Level

Funding Agency/Period: WK Kellogg Foundation, 2008-2011

Role: Evaluator, responsible for assessment of all stages of the project and development of appropriate metrics for monitoring progress toward new strategic goals

Sustainable and Equitable Food Systems Foundation Scan

Funding Agency/Period: Surdna Foundation, 2010-2011

Role: Member of Advisory Council, responsible for contributing scans on selected topics and advising on all aspects of the project

Public Stewardship and Access in the Lower Mystic Watershed

Funding Agency/Period: Anonymous private foundation, 2002-05

Role: Primary Tufts contributor to Mystic Watershed Collaborative project proposal, responsible for project design, proposal and budget development, and negotiations with funders

Farmers' Market Project. Family Nutrition Program Nutrition Education

Funding Agency/Period: MA Department of Transitional Assistance, 1997-99

Role: Sub-contractor to University of Massachusetts Expanded Food and Nutrition Education Program, responsible for implementing market survey in farmers' markets serving low-income Dominican and Puerto Rican communities

Consumer Perceptions of Integrated Pest Management

Funding Agency/Period: Environmental Protection Agency, 1994

Role: Sub-contractor to the University of Massachusetts Integrated Pest Management Program, responsible for design and conduct of a study of consumer perceptions of sweet corn raised with Integrated Pest Management

Research Associate or Project Coordinator:

Farm and Food Policy Project

Funding Agency/Period: WK Kellogg Foundation, 2004-2007

Role: Research Coordinator, responsible for developing a set of Learning Papers to support policies being proposed by a broad multistakeholder coalition of organizations advocating for the 2007 Farm Bill

Improving the Assessment of Transgenic Microorganisms Released into the Environment: An Integrative Approach

Funding Agency/Period: EPA, 1993

Role: Research Associate, responsible for a survey of companies developing genetically engineered microorganisms

An Assessment of On-farm Research as a Strategy for Advancing Agricultural Sustainability

Funding Agency/Period: Jessie Smith Noyes Foundation, 1989-90

Role: Research Associate, responsible for mail survey and site interviews with agricultural researchers and public interest advocates

On-farm Demonstration of Low-input Farming

Funding Agency/Period: U.S. Department of Agriculture, Southern Region Low-Input Sustainable Agriculture Program, 1989-90

Role: Project Coordinator

Other Grant Support and Consulting:

Assessing 'Systems Thinking' Learning Progressions through a Semi-quantitative Cognitive Mapping Software

Funding Agency/Period: National Science Foundation, 2017-2020

Role: Participate as a pilot site in use and testing of Mental Modeler, a system mapping software package that allows assessment of student learning.

Development of a Food Studies Program

Funding Agency/Period: Guilford College, Greensboro, NC, 2015

Role: Consult with faculty, staff and students to identify Guilford's niche and target audience in food studies and to help develop curricular materials and publicity.

Peggy Rockefeller Farms: A Teaching and Demonstration Center on Mount Desert Island

Funding Agency/Period: David R. Rockefeller Fund, 2014-2016

Role: COA received a grant of $589,300 in spring of 2014 to implement projects designed by students under the direction of Molly Anderson and Farm Manager CJ Walke.

Empowering a Fossil Fuel-free Farm at College of the Atlantic's Peggy Rockefeller Farms

Funding Agency/Period: The Arthur Vining Davis Foundation, 2014-2016

Role: COA received a grant of $200,000 in spring of 2014 to implement work that was proposed by Molly Anderson in 2010 for the farms, designed by a student under her supervision, and implemented in a start-up phase by other faculty and staff at COA.
